

MEDFORD GIRL BEST ALL AROUND ATHLETE IN WEST

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON. Eugene, June 19.—Miss Hazel Rader, of Medford, who was this week selected assistant instructor in the department of physical training for women, is, according to Dr. Bertha Stuart, head of that department, the best all around woman athlete she has ever met in the west.

"There is going to be a great field for physical directors for women in this state," says Dr. Stuart. "In Oregon the average girl leaves off regular exercise about the age of 11, and does not take it up again until she enters the university at about 18, and then it is usually too late to regain her youthful energy and grace." Dr. Stuart looks upon this situation as nothing short of dreadful. "Plenty of high schools in Oregon have well equipped gymnasiums," she says, "but they might as well not have any as to follow their custom of having the gymnasium and the apparatus with no one to direct the work. Coming from an eastern university to the Pacific coast, one is immediately struck with the lack of control over their bodies on the part of the young women out here. This is not merely a source of unbalance and ill health to them in after life, but the sickness of women involves an economic waste to a great extent. Beyond all question, the time is coming when the schools will be employing instructors who will look out for the physical side, and it is our duty to prepare to supply this demand.

DEATH CALLS TO MEDFORD BUSINESS MAN

Lee Chapel, proprietor of the Medford creamery died Thursday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock of heart failure. At noon he was in good health but shortly after going to work he was taken ill and returned to his home where he passed away. Mr. Chapel was 57 years of age, coming to this city last January and purchased the creamery business of Gaddis and Dixon. Although in the city but a short time he had a host of friends and was prominent in business circles. He came to Medford from southern Washington where he had been a resident for eight years. Mr. Chapel leaves his wife, Mary E., and three daughters, Claribel C. Chapel, Mrs. C. E. Arnold of Bellinham, Wash., and Mrs. J. M. Alvis of Manila, P. I. He was a member of Talisman lodge No. 21 K. of P., Medford, Ore., who will have charge of the funeral services. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 10 a. m. from Port Undertaking chapel. Burial in I. O. O. F. cemetery.

FANCY TROTTER RUNS TO ITS DEATH

The fancy black trotter owned by C. E. Gates broke her right foreleg Tuesday night in a runaway. Mr. Gates put the animal in Mr. Marshall's care the first of the week, to take her to his ranch in the Central Point district. Marshall had driven to Medford and was returning when the accident occurred. He was thrown from the buggy and kicked in the shoulder. The trotter leaped into a ditch and broke both bones in her right foreleg. Seeing that the animal could not recover from her injury she was shot. The horse was valued at $300.
