HEAVY CLOSE IN STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, June 11.—The stock market closed heavy. Reactionary tendencies were displayed today because of the reluctance of traders to buy pending the freight rate decision and the unusual growth of the gold export movement. Efforts to market small amounts of stock caused greater weakness in the final hour. Canadian Pacific fell 1/2 and Reading and Smelting 1 point.

With one exception, St. Paul, which fell a point, early prices of today's market were mostly unchanged. United States Steel gained the smallest fraction, and Reading and American Smelting were down about as much. Other speculative issues at first manifested no pronounced tendency, but soon yielded to pressure. Virginia Debt certificates lost 2 points. Trading was again light and professional. There was no cessation of the gold export movement, another $1,000,000 being taken for Paris.

CANTON ARRESTED ON DEPRAVITY CHARGE

Major W. J. Canton, an attorney of Medford, formerly of northern Washington, who received military honors in the Philippines for valiant service, rising from the ranks to major in a crack regiment, was arrested Wednesday evening by Sheriff Singler upon a warrant sworn to by Prosecutor Kelly, alleging depravity. Major Canton was released upon $1000 bonds furnished by friends.

Isaac Coffman, a Jacksonville youth, is named in the complaint as the victim. Thorough investigation of the appalling charge by the prosecutor's office led to the issuance of the warrant.

After the arrest efforts to suppress the news of the warrant was made by the authorities. Major Canton is the personal attorney of Sheriff Singler and a comrade-in-arms of Prosecutor Kelly, who fought with him in the islands. When the Washington volunteers were discharged the accused man received special mention from the war department for bravery. He held political office in Washington and has lived here for two years.

Major Canton's only comment was that his enemies had formed a conspiracy to encompass his ruin.

STRIKERS' PICKETS AT WESTINGHOUSE PLANT

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 11.—Bridget Keany, secretary of the union of which 10,000 of the Westinghouse company strikers are members, today made the rounds of the pickets which surround the plant. She found most of them suffering from the intense heat and ordered that they be relieved every four hours. Although there are armed guards on duty at the electric plants, so far there has been no trouble.

MEDIATION FAILED

(Continued from page 1.) representatives of the constitutionalist army. The mediators replied to this note on June 2, commenting on the foregoing portion of Mr. Zubaran's note, by asking if they were authorized to interpret the suggestion as an expression on the part of General Carranza as an adhesion to the terms set forth in the telegraphic communication of May 2. These terms were a declaration of an armistice and a readiness to discuss all questions internal and international.

Waiting on Carranza This letter concludes as follows: "If this were so we would take the liberty of suggesting through you to the first chief of the constitutionalist army that he hasten the appointment of his representatives to the conferences in which we are now engaged." To this no answer has been received and the mediators have frequently said they considered it beneath their dignity to wait any longer for General Carranza to define his attitude having given him more than a week.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Upon the recommendation of Secretary McAdoo President Wilson today removed E. R. Stackable, collector of customs at Honolulu, "for the good of the service." Mr. Stackable has held office 14 years, is a republican, and, according to officials, is to be supplanted with an officers more in harmony with the administration. Deputy Collector Raymond Sharp has been designated to act. Mr. Stackable refused to resign.

GHOSTS OF LAWS UNPASSED THORN TO BIG BUSINESS

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 11.—In an address today before the New York Bankers' association in annual convention here, Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City of New York, analyzed the business situation of the day, holding that it had become dependent upon political rather than economic factors.

In part he accepted President Wilson's diagnosis of a "psychological" trouble in business.

In State of Mind "I believe," he said, "that the lack of enthusiasm about the future, the state of pessimism that surrounds many phases of business, the disposition toward extreme conservatism, the lack of new plans for capital expenditure for railway improvement and extension, for new industrial conquest, all have their roots in a state of mind, rather than in the statistics of actual business data; but I am not certain this state of mind is grounded in unfounded fears, that is caused by legislative ghosts, that it is engendered by baseless apprehension concerning legislative tendencies and the trend of public opinion."

"The obstacles in the way of business recovery may perhaps be truly described as psychological, and still be a manifestation of sound business sense in apprehending the true meaning of the political economic situation. He described the standards that used to prevail in the judging of the business future—statistics of production and distribution, condition of the money market, and of credit and crop outlook.

Congress Supplants Finance "Now," he said, "the congressional record is eroding out of its place the importance of the financial chronicle. We watch executive and congressional action rather than the comptroller's abstract to gauge the status of banking affairs. The attitude of mind of the interstate commerce commission has become more important than the statistics of railroad traffic. The factors that we have mostly in mind are how new laws are going to work; what new laws are next to be passed; what is the prospect, not of crops, but of congressional action?"

"If such psychological factors could be eliminated for a moment and the old view taken, we would see looming larger prospect of a greatly agricultural yield, giving promise in some directions of bumper crops now almost assured.

Asks for Broad Views "I do not want to be understood as believing that this state of the public mind, this quality of public opinion, is altogether wrong. The basis that is back of the demand for legislative restrictions and control of business, I believe in large measure to be made up of sound economic facts. The development of industrialism within our lifetime has been of such a revolutionary character as naturally and rightly to create a demand for a body of controlling laws such as were never dreamed of by our fathers.

"I believe if business men will get themselves into a state of mind where they view conditions broadly, with a historical sense rather than only from their individual point of view, they will apprehend better the direction in which the whole current of political thought is flowing, and will feel less impatience with this legislative movement, and vastly less pessimistic concerning its results."

ATTACK MADE ON MINE BY STRIKERS

COLLIERS, W. Va., June 11.—Another attack was made early today on the Locust Grove mine of the West Virginia and Pittsburgh Coal company, where a strike has been in progress since last September. Shots were fired from the hilltops and a dynamite bomb was exploded at the mine opening as the men were going to work.

GREECE AND TURKEY ON POINT OF WAR

LONDON, June 11.—Another war between Greece and Turkey is foreshadowed today by the Times, which says the unrest in the Balkans has become acute. Several states, it says, have recently been employed in clearing their newly acquired territories of "undesirable" elements, and the Bulgarians have been the principal sufferers.

RESOLUTE WINS DEFEATING VANIRIE

ASSOCIATED PRESS BOAT, off Sandy Hook, June 11.—A time allowance enabled the Resolute to win today's cup defense preliminaries, although she crossed the finish line nearly two minutes behind the Vanirie. The thirty-mile race over a triangular course furnished one of the most thrilling contests since the trials began.

The creations of Herreshoffs and Gardner had another duel because the Defiance did not enter today's contest. The owners of the tri-city sloop were not satisfied with the fit of her rigging.

Vanitie found the light winds to her liking on the first two ten-mile reaches, and let until after the yachts had started for home.

The corrected time gave Resolute the victory by one minute and sixteen seconds.

The official time at the finish was: Vanitie, 3:17:37; Resolute, 3:19:36.

M'NARY ASKS BENSON TO JOIN IN RE-COUNT

SALEM, Ore., June 11.—Supreme Court Justice Charles L. McNary announced today that he would ask Judge Henry L. Benson to join him in a friendly contest and determine by a count of the ballots in Multnomah county whether he or Judge Benson had been nominated in the republican primaries for supreme court justice. He stated that should Judge Benson desire it, he would join in the initiation of such a contest and in any other counties in the state and also to a re-check of the tally sheets.

Judge Benson recently found errors in the Multnomah county vote, which it is claimed, gives him a plurality of seven. The official count gave Justice McNary a plurality of thirteen.

Judge McNary has made arrangements for a recount of the Jackson county totals.

PRESIDENT RECEIVES VEILED PROPHETS

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Practically every Masonic jurisdiction in the United States was represented today in a delegation of more than 700 members of the Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets received by President Wilson at the white house. The Masons were returning to their homes from a convention in Richmond, Va.

CLUB WOMEN LIKELY TO ENDORSE EQUAL SUFFRAGE

CHICAGO, June 11.—Belief of suffragist leaders that the "votes for women" cause will be endorsed by the General Federation of Women's Clubs, in convention here today, led the suffrage faction to decide on taking the proposition up in the regular way through the resolutions committee.

While no announcement of this change in attitude was made by the leaders, it was declared to be apparent in absence of opposition to the adoption of the rules and regulations presented by Mrs. Andrew J. Gorman of Salt Lake City, chairman of the committee. These rules provide that resolutions shall not be presented from the floor, but direct to the committee on resolutions.

A dozen or more resolutions on the question of suffrage are in the hands of the committee, and suffrage leaders expressed their confidence in at least one of them being reported favorably.

Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, president of the federation, took a decided stand against unnecessary noise in the convention today by ordering all doors closed during speeches and warning the delegates against loud talking. "Shoo," became the watchword of the corridors, and it was a question of who made the most noise, the "shoos" or those they thought to quiet.

CHINESE LABORERS FOR EXPOSITION BUILDING

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 11.—The Ohio Maru, which is bringing to this city China's commissioners to the Panama Pacific exposition and a force of artisans to build the Chinese pavilion, has in her hold a ton of rice which will constitute the principal food of the workers during their stay here. By a special act of congress, the Chinese laborers will be admitted at this port, but the usual duty will be levied on the rice. The Ohio Maru is due Monday.
