BUTTE FALLS BUBBLES.

Miss Gene Walker came up from Medford last Saturday to be with her sister, Mrs. Martin, who has been seriously ill.
Mr. and Mrs. Nichols and son, Harold, of near Eagle Point, are spending a few days here.
Nineteen of our mothers met with Mrs. Gannous Wednesday for the purpose of reorganizing the Mothers' club. An interesting and instructive program was rendered and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.
Mr. and Mrs. Murphy and son, with Miss Alice Smith as guest, left last week in their car for the Big Bend country. They had gotten seven or eight miles from home when their car broke down and they were stranded for several days in the woods, but they returned a few days ago, looking none the worse for their adventure.
Rev. Ropp, with some help, is painting the schoolhouse.
Several fires have been discovered in the forests above here, but so far they are pretty well under control. It keeps the townsmen here in open pretty busy taking men up there.
L. A. and Ralph Wright, with their guest, Mr. Robinson, returned Wednesday from a hike to Crater Lake, via Blue Canyon, Lodge Pole and Prospect.
Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, Tuesday night, a baby. It only lived half an hour and was buried the next day at Butte Falls cemetery. The mother has been in a very critical condition for the past week, but is now slowly improving.
O. B. Morris made a business trip to Medford Saturday.

CENTRAL POINT POINTERS.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pankey and Mrs. Kenneth Beebe are enjoying a several days outing in the Prospect country.
Martel Mickey left the latter part of last week for Berkeley, Cal., where he will enter the university. Mr. Mickey will be a junior in the civil engineering department there this year.
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hanley of Medford visited friends and relatives in this city Saturday.
Mrs. William Barnum of Jacksonville arrived in this city Saturday and was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Stearns for a few days.
Miss Howard of California is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Jesse Hamrick and family now.
Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Brophy of Talent were here Sunday spending the day with Mrs. Brophy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Holmes.
Mrs. Henry Faber and daughter visited in the Jackson county metropolis the last of the week.
Little Miss Dorothy Austin who has been critically ill at the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford for the past two weeks was brought to her home here Sunday.
Miss Edna Barr of Medford was an out of town guest in Central Point during the past week.
Miss Esther Pankey the popular and genial saleslady in the firm of Faber & McDonald's, is one of the vacationists in the Butte Falls vicinity this week.
Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Scott and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Grim and family, accompanied by the Misses Doris Cowley and Rose Neal, returned to their homes in Central Point Sunday after a ten days sojourn in the Applegate country. The gentlemen of this party were successful in hunting, killing two deer and a bear and proud and smiling they drove into the city. The ladies think there is no place like home and were very glad indeed to get back to that most beloved of places.
Master J. B. Holmes went to Talent Sunday and stayed until Monday afternoon.

Miss Hattie Vanleet who has been among her many friends here for the past several weeks departed for her home at Pleasant Hill Friday.
Mrs. J. B. Holmes accompanied by her daughter to her home at Talent the first of the week and will remain there for a several days visit.
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Price and family, Ray Ager, wife and children, Mr. and Mrs. Lyons and children and B. F. Peart attended the blacksmith's picnic in Ashland Saturday.
Miss Helen Parker and Miss Rose Jones of Seven Oaks were shopping here Saturday.
Walter Hawk who has been employed at Eagle Point for several months past is among his friends here again.
Mrs. M. R. England and little daughter are home again after a pleasant stay of several days at the home of H. W. Aldrich and family in Cottage Grove.
Mrs. Fred Downing who has spent several weeks with relatives and acquaintances out of town is again at home.

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

(From the News.)
Frank Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Turner of this city, was quietly wedded to Miss Cora Haston of Medford at the latter city last Sunday. Both young people have many friends here who write in wishing them much happiness.
Mrs. Mae Avery and son Donald returned on Friday last from Coquille, where they visited with Roy Avery during the previous month. During the absence they were also the guests of friends at Roseburg and Marshfield.
John Eddington, "Deacon" Walker and S. T. Hodges, in the latter's car, motored to Prospect Saturday evening and spent Sunday as guests at the camp where Mrs. Eddington, Mrs. George McDonough and Misses Hattie and Millie Hodges, are vacationing.
Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Miss Anna May Tuttle of Oakland to Herbert E. Darling, late of this city, at Oakland, on Tuesday, August 4. The bride was formerly a member of the local school faculty and has many warm friends here. Mr. Darling, whom everyone in Gold Hill knows and esteems, will not return to this city for the present, but will make a home for his bride in the California city.
A fine baby boy will henceforth boss the household of section boss Fred Witt, having arrived to assume that responsibility early last Friday morning.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Avery are camping on Sardine creek during Frank's two weeks' vacation. Bea Raymond is carrying the Fools Creek mail until Frank's return.
Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Haff departed early Wednesday morning for Willow Flat, where they will pitch their tent amid the vacation colony which has sprung up there since the opening of the hunting season. More than fifty people are now said to be camped at that location on upper Evans creek. For years a sailor before the mast, twice a participant in mid-Atlantic ocean disasters, and an exceptionally hardy swimmer, Louis Lyon met a tragic death by drowning in scant six feet of quiet Rogue river water near this city on Saturday afternoon last while swimming. For six months past Lyon had been a miner, employed at the Brades, and the recent shutdown left him without employment. In company with J. F. Rogers and Ray Eaton of this city, it was decided to prospect the bar above Galls creek during the absence of other work. Lyon was a Dane, and had been in this country but four years. His father, mother and a brother live in Copenhagen.

WHY?

STOCK RANCH

It is my business to know the best buy in Jackson county and have it optioned at the lowest cash price.
That best buy today is a 190 acre stock ranch, 100 acres loam soil, irrigated, now in grain and alfalfa. No better alfalfa land in Jackson county, ditch built covering 140 acres, perfect water right, alone worth $10,000.00.
This land lies between the Applegate river and the foot hills, all bottom land, best of range, most delightful climate, no snow or fog. Modern, new bungalow, barns, fences, corrals and orchard all ready.
This place should bring $25,000.00 will sell for $18,000.00, half cash, $2000 worth of machinery and stock with place. Ideal home and stock ranch. Best I have ever offered. First Nat'l Bank Bldg., Phone 120-J
