

ASHLAND VOTES 1206 TO 308 FOR MINERAL SPRINGS

ASHLAND, June 10.—Twelve hundred and six to 308 was the vote for the $175,000 bond issue to bring the mineral springs into the city park, part of the program to make Ashland one of the greatest watering resorts and tourist cities in America. It followed a vigorous campaign carried on by the Commercial club and newspapers aided by President Spruille and the higher officials of the Southern Pacific.

Ashland went wild with joy as soon as the result was known and the enthusiasm of the people was an exhibition of exuberance never before witnessed here. Automobile parades, firecrackers, bombs and the fiercest noisemaking devices ever invented were turned loose and did their worst. The young Chinese Republic went into the parade with their Chinese band, and there were many novelties. The most bloodthirsty and fiendish instrument of pandemonium was an auto truck labeled "Normal School Next," which produced noise enough to wake up the dead.

The work of getting the machinery in motion to force the completion of the plans of the Smith-Emery Chemical engineering company started today when the council took up the matter of arranging a friendly suit to be brought in the circuit court to bring the legal technicalities into the Oregon supreme court for a decision in order to pave the way for an early selling of the bonds. Smith-Emery company declare the project can be completed in four months. The Southern Pacific has the project ready for its entire Panama Pacific world-wide advertising plans and at least one tourist hotel and a sanitarium will start up with the project itself as well as other lesser enterprises.

MOSE BARKDULL COUNTY CHAIRMAN

The democratic county central committee of Jackson county met in Medford Tuesday afternoon and held a harmonious session. County Chairman Porter J. Neff and Secretary H. D. Reed refused to be re-elected and W. H. Canon, state committeeman for the past six years, asked to be relieved on account of the time and expense involved. Mose Barkdull was elected county chairman, Mr. Heisel secretary, W. H. Canon, state central committeeman, and Charles B. Wolf of Ashland congressional committeeman.

Mose Barkdull having been written in as the nominee for representative against his expressed desire, he declined to file acceptance of the nomination, alleging that he was beaten by seven votes in the election last campaign and did not see where he could overcome the natural republican majority, and that he could not afford to make a thorough campaign this year. Under the law, his failure to accept will leave Miss Marion B. Towne the only democratic candidate, and two will be elected. The filing of an independent candidate was suggested as a means of filling the ballot. No solution of the problem being in sight, the matter was left for subsequent action along with the general problem of filling out the ticket.

ANTHONY AND CLEOPATRA AT THE STAR FRIDAY

The sensation of the hour in amusement circles is George Kleine's production of the Cines photo drama spectacle, "Anthony and Cleopatra." Nothing like it has been seen in the world and the prices paid for exclusive rights by the different European impressarios have been astounding. The subjects afforded the Cines company greater scope dramatically and pictorially than their production of "Quo Vadis" and they have taken ample advantage of it. The photo drama is arranged in eight parts and three acts, each one of which is a dramatic revelation. Signor Antony Novelli is the Marc Antony and Signora Giovanna Terribili Gonzales is the Cleopatra. They are ably supported by Signor Ignazio Lupi as Octavius, Signorina Matilde di Marzio as Charmian, Signora Elsa Lenard as Octavia, and a host of brilliant actors in the minor characters, some of whom played important parts in "Quo Vadis." For spectacular magnificence this production has never been approached. The engagement in this city is for one day only—Friday, at the Star Theatre.

NEWS FROM COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

WILLOW SPRINGS TWIGLETS

Will Hoagland visited in this district last week.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Born, June 6, to Mr. and Mrs. C. Hoyerlyde, a boy, and Dr. Holt, the attending physician reports that the mother and child are doing well.

J. H. Later the state civil engineer and J. F. Chinook state water commissioner, returned from Butte Falls last Saturday and report that they had quite a time getting out with their auto after the rain Friday night. The sticky did not roll, but some times the hind wheels, with the chains on, would roll around three times and the front wheels would stand still. Such is life in Oregon.

Frank Nell, the road supervisor of Derby was out doing business in our town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Swihart and Mr. Carpenter of Derby passed through Eagle Point Saturday on their way to the county seat.

A man who gave his name as George Wilkins and represented himself as one of the prominent land owners of Jackson county came into the Sunny Side Saturday evening for supper and a bed, paid his bill and left the next morning before breakfast. He said that he lived in Medford.

George Weber, who came here with his daughter some three months ago, looking for a place of business, started this Monday morning for Doris, Cal. They seemed to be very nice people and we regret to have them leave.

I see that the Childreth Bros. who bought out Mathew & Fisher in the blacksmith business have put up a very neat sign in the place of the old one. The sign was the work of Thomas Riley, Jr.

Monday morning Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Carpenter, who have been living in Medford the past winter, and have charge of the business of the estate of his brother, the late Judge Carpenter, came out and was met at the train by W. H. Crandall to take them out to his home for a few days. Mr. Crandall has charge of Mr. Carpenter's orchard.

Miss Ethel Sidinger who has been in charge of the primary department of our school started for the state of Washington Monday where she expects to visit a short time, and then go to North Dakota. She leaves a host of friends behind her.

Mr. Lake, who has been living on a tract of land he bargained for on the J. Hart Hamilton place, has moved to the coast.

Mr. Oszman, his mother and little brother were out doing business in our town and while here stopped at the Sunny Side for dinner. Mr. Oszman is engaged with the fish hatchery at the mouth of Elk creek.

E. A. Bass, who owns a young orchard joining the Barton place, on Antelope creek was a guest Monday at the Sunny Side. He is getting his place fixed up in fine shape.

Last Sunday after attending church at Eagle Point I hitched "Nelle" to the buggy and took Prof. C. E. Johnson up to Reese creek school house where they have a flourishing Sunday school and Christian Endeavor society. Mrs. Watkins has charge of the Sunday school and is making a grand success of it. The school voted to go as a body to Table Rock to meet with the Agate, Antioch and Table Rock Sunday schools in the children's day exercises which is to be held on June 21. They anticipate having a fine time.

There was an old gentleman by the name of Smith here for supper Saturday night who said that he had charge of the Whiteside orchard and that he would have to thin his peaches. Although some people say that the frost took all the peaches this year but that is all bush.

ADLAI STEVENSON SINKING RAPIDLY

CHICAGO, June 10.—Former Vice-President Adlai E. Stevenson, who is critically ill at a local hospital, was reported unusually low today.

FLOUNCE ROCK FRILLS

Violet Vaughn spent several days the first of the week visiting at Red Blanket ranch.

Mr. Sams of Ashland spent Wednesday night at J. F. Ditsworth's. He had taken some men to the National park in his automobile and was returning home.

Mr. Barchell, James McBeik and Hobart Ditsworth left Thursday to begin work at the park lines and came this way.

Mr. Vincent and Earl Ulrich went back to Bald mountain Wednesday to work on the new trail. There are several others working there, too, and they expect to finish this week. It was a hard job, cutting trail through the dense growth of underbrush, but now they will have a better and easier way to take the cattle to the summer pastures.

In last week's items one news note said that Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn were the only people from here who attended the barn raising at Prospect, but it should have read: Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn and several young people, namely, Violet, Uriah and Roy Vaughn and Frank Hobart and Ora Ditsworth.

Mrs. Erskine and daughter Margery visited Thursday with Mrs. Lawver of the power plant.

Mr. Vaughn and family gave a dance Saturday night in their big new barn. It was a rainy night, but there was a fair-sized crowd in attendance and all enjoyed themselves.

Edmund Richardson is up now, staying a few days with his parents. He will drive a team for Mr. Feaster when the roads dry, bringing cement from the station at Derby to the Mansfield place.

We've had considerable rain and some snow in the last week, and the farmers were much afraid of a frost or freeze, but the danger of that seems past now, though it is still cloudy.

A little boy who, with his parents, is camped at McLeod, was kicked by a horse and got his hip badly cut and his face bruised. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Higginbotham dressed his wounds and he was much better the next morning.

Brother Lindblad of Ashland will preach Tuesday night, June 16, at Laurelhurst schoolhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kincaid took dinner Thursday with Nelson Nye and family.

A New Kind of Pastry

Crisco pie crust is rich, wholesome and delicious, for Crisco is all vegetable and all pure.

Crisco's digestibility is especially important in relation to pie crust, in which so much shortening is used; it is a scientific fact that shortening is unchanged in the baking process. It is still in a raw state, merely having been distributed throughout the dough or crust.

(Clip This Recipe)

Plain Pastry

- 1 1/2 cups flour
- 1 teaspoonful salt
- 5/8 cup Crisco
- 4 tablespoonfuls cold water

Sift the flour and salt and cut the Crisco into the flour with two knives until it is finely divided. Then add the water sparingly, mixing it with a knife through the dry materials. Form into a dough, roll out about 1/4 inch thick, on a floured board. Use a light motion in handling the rolling-pin, and roll from the center outward. The Crisco should be of a consistency such that when scooped out with a spoon it rounds up egg-shaped.

Free Cook Book

This new book by Marion Harris Neil, Cookery Editor, Ladies' Home Journal, gives 250 original recipes, is attractively illustrated, and tells many interesting and valuable facts about cooking and food products. It also tells the interesting story of Crisco's discovery and manufacture. It is free. There is also a quality edition of this book (regular price 25c) containing a total of 615 Neil Recipes and a Calendar of Dinners—365 menus of original and tasty meals. This book is bound in blue and gold cloth and is sent for five 2-cent stamps to those answering this advertisement. In writing for either, address Department 103, The Procter & Gamble Company, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Out of Doors Man

The fellow with the big, tough muscles who can chop trees all day and lift the butt end of a hard log, is a hearty liver in everything he tackles. He likes his tobacco rich, mellow and good for both smoking and chewing. He uses because it's got the right stuff in it.

DIXIE QUEEN

Plug Cut Tobacco

Satisfaction—for a sturdy man—can come from real tobacco only. Insipid mixtures don't appeal to a man with real tobacco hunger.

DIXIE QUEEN is pure old Burley leaf, with the "body" for a real smoke or chew, rich and pleasing. It takes three to five years to age the tobacco in DIXIE QUEEN; the process can't be hurried. That's the reason DIXIE QUEEN is so ripe, mellow and healthful.

Wonderful richness makes DIXIE QUEEN a lasting chew. Burns slow in the pipe because Cut Plug is the right form for smoking.

DIXIE QUEEN will "make good" the first time you smoke or chew it.

Sold everywhere in convenient 5c foil packages—also in 10c pouches and 50c lunch boxes.
