ALONG ROGUE RIVER

Mr. and Mrs. Will Houston made a trip to the valley Saturday.

Frank De Ford and Mr. and Mrs. Miner passed en route for Crater Lake Monday.

Eltion Rainey was a Medford visitor Monday.

There was a very large crowd at Trail Sunday attending the Sunday School entertainment which was greatly enjoyed by everyone. The picnic dinner was plentiful and delicious. One man who attended said he never saw such sociable people in his life.

Ed Houston sold several loads of hogs to Elbert Glass of Beagle.

Edward Foster and family, Dave Pence and Bill Lewis were Eagle Point visitors Friday.

California autos were seen here this week. Also two from Hamilton, Oregon.

Jack Stowell and family moved in from Klamath county this week.

We received the sad news of the sudden death of Mrs. M. H. Cusick of Santa Rosa, California, which occurred June 10. Mr. and Mrs. Cusick and family have lived near Trail for five years. They moved to Santa Rosa last winter. Mrs. Cusick was a faithful wife, a loving mother and a kind neighbor. She leaves a husband and several children and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

Tom Rainey was a in Central Point Saturday.

Mrs. C. Skymman and Miss Clara were shopping in Medford Tuesday.

Pat Daily of Medford was out on the river fishing Friday evening.

Miss Mary French was the guest of Miss Christina Wyanat Wednesday night.

There is to be a picnic at Trail on the 4th. Come and bring your basket. At night there is to be a grand ball. Mr. Ash has just completed a fine maple floor in the hall.

FLOUNCE ROCK FRILLS

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Irwin and small daughter returned to the Power Plant Tuesday from their vacation. They spent most of the time visiting Mrs. Irwin's sister in Seattle.

Thursday night a team working at the Mansfield ranch became frightened and ran away with their harness on. One horse was found that night at the fork of the old military road and the other wasn't found until next morning when Ed Hollenbeck happened to look down in a creek bed across which the old road used to lead and saw the missing horse lying in the ditch unable to rise but unhurt.

Margery Erskine and Hazel Ditsworth spent Thursday with Mrs. Blanchard and went fishing.

Last week's items from Florence Rock were sent in too late to get in the Weekly Mail Tribune.

There was a barn raising Saturday. Nearly all the neighbors were present and the ladies assisted Mrs. Ditsworth in preparing a most bountiful dinner. The barn went up rapidly and in good shape. There were 26 present.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Richardson and son came up Friday to spend several days in the hills.

Violet Vaughn met a deer in the road by Laurelhurst school house Thursday. There was a mutual surprise and long stares.

The road around Florence Rock is quite rough as it hasn't been dragged for some time.

Mrs. Erskine and Miss Margery spent Friday visiting Miss Willis, and attended the Industrial club meeting at Persist school.

Jas. Schaffer, a workman at Grievs road camp, uncovered a human skeleton last week while grading the road slope. The oldest settlers do not know anything about it, so it is probably the remains of an Indian. It was found on a pumice knoll.

Earl Peyton spent last week at home.

Belva Walker and Francis Aiken went to Medford Tuesday morning.

Miss Grace Colby of Medford and Charles Walker of the power plant, were quietly married last week in Medford. Their many friends here extend best wishes and congratulations.

There will be a July 4th celebration at Cascade Gorge. Every one invited. There will be a program, basket dinner and a stand where every one purchase entitles the buyer to a glass of lemonade.

Sunday morning three men walking and carrying heavy packs, lunched in a certain camp ground on Crater Lake road. When they had finished they put their empty box and papers in the stove and even brushed the crumbs from the table. Later an automobile party lunched in the same place. They left papers all over the place. They showed bad manners and lack of respect for others who will come after them.

Saturday night the employees of the California-Oregon Power company met at the company's plant near Prospect. Those from Gold Ray came up in the motor truck and eight or ten automobiles. A banquet was served in Bachelors Hall. The guests remained until Sunday eve.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Howlett, Miss Hartie Howlett, Miss Mabel Wamsley and Mr. Jud Edsall passed through here Monday morning en route to Ft. Klamath to spend the 4th. They were met at Prospect by Mr. Hoyt, who took them on in his car; Mr. Edsall bringing the team back.

Mr. Parkhurst and a party of 9 others in two automobiles came up Monday to open the hotel at the Lake.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. McLeod is quite sick.
