

Society

All communications should be in by Friday. Address society editor, or phone 82-J.

The prettiest wedding of the year and quite the most elaborate, was that of Miss Ida Lee Kentner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Kentner, and Mr. Lee Root, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Root, on Wednesday evening.

The ceremony was performed at St. Mark's church which was effectively decorated in green and white.

The altar was banked with Shasta daisies, ivy and ferns decorated the chancel and baskets of ferns were suspended from the beams.

Preceding the wedding march Mrs. H. A. Thieroff sang a solo, "I love you truly," (Carrie Jacobs Bond.)

Mrs. Kentner, the bride's mother was at the organ, after which, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march eight young matrons in dainty white gowns, wearing white Castle hats, entered, carrying the streamers for the aisles. They were Mrs. Ralph Bardwell, Mrs. Harry Lindsey, Mrs. Wheldon Biddle, Mrs. Harry Gray, Mrs. Burdette Dodge, Jr., Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. Homer Rothermel, and Mrs. Walter Kentner. Each carried a bouquet of Shasta daisies to which the streamers were fastened.

Following came the vested choir singing the wedding march, the ladies wearing short tulle veils instead of the usual mortar board. Then the bridesmaids, Miss Josephine Root, Miss Susan Deuel, Miss Fern Hutchison, Miss Gladys Curry were fetching, in ruffled organza gowns of apple green and Paris model hats, carrying showy bouquets of Cecil Brunner roses.

Miss Bess Kentner, the maid of honor, made a charming picture, gowned in pink embroidered chiffon with picture hat and carrying a huge shower bouquet of bride roses.

The Parent-Teachers association of Medford entertained at luncheon on Saturday last for Mrs. A. Felts, state president of the association at Hotel Medford. Covers were laid for thirteen.

After luncheon the party adjourned to the public library where, after a song by Mrs. Van Scoyoc, a very interesting talk was given by Mrs. Felts on the Parent-Teachers' work.

In honor of her guest, Miss Emmons, Miss Laura Page, gave a dancing party at her home on Skakyou Heights Monday evening. Those invited were Misses Frances York, Lucille York, Jean Budge, Leonore Vance, Hazel Antle, Annette Wake-

man, Flora Welch, Messrs Herbert Alford, Francis Bennett, Horace Bromley, Don Newbury, Carter Brandon, George Gates, Lloyd Williamson, Jay Gore, Carrol Carpenter.

Miss Ida Lee Kentner gave a breakfast Monday morning for her bridesmaids and maids of honor at her home on Tenth street. Sweet peas and ferns were used in decoration.

Each maid was presented with a dainty initial stilet pin.

Those present were Misses Bess Kentner, Josephine Root, Fern Hutchison, Susan Deuel, Gladys Curry.

Monday evening about 60 of the Baptist young people journeyed out in the country east of Central Point in hay racks, where they had an enjoyable time. Lanterns were hung in the trees and a bon fire was built.

Later ice cream and cakes were served after which the return trip to town was made.

Mr. Giles Jones and Miss Cora M. Horton were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage yesterday at noon, Rev. E. O. Eldridge officiating. Both young people are residents of Medford and after a short honeymoon will return to the city to make their home. Both are well known and have a host of friends.

Miss Kathryn Swem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Swem, 1102 W. Tenth street, who has been attending the Annie Wright seminary of Tacoma, Wash., for the past year, has joined her parents and will make Medford her future home.

Mr. Lee Root and Miss Ida Lee Kentner entertained their bridal party Monday evening at the Natatorium with a "Tango" swim followed by a dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Root left Thursday morning on a wedding trip to Alaska after which they will return to Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheldon Biddle entertained at their country home at dinner Saturday evening for Miss Ida Lee Kentner and Mr. Lee Root. The affair was to celebrate Mr. Root's birthday.

Nasturtiums and sweet peas were used in decoration.

After dinner a dance was given for the bridal party. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bardwell, Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Drury, Messrs Fern Hutchison, Susan Deuel, Jeanette Salade, Josephine Root, Bess enter, Messrs. Ralph McCurdy, Leon Speck, Hob Deuel, Vernon Vawter.

The family of J. S. Frazee of the west foot hills have been enjoying a visit from Dean and Mrs. E. W. Grubill, of the College of Music of the State University of South Dakota, of which institution Mr. Frazee was formerly professor of mathematics, and his daughter, Miss Helen, was teacher of piano and harmony.

While here they saw most parts of the valley, and were greatly impressed with its beauty and fertility. The dean and his wife are both accomplished musicians, and will be a valuable addition to the society of the valley should they decide to locate here, which they are seriously contemplating.

A reception was given Wednesday evening at the Christian church to welcome the new minister Mr. Harry E. Tucker and family, by the ladies of the church. Palms and flowers were used in decoration and refreshments were served. Mrs. Jonas Wold was in charge of the program as follows:

Alpine Maiden's Dream, (Lullaby), violin duet, Mr. Daddysman and Miss Ione Flynn, Mrs. Lou Jones accompanying.

Vocal solo, Miss Florence Hazelrigg.

"Ever Mine," (Cantor) Miss Iva Coffin, Mrs. E. V. Coffin accompanying.

The Parent-Teachers' association of Medford entertained at luncheon on Saturday last for Mrs. A. Felts, state president of the association at Hotel Medford. Covers were laid for thirteen.

After luncheon the party adjourned to the public library where, after a song by Mrs. Van Scoyoc, a very interesting talk was given by Mrs. Felts on the Parent-Teachers' work.

In honor of her guest, Miss Emmons, Miss Laura Page, gave a dancing party at her home on Skakyou Heights Monday evening. Those invited were Misses Frances York, Lucille York, Jean Budge, Leonore Vance, Hazel Antle, Annette Wake-

man, Flora Welch, Messrs Herbert Alford, Francis Bennett, Horace Bromley, Don Newbury, Carter Brandon, George Gates, Lloyd Williamson, Jay Gore, Carrol Carpenter.

Miss Ida Lee Kentner gave a breakfast Monday morning for her bridesmaids and maids of honor at her home on Tenth street. Sweet peas and ferns were used in decoration.

Each maid was presented with a dainty initial stilet pin.

Those present were Misses Bess Kentner, Josephine Root, Fern Hutchison, Susan Deuel, Gladys Curry.

Monday evening about 60 of the Baptist young people journeyed out in the country east of Central Point in hay racks, where they had an enjoyable time. Lanterns were hung in the trees and a bon fire was built.

Later ice cream and cakes were served after which the return trip to town was made.

Mr. Giles Jones and Miss Cora M. Horton were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage yesterday at noon, Rev. E. O. Eldridge officiating. Both young people are residents of Medford and after a short honeymoon will return to the city to make their home. Both are well known and have a host of friends.

Miss Kathryn Swem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Swem, 1102 W. Tenth street, who has been attending the Annie Wright seminary of Tacoma, Wash., for the past year, has joined her parents and will make Medford her future home.

Mr. Lee Root and Miss Ida Lee Kentner entertained their bridal party Monday evening at the Natatorium with a "Tango" swim followed by a dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Root left Thursday morning on a wedding trip to Alaska after which they will return to Medford.

Mrs. E. F. Guthrie entertained at the Country club Friday afternoon at a delightful tea in honor of Mrs. Frank Owen and her guest Miss Jackson of Portland. The club porch was attractively decorated with flowers and the semi-finals of the tennis tournament acted as a pleasant entertainment. The invited guests were: Mrs. W. L. Holloway, Mrs. Mandeville, Mrs. Fred Cowles, Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. Charles Newhall, Mrs. Storey, Mrs. H. Findley, Mrs. Frank Madden, Mrs. Lincoln McCormack, Mrs. P. W. Hamill, Mrs. Fred Hopkins, Mrs. A. Conroy Fiero, Madama Fiero, Miss Carpenter, Mrs. Evan Reames, Mrs. Walter Bowne, Mrs. Corning Kenly, Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter, Mrs. Alfred Carpenter, Mrs. George B. Carpenter, Mrs. George Carpenter, Mrs. A. C. Hingham, Mrs. R. C. Washburn, Mrs. Charles Conner, Mrs. Edmund Burke, Mrs. Stewart Patterson, Mrs. George Daggert, Mrs. W. M. Sooy-Smith, Mrs. S. V. Beckwith, Mrs. Stanton Griffin, Mrs. Frank Preston, Miss Dorothy Conner, Miss Dorothy Daggert, Miss Mabel Burke, and Miss Margaret Hubbard.

Mr. and Mrs. Corning Kenly entertained at dinner Thursday night for Mr. and Mrs. S. Vilas Beckwith, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Guthrie, Miss Bingham and H. W. Gingham.

The Philothea class of M. E. church held its second monthly meeting at the reservoir Wednesday evening. A splendid picnic lunch was served which was followed by a social hour and business session, and it was decided that the meeting would be held again next month.

There were about twenty-five present. All the young ladies in town are invited to join this class which meets in the church every Sunday and is in charge of Mrs. B. F. Van Dyke.

Mrs. Kerby Miller gave a porch dinner Wednesday evening, her guests being: Mrs. Florence Goffe, and daughter, Miss Cordelia, Mrs. J. P. Warren, Mrs. Ball, Miss Julia Hopkin, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hopkin, Mr. F. Hopkin, Dr. Deane, Mr. Herbat of Roswell, New Mexico, and Miss Keller.

Mr. S. T. Howard, Jr., Mrs. Platt, Miss Willie Howard, and Miss Minnie Jackson of Ashland made a trip to Crater Lake leaving Medford Sunday morning and returning Monday evening.

Mrs. Richard L. Wilson who has been visiting at her old home in Chicago for the past two months returned this week to her home at "Rancho El Nido," on Beall Lane.

Mrs. R. Schofield, mother of Mrs. J. E. Stewart, will leave for a visit to Coos Bay, Wednesday before returning to her home in North Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stewart of 708 West Tenth street, had as their dinner guests Wednesday evening, Mr. Wm. Budge and daughter, Jean.

Mrs. Earl Gaddis and her sister, Mrs. H. D. Howard and their children who have been visiting at Wagner Springs returned Thursday.

Mrs. J. K. Howard and Mrs. W. Angle of 609 East Main are going to camp at Crater Lake for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Preston entertained Thursday evening at dinner at the ranch on the Applegate.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon B. Marshall are receiving congratulations upon the birth of daughter born July 21.

Miss Pearl Johnson and Mr. Fred Dodge of Ashland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Klum last week.

Mrs. Maggie Buckley and family and Mr. E. J. Leyton spent Sunday at the McAndrews ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Duff of East Jackson street, are spending the week at Crater Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Edmeads and family have returned from a visit in Ashland.

Mrs. Holloway will be hostess at a picnic at her mine on the Applegate Sunday.

The Country club held its regular bi-weekly card club Wednesday of this week.

Miss Doris Speel of Portland is the guest of Miss Louise Williamson.

Mrs. A. W. Felts, state president of the Mother's Congress, was complimented with a luncheon July 19, at Hotel Medford by the ladies of the Washington school Parent-Teachers' circle.

Among those who enjoyed and profited by the round table talks led by Mrs. Felts were: Mesdames H. J. Holmer, Geo. E. Du Bois, Lewis Knips, G. T. Wilson, F. W. Mears, C. O. Power, S. B. Graham, Porter J. Neff, W. M. Van Scoyoc, Geo. C. Ulrich, Geo. W. Cherry, R. C. Kinley-side. After luncheon the party adjourned to the lecture room of the public library where an appreciative and inspiring address was given by the state president to the many ladies assembled there to greet her.

The Woodmen of the World will entertain the Circle Wednesday night, July 29th. An excellent program will be rendered, followed by a banquet.

This entertainment is for the benefit of all members of both orders, their wives, husbands and sweethearts.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Potter leave the coming week for their new home at Santa Paula, Cal., where Mr. Potter will conduct the hardware business recently acquired by the firm of Potter & Goid, while Mr. Goid will manage Fairdale orchards, and continue to be a citizen of Rogue river valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Roseburg of Seattle have returned to Medford will spend several months at their summer home, Bear Creek orchard.

Judge and Mrs. Storey of Pasadena, who have been the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Newhall, leave Sunday for their home.

Mrs. G. W. Howard and daughter of Berkeley, former residents of Medford were the guests of Mrs. W. I. Vawter this week.

Mrs. George Carpenter is the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Boone Carpenter at Foothills orchard.

Mrs. Reginald Parsons entertained Tuesday with a luncheon at her home at Hillcrest orchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Patterson entertained at dinner Wednesday evening.

Miss Marion Johnson of Portland is the guest of Mrs. Frank Owens.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Coolidge of Berkeley are visiting in Medford.

Mr. Reginald Parsons has returned from a trip to Seattle.

Mr. James Vance is visiting in Eugene.

OMAR, THE TENTMAKER, OPENS SEASON AT THE PAGE THEATRE AUGUST 1

June Salisbury, supporting Guy Bates Post in "Omar, the Tentmaker."

The supreme event of the theatrical season will occur Saturday evening, August 1st when Guy Bates Post will play his engagement at the Page Theatre, in "Omar, the Tentmaker," a spectacular romance by Richard Walton Tully, who is the author of two other almost equally successful love-plays, "The Bird of Paradise" and "The Rose of the Rancho." His latest work comes direct from a triumphant all-season run in New York, where Mr. Post won for himself an eminent prestige as a start that might well be the envy of many another artist. "Omar, the Tentmaker," is based upon the life, times and Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam, the beloved Persian poet of the eleventh century, especial emphasis being laid upon his engaging love life. At the same time the play is compact with brisk, thrilling action, the swift succession of exciting escapades being calculated to quicken the pulse of even the most blasé theatergoer. Many discerning critics have proclaimed "Omar, the Tentmaker" to be the logical successor to "Kismet." This is probably not only because both plays have elaborate oriental backgrounds, but because they are the only massive and important spectacular productions made in America since "Ben Hur" and the late Richard Mansfield's "Cyrano de Bergerac." Pictorially the luxurious adornment of "Omar, the Tentmaker," has probably never been surpassed in beauty upon our stage. From beginning to end there is an unceasing procession of brilliant, colorful settings all suffused with the almost intangible and mysterious spirit of the orient. The action of the play opens in a rose-bowered bird-filled garden at sunset in old Persia; thence it proceeds to the narrow, crowded streets in ancient Naishapur, with their silk-laden bazars and revelling throngs; next to majestic halls in stately palace, and so on till finally we turn in the end to the flower-decked garden whence we started. The action of the piece covers a period of nearly 60 years. Consequently the poet Omar is pictured at several quite widely separated periods of his career, a circumstance which permits Mr. Post to display a wonderful series of artistic and realistic make-ups. Not until Mr. Post speaks does one realize that his Omar towards the close of the play is the same sprightly, high spirited personage with whom we made acquaintance in the opening scenes. During the course of the play many of the best known quatrains contained in the Rubaiyat are introduced into the dialogue with effective naturalness. It is worthy of note that the charming incidental music rendered during the performance was especially written for "Omar, the Tentmaker."

The Philothea class of the Methodist Episcopal church held their second monthly business at the reservoir Wednesday evening. A picnic lunch was served by the young ladies, this being followed by a social hour, and short business session. The whole affair was such a delightful one that it was voted to there again next month. There were twenty-five present. The young ladies of the city are invited to attend this Bible class which meets at the church every Sunday and is taught by Mrs. B. S. Vandyke.

A breakfast will be given the visiting ladies attending the Tri-State Good Roads meet by the Greater Medford club Tuesday morning at the Hotel Medford. All the members are asked to cooperate in making the affair a success and are requested to leave their order for plate with Miss Robinson at the Public Library.

Mr. W. E. Williamson, former assistant postmaster of Portland, and his family are recent arrivals in Medford and have taken a house on Roosevelt and Bennett avenues.

Miss Vera Jermsta has returned to her home in Phoenix after visiting friends in Medford.

Miss Mamie Clark has returned from a visit in Phoenix.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. James of Yreka, Cal., are the guests of friends here.

Miss Sophia Schmidt of San Francisco who has been the guest of friends in Medford has returned to her home.

Miss Arrendale who has spent the last few months in the valley has returned to her home in New York City.

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Emmons are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son, born July 22nd.

Mrs. Charles Wise of Mankato, Minn., is the guest of her mother Mrs. Lee, on North Oakdale.

Mr. V. N. Cole of Redding, Cal., is visiting relatives here.

OUR PROCESS IS THOROUGH

An Electric Sign

Will impress your location on the minds of your prospective customers. About 1000 people each evening will pass your place of business, 30,000 times a month, or 360,000 times a year. Your advertising reaches the people you wish to reach.

ELECTRICALLY LIGHTED SHOW WINDOWS

Display your goods in the evening when people have time to look over your display at their leisure.

You can use 25-watt lamps until 11:00 p. m. in sign or show window for $2.50 per month.

California-Oregon Power Company

216 WEST MAIN STREET

Office on Main Floor.

Salesroom in Basement

