

SCHUMANN-HEINK GRANTED DIVORCE FROM WM. RAPP

CHICAGO, June 9.—Miss Ernestine Schumann-Heink was today granted a divorce from her husband, William Rapp, Jr., whose ardent epistles breathing love and devotion to Mrs. Catherine Dean of New York were the sensation of the divorce suit.

The victory for the famous contralto came when Superior Judge Sullivan instructed the jury which heard the case to return a verdict in favor of the complainant.

The Schumann-Heink divorce hearing was marked principally by the emotional letters introduced in support of the charge that Rapp should no longer be the husband of the diva and the repeated intimations that the defense would prove allegations against the singer which would offset the conduct charged against her husband.

No attempt was made to contradict the authenticity of the letters credited to Rapp and written in impassioned words to Mrs. Catherine Dean of New York, and the evidence of the defense failed to show moral obliquity on the part of the opera singer.

Mrs. Schumann-Heink showed her joy at the verdict, saying she would speedily journey to the Bayreuth Wagnerian festival, in which she is to take a leading part.

In announcing his ruling, Judge Sullivan said:

"There were three issues in this case. The court finds that the complainant was a resident of Illinois more than thirty days and the court has jurisdiction. The second issue was the statutory charge. The leading inferences of the complainant's evidence have not been controverted. The third issue was the recriminatory charge that although the defendant was proven guilty, yet the complainant is likewise guilty and ought not to recover. There has been no evidence to show that the complainant is other than a good wife and has been other than a chaste and virtuous woman. It therefore becomes the duty of the court to instruct the jury to find for the complainant."

A motion for a new trial was made by counsel for Rapp. The argument in chambers which preceded the ruling was largely on the question whether in a divorce case the court had the right to direct a verdict.

30 SUPREME COURT OPINIONS DUE MONDAY

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Only 30 opinions stand between the supreme court and the record of completing all the business taken under consideration during a year. It is believed the court will be able to prepare these opinions during the coming week and be ready to hand them down next Monday.

These 30 cases include the intermountain rate case, the grandfather clause cases, the validity of the oil pipe line legislation and two big western oil land cases.

GOLD HILL WINS FROM TALENT

GOLD HILL, Or., June 8.—In a free-hitting contest, with over 300 fans yelling encouragement to both teams, Gold Hill defeated the Talent tossers in a game replete with sensational plays on Sunday afternoon by a score of 8 to 9.

Until the fourth inning the home team maintained the lead, when Talent tied, and in the succeeding innings maintained a lead until the ninth, when Gold Hill copped two and cinched the game.

This is the second consecutive defeat Talent has met with in encountering the local boys, the one of the Sunday previous having classed the last encounter as classic baseball, but not in interest or excitement.

By the last victory the Gold Hill club ceases to be tail-enders in the league procession, attaining third place, and relegating Talent in the rear. Local fans believe and point to the last two games as evidence that the team has now gained its wind and that the recent strengthening by new players makes it a worthy contender for top place, although four more battles are in prospect.

They will play Medford at that city next Sunday, June 14. The Medford team at present heads the Valley league.

AFTER SUFFERING TWO LONG YEARS

Mrs. Aselin Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"After my little one was born I was sick with pains in my sides which the doctors said were caused by inflammation. I suffered a great deal every month and grew very thin. I was under the doctor's care for two long years without any benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try it we got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking the third bottle of the Compound I was able to do my housework and today I am strong and healthy again. I will answer letters if anyone wishes to know about my case."—Mrs. JOSEPH ASELIN, 628 Monroe St., N. E., Minneapolis, Minn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy we know for woman's ills. If you need such a medicine why don't you try it?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

WOMEN JURORS GIVE QUICK DECISION

District Attorney Kelly went Monday at Rogue River trying a civil case, Steffy vs. Jones, in the justice court before a jury composed of three ladies and three men, which declares is the first time in the history of southern Oregon that women have served on a jury. From his viewpoint the women made good, promptly agreeing upon a verdict for the plaintiff. "All this talk," he says, "about women not making good as jurors is hush. They have a most high regard for their oath. We have heard so much about women being influenced by sympathy or prejudice, but there is nothing to it. The plaintiff was an entire stranger to the ladies on the jury, while the defendant was a neighbor and intimate friend and the defendant's wife hobnobbed with the lady jurors during the recess hour in a manner that would have broken a court bailiff's heart, but when it came to returning a verdict they promptly agreed on one against their friend and neighbor."

MILITARY SCHOOL MASS MEETING WELL ATTENDED

At a mass meeting of Jacksonville citizens Monday night, called to take steps for the founding of a military school in that city, resolutions for a permanent organization for the school and the appointment of a board of governors were adopted. A meeting to effect a permanent organization will be held in this city the first Monday in July.

The board of governors is composed of the following: Judge F. L. Tou Velle and Mayor Emil Britt of Jacksonville, Judge Crowell and John S. Orth of Medford and E. V. Carter and Dr. Swendenberg of Ashland.

At the opening of the meeting a telegram was read from Governor Oswald West, expressing regret at his inability to attend and promising hearty support to the plan. A telegram of regret was received from S. L. Ames of Talent also.

Speeches were made by Colonel Sargent, Judge Kelly and others in support of the school, laying stress upon the value of a military training in all walks of life. All deplored war as a curse of civilization, while extolling its rigid training and preparedness for the battles of peace.

About 300 enthusiastic supporters of the plan attended. The Seventh company, all officers, in full regalia, attended.
