A very pretty morning wedding occurred at 9:30 Wednesday, August 12, at the residence of County Superintendent J. Percy Wells in Jacksonville, in the marriage of Harry E. Goeller and Maude Rippey, both of Klamath Falls, Rev. W. T. Van Scoy of Ashland performing the ceremony, which included the bestowal of the ring by the groom. The relatives and a few intimate friends were the only guests. County Superintendent Wells and wife, close friends of the young couple, gave invitation for the happy affair to be in their home. The home of Miss Rippey had been in Jackson county up to three years ago. She is an Oregonian by birth, was educated in the public schools and the southern Oregon state normal school, from which she graduated as a trained teacher with the class of 1908. She taught, after graduating from the normal, one year at Gold Hill, two years in the Ashland schools, and three years in the schools of Klamath Falls, where she could have continued indefinitely. She has been a very successful teacher and is an accomplished young woman.

The groom is a native of Kansas and was educated in the Klamath Falls graded and high school. He is a stirring young business man, associated with his father in the Klamath Falls Sash and Door factory. The happy couple were loaded with such presents as will be useful in the new home. They started on Wednesday noon by auto for Crater Lake. After spending a fortnight of an outing they will return to Klamath Falls, where they will go to house keeping at once, and the groom will continue with his father in business. Many good wishes follow them.

Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Preston gave a dance at their ranch home on the Applegate in honor of their guests from San Francisco, Mrs. Drown, Mr. and Mrs. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Haldorn and Madame Preston. The night was a beautiful one and with the rugged scenery water sparkling in the moonlight and the residence and grounds hung with wild flowers and Japanese lanterns, a scene of unusual interest and beauty was presented. Early in the evening bridge was played and later dancing was enjoyed on the porch music being furnished by the Page orchestra. The guests besides the guests of honor included Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln McCormack, Mr. and Mrs. A. Conro Fiero, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Howne, Miss Mabel Burke, Miss Dorothy Conner, Miss Harvey of Chicago Miss West of Toledo, Ohio, Houdinot Conner, Dou Clark, H. B. TWO WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Chicago, Ill.—"I must thank you with all my heart for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I used to go to my doctor for pills and remedies and they did not help me. I had headaches and could not eat, and the doctor claimed I had female trouble and must have an operation. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have taken it and feel fine. A lady said one day, 'Oh, I feel so tired all the time and have headaches.' I said, 'Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,' and she did and feels fine now."—Mrs. M. E. Karschmick, 1428 N. Paulina Street, Chicago, Illinois.

The Other Case.
Dayton, Ohio.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of pains in my side that I had for years and which doctors' medicines failed to relieve. It has certainly saved me from an operation. I will be glad to assist you by a personal letter to any woman in the same condition."—Mrs. J. W. Suzzara, 126 Cass St., Dayton, Ohio.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.
