POACHERS STOPPED FISHWAY; GAFFED HELPLESS SALMON

An organized effort on the part of a gang of fish poachers to illegally secure fish for the market by screening the fish ladders at Gold Ray and then robbing them of their finny contents was exposed Wednesday evening when Game Wardens Sam Sandry of Rogue River and Fred Merrill of Grants Pass caught W. D. Kenyon and W. C. Long, one of the night force at the California-Oregon Power company's plant, in the act of gaffing fish in the ladder.

Over seventy pounds of fish so secured were confiscated. The wardens found the exit at the top of the ladder closed to fish by a screen which, while passing the water and invisible to the observer, effectually barred the exit of the fish, who held in great numbers in the fishway, were easy prey for the gaffs of the poachers.

The poachers' arrests were made after a thirty-six hour vigil in the brush of the hills above by the wardens. After the arrest last evening, other fishermen were met coming toward the ladder, and it is evident that the half dozen or more fishermen living about have been partners in the poaching operations, made possible by the screen.

"I believe the illegal operations have been in progress for some days," said Warden Sandry, "and probably half a ton of fish have been taken out and the upward progress of the fish barred. We watched Kenyon and Long for half an hour. The fish ladder was full of fish, salmon and steelhead. Many of those snugged got away, wounded. The look on the other fish ladder has been stolen, and it is evident that when it was full of fish at night the poachers would shut off the water and rob this ladder also. I have wired for authority to employ a water bailiff to patrol the upper river, as we are having much trouble already with the commercial fishermen."

It is evident that the poachers worked with the power company employees and received protection from them, as it is impossible to rob either fish ladder without being seen by the power house employees. Prosecutor Kelly states that he will request the power company to co-operate in enforcing the law, and that trespass signs will hereafter bar the way to the ladder.

Kenyon and Long pleaded guilty and were fined $50 each by Justice Taylor and given until June 30 to raise the money. This is Kenyon's second offense, having been paroled pending good behavior by the juvenile court. In addition to paying fines, both men lose their right to fish for the balance of the year, and Kenyon forfeits his peddler's license.

CHILD TRAMPLED BY HEAVY HORSE UNHURT

Johnnie Skinner, the 3-year-old son of J. J. Skinner, living on Griffin creek, had a miraculous escape from death Tuesday, when an enraged farm horse his father was shoeing trampled over him. A peculiar part of the accident was that while Johnnie was bruised and battered beneath the feet of the 1800-pound horse, not a bone was broken in his body, according to an X-Ray examination made by Dr. Porter afterward.

Johnnie was watching his father shoe the horse when it whirled around suddenly, knocking the boy to the ground and stamping him beneath his feet. He was picked up by his father for dead, and medical aid called. He is out of danger, although suffering from soreness.

BURNING GRASS UPON VACANT LOTS

Weed covered lots of non-resident owners are being "fired" today by city employees, and the cost, $2.50 a lot assessed against the property. Lots upon which growths have stood for a couple of years are being cleared first and all rubbish and other inflammable material burned, as a precautionary measure. It will take all this week to remove all the grass fire dangers within the city limits. Resident owners are responding with a fine spirit to the call to clean up all weeds, etc.

SEVEN MEDFORD WOMEN AID IN SAVING CHILD

Seven Medford women, well known in social and club circles gave 150 square inches of skin from their bodies to aid in the skin grafting operation at Sacred Heart hospital this morning to save the life of little Sarah Green, age three years, horribly burned while playing with fire at the 401 orchard three weeks ago.

The names of those who made a sacrifice for the little tot are kept secret, and the success of the operation will not be known until next Wednesday when the bandages will be removed.

Dr. E. H. Porter performed the operation which is rare and difficult. Graftures were made upon the face of Sarah, and it is hoped that surgical skill will enable her to retain her natural facial beauty when she grows up. Another operation will likely be necessary upon the face to secure a complete growth of the skin. Graftures were also made upon the arm and side.

The seven who gave of their own for the sake of the little child are characterized by Dr. Porter as the most heroic women he has met in his medical career. The skin was stripped without the use of any anesthetic, other than cocaine applied locally, and was done with a fortitude unknown to man, according to Dr. Porter.

One of the requirements exacted by the women volunteers was that their names would be kept secret by Dr. Porter, hospital attendants and relatives of Sarah.

EX-SENATOR HISCOCK OF NEW YORK DEAD

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 18.—Former United States Senator Frank Hiscock died suddenly here today.

He had been in ill health for some time.

Mr. Hiscock was born at Pompey, N. Y., in 1834. He was one of Horace Greeley's most ardent supporters for the presidency in 1872, and in that year was elected to congress from the Onondaga district. He was elected to the United States senate in 1877 and served one term of six years. He was considered as a strong possibility for the republican nomination for the presidency in 1888.

Senator Hiscock is survived by a son, F. K. Hiscock, of North Yakima, Wash. Judge F. H. Hiscock of the New York State court of appeals is his nephew.

HUERTA DELEGATES CHARGE BAD FAITH IN PEACE EFFORTS

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 18.—The Huerta delegation to the mediation conference issued a statement last night charging that the insistence by the United States on a constitutionalist for the provisional presidency as opposed to a "neutral" was "tantamount to abetting and even exacting fraud and violence at the elections."

The publication of this statement was unexpected by the American delegates. When they learned of it, their attitude was that the Huerta delegates were acting entirely within their rights when they criticized the American plan for establishment of a provisional government in a com-
