PLUME DEALERS TO FIGHT BIRD LAWS

PARIS, June 9.—Called to defend their industry against what is termed legislative destruction on the part of bird protectors, the international Congress of Plume Dealers met here today. Their deliberations will continue several days.

Emond Morin, vice-president of the French Association of Feather Merchants and Manufacturers, told the delegates that what must be obtained was the repeal of that section of the United States tariff act prohibiting the importation of plumes, the nullification of the decree recently promulgated in Canada and also the prevention of proposed legislation in Great Britain.

BRITAIN TO EXHIBIT UNOFFICIALLY AT FAIR

NEW YORK, June 9.—Great Britain will exhibit at the Panama Pacific exposition unofficially if the United States provides the space and pavilion, according to W. A. M. Goude, secretary of the English company, which has vainly urged the British government to participate.

Mr. Goude spoke at a dinner of the British schools and University club last night. He said the action of the government did not represent the sentiments of the people of Great Britain.

CLAIRE SHERARD MOST PERFECT OF MEDFORD BABIES

Claire Virginia Sherard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Sherard was first prize for class A girls at the Better Baby contest, with a percentage of 99.8, and John Francis Dallaire, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Dallaire won first prize for class A boys with a percentage of 98.8. The final examinations were made this morning.

Ranking with the Sherard baby, a fractional point difference is Doris H. Bundy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. Bundy, with a percentage of 99.75. The judges debated over an hour between these two finally deciding upon Virginia Claire. In the first two tests the two were tied and both are perfect specimens.

A Second Tie Class C Another tie came in class C boys between George I. Brown and Albert McMann at 98.5 per cent, the judges deciding in favor of the Brown baby.

The cups and spoons offered as first and second prizes are being engraved and will be ready for distribution to winners named below at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Haskins' drug store.

The 20 best babies according to the decision of the judges given this afternoon, after tests of the three highest from the preliminary examinations are as follows, the first named winning first and the second named, second:

CONCERTED BUYING SENDS PRICES UP

NEW YORK, June 9.—The stock market closed steady. Strength attended today's limited dealings in stocks. Special issues responded to concerted buying. Traders realizing caused some recessions in the late dealings, but the general undertone was good.

After a dull and irregular opening today the stock market stiffened. All the active stocks made gains, running up to a point for Union Pacific. Virginia debt certificates broke 12 1/2 on the ruin of the supreme court, which permits reopening of the case, involving another long delay. The rapid outflow of gold continued. The engagement of $5,000,000 more for Europe was announced without affecting the market.

Elizabeth, a diminutive performer, who will appear with the carnival next week.

DOLL LIKE LADY WITH CARNIVAL

Among the attractions of the Foley & Burk Amusement company which is to furnish the features for the Medford Baseball association carnival which opens here next Monday, is a little lady, 21 inches high, and weighing 27 pounds, known as "Elizabeth, the Living Doll."

Elizabeth is perfectly formed and is one of the best known performers in American vaudeville. She is 21 years of age and accomplished in many ways. She readily speaks six different languages and it is seldom that anyone is found in her audience who cannot understand her. Elizabeth plays several kinds of musical instruments and is an accomplished vocalist.

This is not the first visit of Elizabeth to Medford as she played an engagement here several years ago when a girl in her teens. While here she made many friends and as she is endowed with a marvelous memory will readily call them all by name when she meets any of them on her arrival here.

The carnival company has many other attractions and is highly endorsed by the various commercial and civic bodies of the cities of California. Clean attractions and meritorious entertainments are the constant endeavor of the management.

Of course a Ferris wheel and merry-go-round are to be expected. The youngsters would not think it was a carnival without these time honored amusement features. The huge wheel is all steel and cantilevered and as safe as any sitting room rocking chair. It is the type called "RH" and has come to be known as the only kind carried by up-to-date carnivals.

The merry-go-round is a distinct novelty. Not one of the wild and jerk, gasoline engine and track affairs with stationary horses but a regular "Old Country" style galloping horse carousel with life sized steeds which gallop in a realistic manner on a safe platform, swung from a mighty axle which stands vertically in the center rendering a perfectly

Blue Monday

With ever recurring regularity that day of days, when everything goes wrong, when the groceries and meat, the ice and the wood and everything to be ordered, when the family wash is in the tub and all the household affairs upset, what a relief to have at your elbow a servant who will run all the errands and take away the worry and care of Blue Monday. We furnish this service to 2000 households in Medford, and have a servant ready to serve you in the same way. The service we will perform is almost unlimited but the charge is so small you will wonder how it can be done—only 5 cents a day (no other charge.) If you want us to drive away all Blue Mondays in your house let us list you in the Blue Book of Medford which goes to press June 10. You will be proud to have your name along with the others.

GARLAND CHANGES MIND; MEDFORD JAIL A FINE ONE

Professor W. E. Garland, who is alleged to have talked Fresno, Cal., women out of their life savings, gave a sample of his gift of gab, with a local application this morning, incidentally undergoing a change of heart.

Professor Garland, who in the first few hours of his confinement in the city jail, thought he would just naturally die because the air was so poor, issued a statement this morning to Chief of Police Hiltson, in which he said that of all the jails that he had ever beheld the Medford Jail was the best kept, the cleanest, the most sanitary. If the Pates willed that he must spend a period in durance vile, he thought he would select the city baillie, and be happy though imprisoned.

This sudden switch from denunciation to flattery, leads Chief Hiltson to believe the professor has been employing some of his reputed clairvoyant accomplishments on himself, or is trying to hypnotize the police into letting him loose.

A telegram was received this afternoon from Sacramento stating that extradition papers had been granted by Governor Johnson for the return of Garland to Fresno. An officer will arrive on the Shasta Limited tomorrow morning.

The prisoner sent a dozen or so telegrams Monday trying to arrange for a settlement of the difficulty without his return to California, but this failed. Garland threatens to secure a writ of habeas corpus, unless some action is taken soon one way or the other.
