

JOHN KRUTZLER SLAIN BY BANDIT AT RENO, NEVADA

The news was received in this city this morning of the death at the hands of an unknown highwayman of John Krutzler, at Reno, Nev., last night.

Reno, Nev., May 26. Paul Krutzler, Medford, Ore. "Your son John murdered last night about three miles south of here. No clue to murderer."

The second message from Grosbeck and O'Brien company, undertakers, reads: "Your son John killed by highwaymen. Without funds. Wire disposition remains."

From those meager details it is the supposition young Krutzler resisted a highwayman and was killed. The father ordered the body shipped to this city for burial.

The slain man was in the city a month ago, and left for Portland going from there to Reno. He was a native of Jackson county, and well known. He was engineer on the big ditch digger for the Jacobsen-Bade company in this valley and went with them to Portland three years ago.

GRANTS PASS SEES ZEPPELIN IN SKY

Not to be denied by the fizzle of the Joe Knowles' back-to-nature stunt, wearing less than Eve, Grants Pass steps forward with the report that an airship—a monster of death strayed from the flock hovering over the blood-soaked battle fields of Europe—flitted silently over the slumbering metropolis of Josephine county Thursday night.

What an airship would be doing near Grants Pass is not known, unless the kaiser determined to do something for civilization, gave imperial orders with the help of the Lord to tear from unstrained back-pioneer collections of moss and other fungus growths. Perhaps the airship was sent as an avenging force upon a community that received a Hearst advertising idea with open arms.

The airship story reached this city in first-class shape, but the smoke hung too low for accurate observation.

AMERICAN TOURISTS OUT OF ANTWERP

ANTWERP, Aug. 26, via Paris, 1:25 a. m.—All the American tourists have left for home by way of Holland and England. The majority of American residents are remaining. Business is absolutely at a standstill, though hopes are entertained that traffic will be reopened if the River Scheldt remains free.

The royal family is showing special interest in the welfare of the people. The young Princess Marie Jose, to give the people confidence, appears on the streets twice daily.

GERMAN TOGOLAND GOBBLED BY BRITAIN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The Japanese ambassador in Vienna placed his government's interests in Austria in the hands of the American ambassador today, and planned to leave tonight for Bern, Switzerland, according to official dispatches.

WEDDING BELLS

Miss Charlotte Zaehner of Kalispell, Mont., arrived Wednesday morning, accompanied by her sister, Pearl, and was married this afternoon at the Presbyterian church by the Rev. W. F. Shields to V. C. Jenkyo of this city, ending a romance of four years' duration. Ford Hill acted as best man and Miss Pearl Zaehner as the bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. Jenkyo will be at home at 435 North Central avenue.

GERMAN PRESS BUREAU RELATES LONG TALE OF WAR

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The official press bureau of the German navy department today issued through Captain Boyed, naval attache to the German embassy, who is now in New York, a statement accusing England with having made before the war "binding arrangements with France as well as Russia, although the British ministers had repeatedly and vehemently denied."

In declaring that "Germany is fighting for civilization against the barbarism of Russia," the statement says:

Poles in Revolt "The Russian Poles greeted our troops wherever they came with open enthusiasm and furnished them voluntarily with the best they could afford. In Poland, in Finland, in the Caucasus, and in the Ukraine revolutions have been started."

All the Austrian peoples, especially the Poles and the Slavic Czechs, declared in enthusiastic demonstrations that they are resolved to take vengeance for the cruel murder of the archduke.

In France and Belgium German citizens were treated in the meanest and almost incredible manner. They were driven out of Paris and Antwerp and in many cases their money and railroad tickets were taken away.

In Belgium excesses against German citizens have taken place which should be expected only from savages. Every store owned by a German has been wrecked. Practically all Germans were robbed of their belongings.

In France, and especially in Belgium, the inhabitants have attacked and killed small detachments of soldiers and physicians. The German consul in Marseilles was beaten by a mob and bottles thrown at some. The German embassy at St. Petersburg has been demolished."

At Snæskerke Bridge Belgian gendarmes in automobiles and on bicycles came up with and engaged them. After an hour's fighting the Uhlans fled, carrying away seven dead. The Belgians had six men killed and two wounded.

The wounded gendarmes have been placed aboard the steamer Princess Elizabeth, which is kept at the dock with steam up, ready to leave at a moment's notice for Dunkirk, France. A number of German prisoners also are on board the Princess Elizabeth.

BIDS OPENED FOR FEDERAL BUILDING

Bids were opened yesterday at Washington, D. C., for the construction of the proposed public building at Medford. The lowest bids submitted were by A. W. Kautcher, Portland, limestone, $75,645; sandstone, $75,445.

JEFFREYS A VISITOR AT FORMER HOME

John A. Jeffrey, democratic nominee for attorney general, spent Wednesday in Medford, meeting local democrats and shaking hands with voters. Mr. Jeffrey was formerly a resident of Medford and in the later '90s' district attorney. He left here in 1898 and since then has practiced law in Portland.

AMERICA IN CHARGE OF JAPS IN AUSTRIA

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The Japanese ambassador in Vienna placed his government's interests in Austria in the hands of the American ambassador today, and planned to leave tonight for Bern, Switzerland, according to official dispatches.

ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP ONE OF LONDON BANKS

LONDON, Aug. 26, 3:31 p. m.—"An attempt to blow up one of the chief London banks," says the Evening Times, "has led to an official warning to all banks to examine thoroughly on delivery all deep boxes deposited with them. A harness-looking deep box was presented at a London bank for deposit in the strong room. A sharp ear caught an ominous ticking and an internal machine was discovered in the box."

THE SOLDIER'S DREAM (By Thomas Campbell)

Our bugles sang truce—for the night—cloud had lower'd, And the sentinel stars set their watch in the sky; And thousands had sunk on the ground overpowered, The weary to sleep, and the wounded to die.

When reposing that night on my pallet of straw, By the wolf-scaring fagot that guarded the slain; At the dead of the night a sweet vision I saw, And thrice ere the morning I dreamt it again.

Methought from the battle-fields a dreadful array, Far, far I had roam'd on a desolate track; 'Twas Autumn,—and sunshine arose on the way To the home of my fathers, that welcomed me back.

I flew to the pleasant fields traversed so oft In life's morning march, when my bosom was young; I heard my own mountain-goats bleating aloft, And knew the sweet strain that the corn-reaper sung.

Then pledged we the wine-cup, and fondly I swore From my home and my weeping friends never to part; My little ones kiss'd me a thousand times o'er, And my wife sobb'd aloud in her fulness of heart.

Stay, stay with us,—rest, thou art weary and worn! And fain was their war-broken soldier to stay;— But sorrow return'd with the dawning of morn, And the voice in my dreaming ear melted away.

UHLANS ROUTED OSTEND SKIRMISH

PARIS, Aug. 26, 2:30 p. m.—A despatch to the Havag Agency from Ostend says that a squadron of Uhlans with quickfiring guns have seized a railroad station near Ostend. They carried away the station safe, blew up a portion of the track and left in the direction of Ostend.

At Snæskerke Bridge Belgian gendarmes in automobiles and on bicycles came up with and engaged them. After an hour's fighting the Uhlans fled, carrying away seven dead. The Belgians had six men killed and two wounded.

The wounded gendarmes have been placed aboard the steamer Princess Elizabeth, which is kept at the dock with steam up, ready to leave at a moment's notice for Dunkirk, France. A number of German prisoners also are on board the Princess Elizabeth.

RESERVISTS STOPPED; TAKEN OFF STEAMER

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The Italian line steamer Ancona which sailed from New York for Naples August 11, with a handful of German reservists aboard, was stopped by the British at Gibraltar and 24 Germans and one Austrian were taken off, according to a cable message received here today by the line. The Ancona then proceeded to her destination.

Among those on board the Ancona was Count Werner von Bernstorff, a lieutenant in the Sixteenth Prussian Lancers.

Count Von Bernstorff is not related to the German ambassador to the United States, although he bears the same name. Another nobleman on the Ancona was Baron Kurt von Lersner.

The cablegram did not say specifically whether either of the passengers had been taken off the ship.

RUSSIAN CAVALRY IN FIERCE CHARGE WINS GUMBINNEN

ST. PETERSBURG, via London, Aug. 26, 3:24 a. m.—The Novoe Vremya publishes an account of what it terms the memorable charge of the Russian horse guards at Gumbinnen during the recent fighting in which the Russians were victorious.

"The Germans held a position in a small village, from which they were pouring a murderous fire on the Russian troops. Cavalry was ordered to silence the guns. The first squadron rode straight at the battery, which, firing point blank, mowed down the Russian ranks fearfully, annihilating the squadron. The second squadron followed fast and would have shared the same fate except that at the critical moment a third squadron rushed onto the enemy from the flank, sabred the gunners and routed the whole German force."

"The German ran like rabbits, discarding swords, helmets and clothing in their mad haste to escape the mad avenging horsemen."

"One squadron of Nizhni husars, who all are famous swordsmen, cut down 70 Germans without receiving a scratch in return."
