

GREAT BATTLE REPORTED RAGING ON AISNE RIVER

PARIS, Sept. 15, 8:50 a. m.—The official communication of Monday which referred to the preceding day's developments, said that the enemy showed a disposition to resist north of the Aisne river. Yesterday's official communication said that the enemy had resisted on the line from Craonne and the forest of L'Algle, north of Compiègne.

The Germans have on this line the advantage of high ground with the right protected by the rivers Oise and Aisne. If the center and left are able to complete a retirement in such shape as to make a stand on the same line they may be able to sustain a general engagement under more favorable conditions than on the Marne. The battle-line this time is nearly straight from the east to the west.

In case the German force should retreat again they would have two lines of retreat by Longwy and by Sedan.

It remains to be seen whether, under the adverse conditions, the Germans have been able to get their artillery into position through the mud. The situation will be desperate in case of defeat, for the heavy rains continue and under the circumstances, the Germans could hardly get their heavy artillery away.

It was rumored last night that the Indian cavalry had arrived and would go into action. This is unconfirmed, however, and doubtless no one will know definitely about them until they have actually participated in an engagement.

NEWS OF RETREAT STUPIFIES BERLIN

LONDON, Sept. 15, 8:45 a. m.—A Bordeaux dispatch to the Central News says: "According to Berlin telegrams, the newspapers there testify to the stupor of the German people on learning of the retreat of the armies which were believed to be under the walls of Paris. The papers endeavor to explain the retreat as strategic, adding that the final result must be awaited."

"The German public is also said to be impressed by the news of the disasters which have overtaken the Austrians in Galicia."

AUSTRIAN ARMIES EFFECT JUNCTION

LONDON, Sept. 16, 8:55 a. m.—A dispatch to the Express from Rome states that the two Austrian armies commanded by Generals Dankl and Auffenberg have joined forces at Itzsoow, 13 miles northeast of Joraszow and 22 miles due north of Przemysl. In the course of this operation, the dispatch says they lost 40 per cent of their numbers.

ST. LOUIS PURCHASES 25,000 COTTON BALES

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 16.—Twenty-five thousand bales of cotton will be taken by St. Louis interests in the "buy a bale cotton" movement being promoted for holding the crop until the European emergency passes over. A great meat packing house agreed to buy a bale for each of its 300 southern branches.

GREEKS JOIN PROTEST OVER TURKEY'S ACTION

LONDON, Sept. 16, 8:37 a. m.—A dispatch from Athens to the Exchange Telegraph company announces that the Greek government has sent a note to Turkey coincidental with that of the great powers, concerning the cancellations of Turkey's capitulations.

NEWS FROM COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

In writing up an account of my visit to the Lake Creek country I omitted to state that there were a number of the children in the four districts in that immediate vicinity who have been raising farm produce to take to their school fair. The fair will be held September 21 in the South Butte (Lake Creek) district, and they expect to have some of the prominent educators of the state to take part in the program. It was voted last season to hold the school district fair at the Lake Creek school house, but on account of the scarcity of water and the lack of other conveniences the good people of the district decided to hold it at the South Butte schoolhouse, as they have a nice, large hall near by the schoolhouse and expect to have, in addition to the exercises of the school fair, a good old-fashioned country dance, where everybody can have a good time. There will be an exhibition some as fine corn, potatoes, canned fruit, preserved fruit, jellies, etc., as can be found in the country, and if possible your correspondent will be there to give the whole thing a good write-up.

Rev. M. C. Davis, the Sunday school man, expects to hold services at Agate on Sunday, September 21, at 11 o'clock a. m., at Yankee creek the same day at 3 p. m. and at Table Rock at 7:30 p. m.

The farmers are still bringing in their hogs for Mr. Burdick Green Mathews brought in another lot last Saturday of forty-seven head, and W. W. Willis has brought in two loads since I last wrote of the farmers bringing in the hogs, beside several others whose names I failed to secure. Walter Wood told me that he had brought 165 head of hogs last Thursday, that since it is known that he is buying hogs the people come to him to sell.

W. Hart Hamilton and his foreman, R. M. Whitman, have been riding over the valley buying up a lot of fine blooded broad-wool, and he is calculating to go into the hog business on a somewhat extensive scale. Mr. Hamilton started this (Monday) morning for his home in San Jose, Cal.

Mr. Cadzow, one of the prominent business men of Butte Falls, was a guest at the Sunnyside Thursday night on his way to Medford.

Your Eagle Point correspondent took a notion to spend the day, Friday, in Medford, and spend a part of the day visiting the county fair, and on the car with him, in addition to his wife and daughter, Hattie, there were W. E. Hamill, Miss Jessie Minster, W. Hart Hamilton, R. M. Whitman, H. Painter, Miss Maud Corlies, Miss Hazel Brown and Miss Gladys Natwick, beside quite a number of strangers.

I omitted to state that a lecturer by the name of Rowell came in on last Wednesday night, the 9th inst., and gave us a very interesting lecture on "Portland After Dark." He had a good audience and kept them interested for over an hour.

Mrs. Lon Moonaw, who has been living for some time in Yakima, Wash., came in on her friends on Thursday eve, and so did her father, James Rieger, arrive from Klamath county, via the Rogue river route, the same evening.

William Gresham of Chinax has been making regular trips hauling lumber from here to build a new house on his place. Speaking about lumber, there seems to be quite a bit of lumber taken away from the lumber yard here this fall.

Professor C. E. Johnson, who is teaching school in the Table Rock school district, came over Saturday on the P. & E., spent the night with us and while here gave me his subscription for the Daily Mail Tribune, so that he could keep in touch with the outside world and keep posted on the war news.

Audley Meyer and his cousin, Eddie Meyers, of Lake Creek, came out from Medford Saturday afternoon and spent the night with us at the Sunnyside. Audley Meyer took the first prize at the county fair on potatoes. He is one of the contestants in the Lake Creek school district in the industrial fair to be held in South Butte, on the 21st inst., and Lee Charley took the first prize on corn. He also is one of the contestants in the district fair.

Roy Ashpole, one of the leading merchants, paid me his subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune this morning, and so did Thomas E. Nichols, the democratic and prohibition candidate for the state senate, also paid me his subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune, and James Owens paid me his subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune last Friday. The people find that they must have the Daily Mail Tribune to get all the news all the time.

Do It Today Resolve to smoke Gov. Johnson cigars, the best, and thereby patronize home industry.

CENTRAL POINT POINTERS

Mrs. or Williams of Jacksonville was among her friends in this city the first of the week.

Miss Bessie Randall visited in Rogue River the latter part of last week.

Fred Farra is a business visitor in Rogue River this week.

Paulus Olson has returned from a business trip to Portland.

Miss Ina Austin of Sardinia Creek spent Sunday with her parents here.

J. F. Kelly of Griffin Creek was shaking hands with his many friends here Tuesday. Mr. Kelly was formerly of the section gang here and this was his first visit here in twelve years.

Mr. and Mrs. Hay and daughter Ariene were the guests of Miss Eleanor Hay, the teacher of the Watkins district school at Watkins Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Price and family, R. H. Cornelius and children, J. W. Freeman, wife and daughter, and Fred Wiley and children enjoyed a day in the Applegate country the first of the week.

Mrs. Maudurn of Medford was a recent visitor at the W. E. Price residence here.

Miss Audrey Holmes of Phoenix was here for the week end visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Brophy of Talent and Master Leland Brophy of Medford were out-of-town visitors here the first of the week.

Miss Agnes Dunlap leaves today for Eugene where she will be a student at the university.

Miss Ruth Boyd of Oakland is the guest of Miss Gladys Holmes at present.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give a chicken supper at the Hotel hall Saturday evening. The price will be the small sum of 25 cents and every one is especially urged to attend and have a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Merritt transacted business in Gold Hill recently. The entertainment given by the Willow Springs residents Monday evening was a decided success. The opera house was packed to its capacity and the wit and humor of the players pleased the audience immensely. The most interesting feature of the program was an Indian war dance, danced by four girls and four boys to perfection.

Postmaster Guy Tex and wife were at Prospect Sunday.

Melvin Ellstad and Zeb Doris will leave this week for the Oregon Agricultural College.

WILLOW SPRINGS TWIGLETS

Conversation is a relaxation and not a fencing school or a game of chess.

H. S. Pickard of Albuquerque, N. M., is visiting his sisters, Mrs. D. M. McNasser and Miss K. Pickard.

The W. A. Thompsons entertained Phoenix friends Sunday.

E. T. Neal and family left in their car for Corvallis Thursday.

Mrs. Frank McKee was transacting business in Medford Saturday.

The best feature of many of the troubles we are prone to worry about is the fact that many of them never come.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kircher of Belleville, Illinois, were visiting Mrs. D. McNasser Saturday and then left on the evening train for Canadian cities.

Miss Amy Rinehart left Tuesday for her home in Oakland after visiting Mrs. P. M. Palmer for six weeks.

Today is the tomorrow we worried about yesterday, and never happened.

The Sunday School classes of the Misses Helen Parker and Cecil Creed indicated in this district Saturday.

Joe Kircher and wife of Albuquerque are visiting H. S. Pickard and family. Mr. Kircher is inspecting his interests in this district.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hoagland and youngest daughter left on the northern route for Chicago and other points of interest. While away they will visit friends and relatives and in about six weeks will return the southern route.

The Grand assisted by the Central Point band gave a miscellaneous program and dance at the C. P. opera house Monday evening which was a decided success both financially as well as socially. The Indian was a novelty, Miss Norerosa as Anna Held was a scream and the other features were enjoyed as well.
