NEWPORT, R. L. Aug. 27.-The California lawn tennis contingent still in the competition for the allcomers' single championship, lost a valuable member today through the defeat of R. L. Murray by Karl Behr of New York, in five exceptionally well played sets.

The network of both was unusurally sharp, their court covering was remarkable and the entire match was marked with brilliant shots,

Murray took the first set 6-3, but ost the next two through Behr's fast play. The Californian squared the match in the fourth set and the advantage in the fifth, being within two points of victory, when Behr passed! him twice and won the contest. The last set went fourteen games.

The other three Californians, Mc Looghlin, Fottrell and Griffin, won their matches, the last through a de fault.
