RUSSIANS AGAIN LOSE IN PRUSSIA

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The German embassy today received the following wireless from Berlin: "General Hindenburg's victorious progress in East Prussia continues. The Russians attempted to relieve the pressure on their defeated left wing by launching the twenty-second army corps against General Hindenburg's flank, but according to official reports, were defeated. Several batteries were captured from the main Russian forces. "There was no news until eleven from the western front, where the struggle presumably is continuing. The Saxon army under General Von Hausen seems to have fought brilliantly. "The Reichsbank weekly report is the best since the outbreak of the war. Note circulation has been reduced $98,000,000 in gold and increased $23,500,000, showing the bank is bearing the strain of war very satisfactorily."

QUAIL SEASON OPENS ON OCTOBER FIRST

The quail season opens October 1 and remains open until October 31. It does not open September 15, as erroneously printed in Wednesday's issue. Persons hunting quail before the season opens will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. Eric Anderson, who has been spending the week in Medford will leave tomorrow for his home in the Blue Lodge.

OBITUARY.

SMITH—Allan Smith, aged 77, of the Orchard Home tract, died September 8 at the home of his son at Newport, Or., where he had gone to spend the summer. He had lived near Medford for thirteen years following fruitgrowing, and was a native of Canada and entered the lumber business at Detroit shortly after attaining his majority. He leaves one son, W. J. Smith, of Newport. His body was taken to Michigan for interment by the side of his wife. He was widely known and highly respected and leaves a large circle of friends to mourn his departure.
