First Lesson In Practical Politics

Now, children, if you will please ask no embarrassing questions. I'll tell you all about why this prohibition agitation was first started by the Anti-Saloon League. First of all I want you to know that we "prohis" who have come from the east to Oregon with this agitation are mostly Jobless Preachers who have failed to make good-or make Money-. the pulpit. There are mo. : and more of us each year who are losing our Jobs in the pulpits, and, you see children, we still want the Money. We're a pretty big army now. So we Jobiess Preachers began getting together and finally banded ourselves into a little secret organization to tap a few millionaires who were looking for more State legislatures in order that they might get a better grip

We decided that Pittsburg had about the most millionaires to the square mile of states where they want con-

any city in the nation, so we unanimously elected the Pittsburg Millionaires to our membership as Brother Philanthropists, of course, we agreed that we would gracually extend and maybe later take in Wall Street, too.

The Pittsburg Milionaires fell into our Scheme with open arms. They had played Polities through every Old Party until they had been badly smoked out and here we brought them a new idea. They saw that a True Temperance sentiment was growing rapidly in the country and by organizing what we called the Anti-Saloon League they could sneak into a state and capture the Legislature by fooling the People with the story that we were working for True Temperance. The Millionaires could control the legislature, you see, and we Jobless Preachers could get onto the Payroll that we were after. You see there are 48

we Jobless Preachers could all be kept at work the year around at agitating, and at really better pay than we had got in the pulpit. We decided to take in the W. C. T. U. and the poor old

trol of the Legislature, so helpless Prohibition Party. and steal their slogans of "Prohibition" and "Temperance." We could go into every city and town in any state, you see, by this arrangement, and get Free Halls and Free Churches and even Live at some good brother's or sister's home while we spread our Agitation. We could save our Board Bills this way, you see, and have more Money for ourselves. The Millionaires already had a regular Political Department, with Smart Lawyers to tell the "workers' just what to do, so we only had to know what states had been selected by them in which we Jobless Preachers Emotional Stuff about "Am 1 My Brother's Keeper," you see children. Of course, we "soft-pedaled" on "Should my brother be my keeper. We put a lot of Hysteria into it, because we wanted Jobs. while a few Big Coal Operators and Steel Mill Millionaires pointed out how much more Money they would be able to make if the People would only vote for their brand of prohibition. They explained that they didn't want the Money, of course, but were seeking Higher Etficiency for Workingmen. 1 never laughed so loud in my ing was over, and I went over to the Millionaires' club that night to Our Banquet. You see that those Pittsburg Millionaires have never tried to vote their own town "dry"

and some of them got pretty

Pittsburg.

Preachers

We started off with a Jobless Preachers all the "big hurrah meeting" in champagne we could drink, We Jobless

Then the Millionaires' Political Department got busy They got out the Map and began figuring out the states where they needed a better Grip on the Legislatures. I hope it isn't necessary for me to tell you, children, that they own a lot of the Legislatures in the United States now. Of course, the Political Department doesn't tell us much about Those Things, though. All we are expected to know is how to Agitate.

Now, children, you may go home. Our next lesson will be a really bigger joke than the one today.

Johnny Pussyfoot, life as I did after that meet- might tell your good father that I will be over to dianer tonight and probably will stay all night. And ask him to arrange to have me preach somewhere next Sunday. The congregation won't know but what I am drunk that night before it as sincere as their o was all over. They gave us preacher.
