MEDFORD CREAMERY PAYS HIGHEST PRICE FOR CREAM

The proprietor of the Medford Creamery reports that he is having trouble to get enough cream to make all the butter he wants to and would like to have the farmers and dairymen bring in their cream. He has been and is still paying top prices for cream and says the lowest he has paid is 24 cents per pound and during the last of May and the first of this month he has paid 25 cents. With the demand for cream in Medford and the good prices, it looks like who have cream for sale would bring or ship it in. Mr. Chappel, the proprietor of the creamery would be glad to correspond with those having butter fat for sale.
