

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

There seems to have been a misunderstanding on the part of a number of motorists regarding the state law requiring the lighting of auto lamps, an hour before sun up, and an hour after sundown. Some are so anxious to keep the law, according to Chief Hittson that they light their headlights while the sun is still shining. The sun sets today at 7:48. Therefore to comply with the law it would not be necessary to light up until 8:48. The sun rises in the morning at 4:37. About half past three the lights could be turned out. Holmes insures homes. A. SHUTE ELECTED PRESIDENT

ing all the Oregon representatives in congress to vote for the amendment to the federal reserve banking law, regulating the deposit of savings funds in the private banks of the different states. Banquet at Medford Monday evening the visitors were the guest of the Medford bankers at a banquet at the Medford hotel. W. H. Gore of the Medford National bank acted as toastmaster. Good-fellowship, songs and speeches with a layer of stories made up the evening. C. C. Beelman of Jacksonville, the pioneer banker of southern Oregon, told the banquet crowd of early banking days in southern Oregon, when depositors paid the banker for taking their money, and proved the most entertaining speaker of the evening, with his reminiscences of the old days. C. C. Chapman of Portland spoke from the standpoint of a non-banker. E. V. Carter of Ashland, E. G. Crawford of Portland, A. C. Whiteman and others spoke on general subjects and conditions. A musical program with numbers by Mrs. Halliday-Haight, Miss Florence Hazelrigg, Will Vawter and George Andrews was given. Luncheon at Ashland At noon today the delegates left the Medford hotel in autos for Ashland, where they will be served luncheon in Chautauqua park, and in the evening will be driven back to this city in time to take the north-bound trains for their homes. The Rogue River valley, glorious in its summer garb, and the city of Medford, twenty years ahead of the average Oregon city, visited for the first time by many of the state bankers, and eastern banking representatives, won praises from all. The progressiveness of the city made its strongest appeal to the easterners. Ride Around Valley Monday afternoon the delegates motored over the scenic spots of the valley and returned enthusiastic in their praises. The night, cool after an ideal summer day, was marveled at by those from the middle west and east. The convention, from a social and educational sense, was a success, and the Medford bankers were complimented highly for their efforts. The delegates will return to their homes with a warm spot in their hearts for southern Oregon, Medford and the Rogue River valley.

TOWNE ANNOUNCES WITHDRAWAL FROM HUERTA'S MISSION

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Secretary Bryan was still hopeful today of the ultimate success of mediation, despite the developments at the Niagara conference. When he went to the cabinet meeting the secretary of state said he still believed the situation would so shape itself that the constitutionalists would participate in the mediation proceedings in some form. The general opinion in official circles was that mediation was again confronted with a period of delay and uncertainty, but that another step would be worked out soon. Former United States Senator Charles A. Towne announced today the conclusion of his mission in Washington in connection with the Mexican mediation situation. He issued a statement declaring his firm had been "retained to give emphasis in proper quarters of the sincere determination on the part of the Mexican delegations at Niagara that in the institution of a provisional government the presidency should not be bestowed on a pronounced adherent of Carranza but that a man should be chosen whose neutral attitude would be a guarantee that the restoration of order would be based on the will of a victorious faction. My firm, having performed its duty, has now no further connection with the matter." When shown a despatch stating Huerta had not authorized him as his representative, Mr. Towne said, "I expected that."

BANKERS NOTES PAYABLE ON SIGHT

Alex Martin, Jr., of Eugene, is attending the convention and we understand from a reliable source that after having carried away one side of his garage, knocked down two panels of fence, killed a neighbor's dog and two of his own chickens with his automobile, he has now purchased a horse. K. N. & K. Brundage, is here attending the Oregon Bankers' convention, that is Frank D. Brundage, assistant manager of the big international bankers of New York, and Leipzig. Aside from K. N. & K.'s letters of credit and travelers checks, he carries plenty of the real coin. He enjoys an unusually large acquaintance from the Atlantic to the Pacific and is always aglow with good cheer and a welcome guest at any convention. Knauth, Nachod & Kuhne, was founded in Leipzig, Germany, in 1792 and its New York office was established in 1852.

DENVER FACING FAMINE OF WATER

DENVER, Colo., June 16.—The city council adopted today resolutions threatening through its police power to "take such steps as are necessary for adequate water service," unless by June 22 steps are taken to relieve a threatened water famine, and a controversy over water rentals adjusted. Shortage of the water supply is said to be due to broken conduits of the Denver Union Water company.

EGAN AND BINGHAM WIN IN TENNIS DOUBLES MATCH

The best tennis match of the year and one of the best tennis matches ever seen in southern Oregon was staged at the Golf and Country club Sunday afternoon when Egan and Bingham defeated Conner and Beckwith 10-8, 3-6, 10-8. The winning team will meet Clark and Patterson in the double finale probably Saturday. Tomy and Ruhl being put out handily by the latter pair Sunday 6-2, 6-3.

GUARD ROYALTY LEST SUFFRAGETTES FRIGHTEEN MAJESTY

LONDON, June 16.—Never before have such precautions been taken to guard members of the royal family from the suffragettes as were taken today at the Ascot race course. The opening of the leading society race meeting found more than 1000 London policemen and hundreds of detectives from Scotland Yard assembled on the historic course as reinforcements for the regular Berkshire county police force, which had been mobilized in full strength. The six-mile route from Windsor castle to the course was lined all the way by policemen. The militants, in spite of the queen's threat to cancel the rest of the season's social engagements, showed themselves more determined than ever to obtain publicity for their cause by attacking the king. The arrangements for guarding the entrance to the royal enclosure on the race course were more stringent than ever. Every applicant for a ticket had to be vouched for by some responsible official. The track was closely guarded and there were triple rails to prevent any unauthorized persons from reaching it. For several days and nights men accompanied by watch-dogs have patrolled the course and alarm guns have been placed in position around the stands and lawns. A large contingent of resident Americans were among those invited to the royal enclosure. These included Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador, and Mrs. Page, with the members of the embassy staff; Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Philip J. Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt and Colonel Edward M. House of Texas.

MERCURY AT 97 YEAR'S HOTTEST DAY

This afternoon at 1:30 the mercury registered 97 degrees, the hottest day of the year. At noon not a breath of air stirred, the flag on the weather bureau pole hanging limp. About 1:00 o'clock a light breeze sprang up from the north. Monday the temperature rose to 96 degrees. A continuation of the warm weather is predicted for the present.

APPROPRIATION BILLS PASSED BY SENATE

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The senate passed today the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill, carrying $4,359,000, and the pension appropriation of $169,000,000, and then took up the Indian appropriation bill.

ALBANIAN PRINCE IN ARTILLERY DUEL WITH MUSSELMEN

DURAZZO, Albania, June 16.—Another attack on the Albania capital was made today by Mussulman insurgents when heavy artillery was brought to bear on the defending force commanded by Prince William. The guns of the attacking force were soon located in the vicinity of Hasbal and the artillery men in the garrison quickly found the range.

The opposing forces then engaged in a brisk artillery duel. Detachments of bluejackets from the international fleet lying off the coast took up positions in the neighborhood of the foreign legations and consulates and also erected barricades around the royal palace. Several Austrian torpedo boat destroyers started early in the day for Scutari to embark 1500 Malissori tribesmen loyal to Prince William's government, to reinforce the garrison of the capital. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 16.—Miss Margaret O'Donovan Rossa, daughter of O'Donovan Rossa, famous Irish patriot and revolutionist, was married here yesterday to William H. Cole of this city. Miss Rossa came from New York for the ceremony.

LIEUTENANT M'CUNE DISMISSED FROM ARMY

WASHINGTON, June 16.—First Lieutenant Frank C. McCune of the First Infantry has been dismissed from the army by order of the president, after conviction by court martial of absenting himself from his position frequently at Alcatraz, Cal., without permission or authority. Lieutenant McCune is from Nebraska and served five years as an enlisted man before his appointment as second lieutenant in October.
