GALLOWAY PREDICTS ELECTION OF SMITH

(Pendleton East Oregonian) In the race for Governorship this fall Dr. J. C. Smith will carry Portland in the view of Judge William Galloway, newly chosen grand master of the Odd Fellows, who is enroute home from Spokane. Judge Galloway is now occupying the circuit bench at Salem and was written in by the Democrats at the recent primary as a candidate for supreme judge. He is the father of Attorney Galloway, law partner of Judge A. S. Bennett of The Dalles.

"In my view the race for governor will be close this fall," said Judge Galloway. "Dr. Withycomb may have considerable support from sections where he has a wide acquaintance through his institute work, but Dr. Smith will carry the larger centers. I feel there is no doubt he will carry Portland by a good vote."

According to Judge Galloway there is general tendency to give scant attention to party lines in voting and he does not look to see much of a partisan contest this fall, the issues being largely state issues.

A factor that will cause Dr. Withycomb to lose many Republican votes, in the view of the Judge, is remembrance he was candidate for endorsement for governor before the assembly held in Portland four years ago. The assembly was generally considered an attempt on the part of politicians to overthrow the direct primary law and it was resented. The fact he sought the assembly nomination and did not go before the people at the time, will cause Dr. Withycomb to lose cast with many progressive republicans.

After a fortnight of heavy voting the crabbng contest closed last night with Owney Patton in the lead by over 1200. He will name the queen of the carnival tonight. It will be remembered that Mr. Patton was the official umpire for the Rogue River valley for a number of years, and this fact alone accounts for the high vote cast in his favor. Judge Withington was second.

CONTESTING BULLIS' TITLE TO STERLING MINE PROPERTY

The suit of the Sterling Mining company against S. S. Bullis to clear the title to the property and wipe out a sheriff's sale in selling the property to S. S. Bullis, is being heard in the circuit court this week and will probably be completed tomorrow or late this afternoon. Fraud in securing control of the mine is alleged upon the part of the Bullis.

The complaint alleges that S. S. Bullis secured a large amount of stock of the Sterling Mining company as collateral for loans made by him to T. H. Barnsdall, and that Bullis loaned $10,000 to pay the mine's bills and do work necessary to protect and preserve its title. The $10,000 was secured by mortgage. Mr. Bullis agreeing to furnish further funds in its development if the property justified.

The complaint alleges that Bullis allowed the mine to be sold at a sheriff's sale to satisfy a bill of Nunan & Taylor, and through his son, R. S. Bullis, bought the mine, and now claims ownership upon the sheriff's sale. The validity of this deed is being attacked, the mining company claiming that stock took priority over the bills.

Attorneys A. E. Reames, A. F. Flegal and G. E. Durham represent the plaintiff in the suit, and W. I. Vawter and R. S. Bullis the defendant. Since the filing of the suit the Bullis have continued their development work on the property, that is considered the richest in southern Oregon.

SHOSHONE CITIZENS DRIVE NEGROES OUT

BOISE, Idaho, June 19.—Citizens of Shoshone, Idaho, drove all negroes out of that town last night after Jack Edwards, a negro, had shot, while resisting arrest on a charge of drunkenness, James May, the town marshal, and E. V. Bower, treasurer of Lincoln county. Bower's wound may prove fatal, according to surgeons. After climbing from Marshal May, the negro climbed to the top of a moving freight train and shot Bower when the latter demanded the negro's surrender after shooting at him twice. Edwards was caught early today at American Falls, and taken back to Shoshone. Friends of Bower are said to be threatening to lynch the prisoner.

Old Hickory Hand Made Rustic Furniture. This is fast becoming an out-of-door age. A result of this desire to be in the open has created an ever-increasing demand for furniture for the veranda, lawn and garden. OLD HICKORY is the only natural, logical outdoor furniture. It is built to last. It is quaint, artistic. It never offends. It is genuine handcraft. Old Hickory furniture is substantial, dignified; one feature which makes its individuality is its simplicity; simplicity means economy, and with "Old Hickory" the greatest economy is in its permanent quality. "Old Hickory" lasts forever. With the awakening of our people of modern times to the beauties of Nature, the popularity of "Old Hickory" furniture increases year by year. Semi-outdoor living is now the rule. The veranda has become an established fact—a part of every home; the sun parlor is looked upon summer and winter as the spot of supreme restfulness, and for both veranda and sun parlor "Old Hickory" is the ideal—the accepted furniture. Medford has the distinction of using more Old Hickory than any city in Oregon outside of Portland. M.F. & H. Co.
