ALONG ROGUE RIVER

Messrs. Cornell and Morris of Portland returned home Thursday after a week's fishing on the river at Henry French's.

John and Davie Walker were valley visitors this week.

Mrs. Daw and daughters were the guests of Mrs. Skyrman Sunday night.

Joe and Jasper Hannah were in Medford Saturday night.

Tom Rainey and Frank Miller were Central Point visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Chris Berguan returned home Friday from California.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Keller are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rainey.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Garrett of Medford and T. C. McCabe spent a Sunday at Crater Lake.

On Elk Creek it is reported that a dozen fires were seen to start one after another in a string in the woods.

Messrs. Martin and Lindlee and families autoed out to Frank Hammonds Sunday.

Mrs. Eugene Bellows had the misfortune to have some one pick all of her canning pears and take them away.

M. Slusser came out from Medford on his motorcycle Sunday.

George Stacey and wife autoed over to the river Saturday and fished.

Steve Smith came out Monday from Medford to spend a few days with Henry French.

Frank Zuccala and Bird Johnston returned from Horace Pelton's Saturday evening. They said the thrilling crew had to fight fire Friday afternoon. Two young men were overcome by the heat. A doctor was called to attend them (Messrs. Centers and Thresham) and were getting along nicely. The fire was a pretty spectacle if it had not been for the danger of it.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald of Elk Creek went to the valley Tuesday.

Mrs. Robertson and Miss Mary were the guests of Mrs. Henry French and Miss May Tuesday.

Mrs. Harry Howard took her mother, Mrs. Slusser, to Eagle Point Wednesday where Mrs. Slusser took the P. and E. to visit her son in Medford.

Miss Myrl Coffeen is visiting relatives in Medford.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett.

Among the items had to omit sending to the Mail Tribune last week was that Dr. P. J. Korinek and W. E. Barnes of the Korinek Veterinary company of Medford were here for supper last Thursday.

Mrs. Chris Birdman has returned from a visit to California where she has been visiting relatives.

Mrs. P. J. Parton and her daughter Miss Perl were the guests of Mrs. Howlett on Friday afternoon, and while Mrs. Parton informed me that her daughter, Miss Clyde, had graduated from the high school, Cal., and had secured a position to teach school in Texas, her old home. She has two brothers in Texas and will visit them while there. On Saturday I had occasion to visit the Parton farm and while there he took me around the place to show me some of his fine hogs and he surely has some of them and among them he has about 150 little pigs that are still with their mothers. He had up in one bunch 90 that he was fattening for the market.

Green Mathews, one of our prosperous farmers and stockraisers was in town last Thursday and while here paid up his subscription to the Weekly Mail Tribune, and also paid up the subscription of his son Vern to the Daily Mail Tribune.

M. M. Root of Table Rock was here last Friday evening for supper. He was the guest of Messrs. W. Hart Hamilton and R. A. Whitman. Mr. Root is a member of the American Canning company of San Francisco, he also owns an orchard in Table Rock. He is very pessimistic with regard to the future of Rogue river valley.

J. M. Carlies, foreman and general superintendent of the Allvata orchard was in town last Monday and said that they expected to commence to pick their pears today, Tuesday, August 18. He says that the pear crop will be rather light owing to the unfavorable season.

Roy Smith, Amos Ayres, Misses Rosa Ayres and May Trusty who started for eastern Oregon to see the sights returned last Saturday via Klamath Falls and Ashland.

Last Sunday morning I received a phone message from Rev. M. C. Davis that he was in Medford stood and would be out on the afternoon train to go to Yankee creek, but when I told him that the Sunday train did not reach here until 8 o'clock p. m. he then decided to walk out so I started with a buggy about the same time that he did and we met about half way and we went on together to Yankee creek where he organized a Sunday school of about 45 members after which he preached and at the close of the services it was decided to hold a basket dinner meeting on next Sunday, August 23, and have services at 10 o'clock a. m., Sunday school 2:30 p. m., and then preaching and also preaching at 8 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all to come, bring their dinner and have a good time.

While we were at Yankee creek at the court, inventory of the above sealed bids for a stock of merchandise, consisting of new goods of the inventory value of $427.84 and second hand goods of the inventory value of $415.24 up to 12 o'clock of noon of August 27th, 1914.

Sale subject to the confirmation of the court. Inventory of the above merchandise can be seen at the office of the undersigned. And the same can be inspected by apply to the undersigned. A certified check of 10 per cent must be deposited with all bids.
