BRUSSELS, Belgiam, July 28. Nestor Wilmart, Belgian banker, railten years imprisonment and $$60 fine on a charge of swindling the public out of $3,400,000 by over-issuing shares in the Ghent-Terneuzen rallway in 1892.

Five accomplices also were sentenced, Rasquin, the traffic manager. to seven years and $800 fine: Waechter, to four years and three others to three years each.

The railway is the only privately owned line in Belgium and the operations of Wilmart and his associates placed a number of small banks in difficulties. He disappeared in 1912 and after a world-wide search was arrested at Rheims, France,
