NEW CANNERY READY FOR LOGAN BERRIES

R. D. Hoke, manager of the Hoke cannery said this morning that all the machinery had been installed. and that he was ready to can loganberries, the first lot of which is expected to be brought in tomorrow. The canning of loganberries will be in full swing next week. They will come in in lots of from five to 25 boxes, and can be handled by a small

Manager Hoke said this morning that the cannery would be running full blast by August 1, at the latest, when the tomatoes and beans would be ready. Considerable acreage in these two products have been signed He expects to put on a force of from 20 to 25 then to handle the Pears will also be handled.

A number of people have inspected the new cannery since its completion and all visitors are welcome Manager Hoke anticipates a most successful

MINOR ISSUES IN STOCKS ARE HIGHER

NEW YORK, July 1 .- Representative stocks moved with some uncertainty today but a few of the minor issues in the special group were higher. Dealings were restricted, the professional element showing little disposition to make new commitments in view of impending developments. The close was heavy.

Conditions abroad were probably registered in today's early dealings in international issues. The deadlock in the Mexican negotiations exerted an influence. Losses did not exceed fractions and in most cases recoveries ensued. The only gains of note were Atlantic Coast Line, Brooklyn Rapid Transit and Ligget and Meyers preferred which advanced a point. Trading was fairly active with indications of some investment.

While hunting elephants in Uganda Mr. Akeley came upon a herd in a clearing, rounded up in close formation, conscious of the presence of an unseen enemy. "There were about 25 elephants, mostly cows, and just as I was on the point of backing off it to a safer distance, thinking there 11 were no big bulls in the lot, a fine 12 pair of tusks appeared on the near side," he says. "A clump of bushes 1 offered cover for a near approach. and I went in quickly to within 20 16 yards of him, and as his front leg was 17 thrust forward offering a good opportunity for a heart shot, I fired 19 both barrels of the double rifle in 20 quick succession,

A number of 30 cows were clustered about the bull, get him upon his feet; the remainder of the cows were doing their best to get him upon his feet; the remainder of cows were doing patrol duty, rushing about in an increasing circle, searching for the source of the trouble. That meant me, so I retired to a safe distance and walted for the atmosphere to clear. This bull stood 11 feet and four inches high at the shoulders, and the tusks weighed 95 and 110 pounds respectively, while the circumference of the front foot at the sole was 67 1/2 inches, the largest recorded, I
