NOT STAKED ALL ON FIRST BATTLE SAYS THUNDERER

LONDON, Aug. 25, 12:35 p. m.—“Yesterday was a day of bad news and we fear more must follow,” the London Times says today in an editorial on the fall of Namur.

“In the first phase of the great battle,” the paper continues, “the Germans appear to have won ground all along the line, save in the area held by the British. We were prepared for the ebb and flow of conflict, but not for the fall of Namur.

“We have to face this situation with unshaken confidence. We have to remember that the battle is not yet over. The Germans have not yet burst their way through France. We have to remember that this is only the first great encounter of a war which plainly is destined to be a long one. For the allies it is a phase; for the Germans it is vital. They are dealing their blows with tremendous vigor, but the issue in Belgium still hangs in the balance, in spite of the unfortunate events at Namur.

“Whatever be the result, Great Britain and her allies will face the outlook with dogged determination and continue the war until the spirit of Prussian militarism is rooted out of Europe.

“Time fights on the side of the allies. With the Germans it is now or nothing, but the French and the English have everything to gain by waging delaying war.

“While the issue remains uncertain, we may still maintain the stoutest hope. Should it go against us, we may remember that the allies have not, like Germany, staked all on their first venture. Our ultimate success is certain and we will never sheath our sword until Germany has been finally beaten to her knees.”

CATRON IN CHARGE OF BIOLOGICAL SURVEY

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 25.—E. S. Catron, formerly chief clerk with the Oregon fish and game commission, has been appointed to the position of United States inspector, thirteenth federal district, comprising Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

The appointment was made by the department of agriculture, bureau of biological survey, and his duties will be the general supervision of the migratory bird wardens appointed for the district; co-operation with local authorities in protection and propagation of game, and diffusion of information regarding conservation of wild life. Also will be have administrative supervision over the national wild bird and game reservations in the district, of which there are some fifteen of the most important in the United States. Offices will be maintained in Portland.

MILITIA TO GUARD AUSTRIAN RESERVISTS

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 25.—A company of militia arrived at Bridgeburg, across the Niagara river from here, today to guard twenty-six Austrians and Hungarians who had been taken from eastbound trains during the last few days. The foreigners were bound for New York, where they intended to take passage to their native countries. The number of prisoners increased so rapidly that the village authorities were doubtful of their ability to hold them and asked for the militia. Niagara Falls, Ont., has nineteen prisoners of war, including German, Austrian and Hungarian reservists.

NAMUR VITAL TO GERMANS SAYS LONDON TIMES

LONDON, Aug. 25, 5:15 a. m.—Commenting on the fall of Namur, before the Germans the Times says it is one of those inexplicable events which makes war the gamble that it is. That Namur should have fallen in two days will require a deal of explanation the Times adds.

The Times military expert says it is too early to say that the line of the Meuse south of Metz, must be abandoned, but the outlook is not favorable and the development of the situation in the next few days will be watched with legitimate anxiety. He continues:

“There are reports that the townspeople and even the garrison of Namur were less well disposed than the men of Liege to offer a strenuous resistance and so bring on their town the punishment meted out by Germans to Liege.

“There is undoubtedly some slight feeling among the Belgians that they have not been adequately supported by the allies and that they have borne the whole brunt of the war in the north, but we cannot believe the Belgians did less than their duty, and we expect to hear that they were attacked by overpowering numbers.

“The possession of Namur was vital for Germany and it was a fine stroke for the Germans to have rushed the place under the eyes of the allied armies. We still hope and believe that our counter offensive in the north is only postponed and not abandoned.”

Reviewing the general situation, the expert points out that the allies in Belgium are getting the full shock of the German army. He says that it is essential for Germany that she should deal a paralyzing blow in this quarter in order to gain time to detach troops to resist the Russian attack on the Prussian frontier.

NEVER SURRENDER DESPITE DEFEATS SAYS LONDON PRESS

LONDON, Aug. 25, 3:40 a. m.—Commenting on the loss of the Belgian stronghold, the Chronicle says: “The news today is decidedly bad, adding that if the allies’ losses have been heavy ‘we may yet see before long the Germans march in earnest on Paris. Namur is a fortress of great strength which its defenders could possibly hold several months. We do not imagine that it was taken by a rush. More probably a breach made elsewhere in the line of the allies imposed on them the alternative of leaving a large force to be invested in Namur or withdrawing from it altogether.”

“The blunt fact remains that in a really first-class battle the French troops occupying a secluded position of singular strength were driven out by the Germans after not more than two days’ fighting. This speaks volumes for the power of the German attack.”

“England and Russia must stubbornly resolve that come what may to France they will never surrender to Germany, but will stick to her as they stuck to Napoleon—until they pull her down. As long as we hold the sea we cannot ourselves be vitally struck.”
