

ROSE PLANTED ON DEPOT GROUNDS BY ROSE SHOW QUEEN

"Do we like Medford," cried the Prince of Rosario, "No," chorused the queen, Thelma and her followers, "We love it."

Picture a bevy of beautiful girls and then one more petite and fairer than the rest and you have a picture of Queen Thelma and her court.

"This rose," she said as she held the fragile flower, "I give to you as a token of Rosario, to forever cement the friendship of our cities."

"It is a tie that binds the hands of a united Pacific coast, a perpetual memory of friendship."

"My home is your home, my city yours, as your city is my city, for we are Oregonians, and the state is our home."

The queen took the flower and placed it in the rose circle on the Southern Pacific grounds, then one by one the maids of honor touched the flower and spoke words of loyalty. The court chamberlain, Phil Bates, read the royal proclamation for the rose show.

The Royal Rosarians were met at the train by many Medfordites headed by C. E. Gates, who presented her Royal Highness with a bouquet of flowers and bade them welcome.

As the train whistled, the queen raised her hand and her court raised the royal chant of

Rose time,
June time,
Good time,
Portland.

Blue Monday

With ever recurring regularity that day of days, when everything goes wrong, when the groceries and meat, the ice and the wood and everything to be ordered, when the family wash is in the tub and all the household affairs upset, what a relief to have at your elbow a servant who will run all the errands and take away the worry and care of Blue Monday. We furnish this service to 2000 housewives in Medford, and have a servant ready to serve you in the same way. The service we will perform is almost unlimited but the charge is so small you will wonder how it can be done—only 5 cents a day (no other charge.) If you want us to drive away all Blue Mondays in your house let us list you in the Blue Book of Medford which goes to press June 10. You will be proud to have your name along with the others.

STARVING WOMEN ASK SURRENDER MAZATLAN CITY

ON BOARD U. S. S. CALIFORNIA
MAZATLAN, Mexico, June 8.—Two hundred starving women trailed in a straggling procession behind the carriage of the military governor of Mazatlan today, imploring him to surrender the city to the investing constitutional army. The federal garrison is not much better off for food than the non-combatants it is supposed to be protecting.

The captain of this port and his assistants were thrown into jail today by the federal governor for permitting the capture this afternoon by the constitutionalists of a government tug.

THAT TERRIBLE BACKACHE from which so many women suffer is significant of organic trouble. It tells, with other symptoms, such as headaches, nervousness, and depression, that nature requires assistance. For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a simple remedy made from roots and herbs, has been the one effective remedy in such cases. It speedily removes the cause and restores the system to a healthy normal condition.
