GERIG NAMED TO ADVISE COUNTY

The county court announces that William Gerig, consulting engineer of the Hill railroads, and manager of the Pacific & Eastern, who has served in a consulting expacity for ice of publication. the county on bridge work, has been permanent road work and will represent the county in its dealings with Co. the state highway commission and everlook plans and expenditures for the county. Mr. Gerig will co-operate with State Highway Engineer Bowlby.

"Realizing that none of us are engineers and that road building is a technical subject, best handled by an expert," said County Judge Tou Yelle, "the court has asked Mr. Gerig to pass upon all work under way and advise as to work to be done in the future, either in conjunction with the state highway engineer or otherwise.

"The court's policy has been to entrust the entire project to the state engineer, feeling assured that not only was the co-operation desired M. thus realized, but that the best quality of work for the money would be secured under the state experts.

"Widespread complaint of slowness of operation and unfounded and malicious gossip regarding costliness of operation has caused the members of the county court no little trouble. We have therefore request. A. E. Stock to Harry H. Hewed Mr. Gerig to make a thorough ex- lett, lots 2 and 3, blk. DOG MOURNED AS

A dog that was mourned as lost came back to the family of Dr. Hill Saturday. When the auto in which 1 Dr. Hill and family were riding overturned near the Bybee bridge a month ago, the dog, of the Airdale breed, was pinned beneath the car. The next day when Court Hall went to 1 bring the car back to town he found the dog lying underneath, apparently lifeless. He threw it over a fence into a clump of willows, and the Hill family gave up their pet. A few days after Mr. Hall so uneeremoniously heaved the dog over the fence, W. Morgan of Central FOR SALE-Farm, 193 acres five Point happened along and heard whimpering. He investigated and found the dog badly injured. He took the animal to his home and nursed it back to health.
