RESOLUTE WINS FIFTH RACE OF THE PRELIMINARY TESTS

ASSOCIATED PRESS BOAT, off Sandy Hook, N. J., June 10.—The New York Yacht club's sloop Resolute today won the fifth race of the series preliminary to the selection of the American's cup defender.

The yacht Defiance, owned by a syndicate representing New York, Philadelphia and Boston, joined the Vanitie and the Resolute for the first time today in the cup defense preliminaries off Sandy Hook.

The course today was an eleven-mile beat to windward and return, stretching southwest toward Long Branch from the Sandy Hook lightship.

The regatta committee announced after the race that Resolute's time of 2 hours, 16 minutes, 40 seconds was the fastest ever made over an American cup course of 15 miles to windward and return.

SALING REFUSES REMISSION OF FINE

A. B. Saling, the real estate dealer arrested Monday for alleged violation of the city ordinance covering the installation of plumbing was found guilty and fined $10 and costs in the municipal court by Judge Gay this morning.

The point at issue concerns chiefly the validity of the city ordinance requiring people having plumbing work to secure a permit, giving the name of the plumber who is to do the work.

KLAMATH FALLS SEEKS LOWER POWER RATES

SALEM, Or., June 10.—Alleging that the rates charged by the California-Oregon Power company for light, power and water are unreasonable and discriminatory, the city of Klamath Falls today filed a complaint against it with the state railway commission.

TODD CAMERON JACKSON PIONEER DEAD AT OAKLAND

Former State Senator Theodric ("Todd") Cameron, a Jackson county pioneer and long prominent in mining, mercantile and political circles of southern Oregon, died June 9 at Oakland, Cal., where he was visiting his son, Don Cameron.

Mr. Cameron took up a donation land claim of 100 acres at Eagle Point in 1853, and followed farming until 1858, when he engaged in the bakery business at Sterlingville.

In 1872 Mr. Cameron opened up the Sterling mine, which proved most productive, and sold it to a Portland company in 1875 for $25,000.

His remains will reach Medford Thursday evening and the funeral will be held at Masonic hall, Jacksonville, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, under auspices of Warren lodge, No. 10.

PROMINENT MEN AT BANKERS' MEET

Medford will have an opportunity to entertain a goodly number of the most prominent men of the state, when the Oregon State Bankers' association holds its annual convention here Monday and Tuesday of next week.

About 150 delegates and guests are expected to attend, and the local committee, consisting of a representative of each of the local banks, and Ben Sheldon, are planning to give them a splendid time.

Pro and Con on the Water Question

To the Editor: I am a resident taxpayer of Medford and live just across the line marking the city limits.

With this home and other (not much) property I own in our beautiful city I paid last year above $200 city taxes. I heard no complaint from my neighbors just across the street, who were fortunate enough to be just outside the limits, about my high taxes, which were for the benefit of the city, and the construction of its water system which we were equally enjoying.

Now, however, when there is an effort made to equalize all somewhat by a water rate, we hear a great hue and cry about confiscation of property.

Why should it seem just to some people that other should stand all, or the greater percentage of the burden of the maintenance of public blessings which they enjoy.

The residents of the suburbs have all the benefits of our city at their doors, and the possibility for more beautiful homes than close in, and not all these people are the poor people we have been hearing about neither are all our poor living in the suburbs.

Many of them are within our city limits and willingly or otherwise paying their share of paving, city taxes, etc., which go toward the making of a city proper without which the beautiful suburbs would be an impossibility.

In a recent issue of your paper one of the complainants acknowledged he would not be within the city with the higher taxes.

Should they not contribute in some way to the expenses that make for these blessings? As to the destruction of our suburban homes and city as well nothing will do more to that end, than "a city divided against itself."

What must we suppose the stranger within our gates thinks of the frequent and unwarranted assailing of those whom we have placed in authority. Will they want to locate when there is so much bickering and strife?

If this is continued it will soon be impossible to get a man who cares aught for his reputation to take a public office amongst us.

I think if we just stop and try and see ourselves as others may see us, and then put our shoulder to the wheel and work as unselfishly and with as little remuneration as others are doing we will accomplish more to the purpose of a "better and bigger Medford."

MRS. C. E. DENNING.

To the Editor: If you can spare the space I would like to make a few suggestions in regard to the water trouble.

It seems that the builders of our system succeeded in bringing water enough to supply a town of twice the size of our little burg to within almost a stone's throw of the city, then because the pipes would not carry it from there to the people of Medford they kicked one side of the reservoir out and gave the surplus to whoever wanted it.

Now, the trouble in the city is that the main from the reservoir will not supply water enough when all are sprinkling. Remedy: run a main direct from the hill to the west side with no taps on the east.

It seems the council has made a mistake. If we take public opinion as final, let them correct it and all will be well, and if they don't, the whole country will move inside the city limits and we will all starve for water while it runs off down the hill in a ditch.

MRS. PANKHURST ELUDES POLICE AGAIN

LONDON, June 10.—The elusive Mrs. Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, again succeeded during the night in eluding the police, who were closely watching the house in Grosvenor Square, from which she had been recently conducting the campaign against the peace of the members of the royal family at Buckingham palace and other places.

The raid on the offices of the Women's Social and Political union yesterday, like the previous one early in May, did not produce the results expected by the police. The documents seized revealed few names of public interest.

A resolution strongly condemning militancy and demanding urgent action by the government to stop the reign of anarchy was adopted today by a large majority at the conference of the Women's Liberal Federation, now in session in London.

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE BETWEEN HAIR PROMISES AND HAIR RESULTS

Promises won't overcome hair trouble. The manufacturers of Newbro's Herpicide promise nothing which is not justified by an intelligent use of this preparation. JOHNNY COULON DOWN AND OUT AS A PUGILIST

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 10.—Lack of condition, lack of stamina and loss of the brilliant speed formerly at his command, was the sporting writers' diagnosis today of the ease of Johnny Coulon, former bantamweight champion, who astonished his friends last night when he failed to slay three rounds with Johnny Williams of Baltimore.

There were hints in today's accounts of the fight that Coulon also lacked courage, and that the floor felt good to him while the referee counted, but the consensus of opinion was that the ex-champion could not come back and that his year's lay-off had finished him pugilistically.
