Little attention was paid to the warning. In consequence rats have multiplied as if by magic. A few years ago no one had ever seen a rat in the Rogue River valley. Now there are thousands of them.

Scarcely a place in Medford is now free from rats. They have overrun the country and can be seen at many distant farms. They are filthy and obnoxious, carriers of disease and spreaders of pestilence. In addition, they cause immense property loss annually.

Steps should be taken at once for an organized campaign of rat exterimnation.
