The first meeting of the Greater Medford club was held Monday afternoon at the Medford Hotel, when instead of the regular business meeting quite a social affair was given.

The mezzanine floor was used and was prettily decorated with masses of asters, dahlias and roses. The regular business meeting was held when the delegates to the state convention were appointed as follows: Mrs. J. F. Reddy, Mrs. Jap Andrews, Mrs. E. B. Hanley, Miss Putnam, Alternates Mrs. W. I. Vawter, Mrs. Delroy Getchell, Mrs. Schiefel, Mrs. Crews and Mrs. Frank Madden.

After the business session a short program was given, Mrs. Mundy giving an interesting account of her impressions of the Biennial convention of Women's clubs held in Chicago this summer.

Mrs. Crews had a very good paper on the "Purchase of Oregon," and Mr. Allan Hopkins gave an outline of the work he hoped might be done towards a "City Beautiful."

An informal reception was held after the meeting and tea was served, when the Page Orchestra generously gave their services for the entertainment of the club.

The affair was a great success and quite an innovation in the club.

On last Wednesday evening, September 30, the members and friends of the First M. E. church met to give Rev. and Mrs. Eldridge a farewell reception. Rev. Eldridge has just been appointed pastor of one of the prominent churches of Portland. The church was filled to utmost capacity, there being between three and four hundred people present. The church was very beautifully and artistically decorated with pink and white roses and potted ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Fuschman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Phipps, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smylie and Mrs. Ed Steep were the reception committee. After a splendid program consisting of instrumental and vocal solos and readings, Dr. Hill made a very able speech, in which he referred to the high esteem in which Mr. Eldridge is held, not only by his own people, but by the public at large, who all regret his leaving. He further commented on his gifts as a preacher, a thinker and scholar, and as one gifted by intellect and heart to fill any pulpit that may be assigned him. The large and splendid congregations that have attended his preaching, the increased membership and the marked improvement on all lines of church work during the three years of his pastorate show his ability as a great leader. Rev. Mr. Tucker of the Christian church also spoke of the great help Mr. Eldridge has been to him, of his appreciation of his friendship, and of the many kind things he has heard of him, both as a preacher and pastor, that he was voicing the feelings of the best people of Medford when he said he was very sorry to see him leave when he was most needed. Refreshments were served in the basement of the church and a very pleasant evening was spent.

At a farewell reception tendered Dr. and Mrs. MacCullough on Monday evening, September 28, at the First Baptist church, the following program was carried out: Selection by the orchestra. Talk representing the deacons, by S. L. Bennett. Talk representing the Ladies Auxiliary by Mrs. Kent. Selection by the orchestra. Talk representing the Sunday school by Mr. Alloway. Piano solo by Miss Catherine Mears. Talk representing the R. Y. P. U. by Miss Edna Demmer. Vocal solo with orchestra accompaniment by Mr. Canady. Talk representing the choir by Louis Bennett. Selection by a male quartet composed of Messrs. Maddox, Alloway, Carlow and Bennett. Selection by the orchestra. Talk representing the trustees by Mr. Garnett. Vocal solo with orchestra accompaniment by Mr. Canady. Selection by the orchestra.

In addition there were informal remarks made by Mr. Stine, Mr. Young, Mr. Sixty of Central Point, Mrs. Akins, Mrs. Young and others. The pastor's favorite hymn, "Jesus Paid It All," was sung by the congregation with orchestra accompaniment. Also "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds," was sung while those assembled marched up to the front to bid farewell and God speed to Dr. and Mrs. MacCullough and Mr. and Mrs. Young.

The Drama League center is glad to recommend "Kitty Mackay" to the playgoers of Medford, who will have this play presented to them at the Page theater on October 7.

The Drama League center of New York, in a recent bulletin, speaks of this play in the following terms: "Kitty Mackay," by Catherine Chisholm Cushing, at the Comedy theater, is a bright and amusing play, witty in its lines and so charmingly acted that many will enjoy it hugely, though the plot is negligible. It places the characterization of the Scots is true and delightful."

Other critics compare the play to "Peg o' My Heart" in its sweet simplicity and heart appeal. The production enjoyed a continuous run of eight months in New York.

The annual Jackson county pioneers' reunion was held Thursday at Jacksonville and over 300 attended from various parts of the county. C. C. Beckman, pioneer banker of southern Oregon, presided. A sumptuous chicken dinner was served by the June MacCullough Cabin, Native Daughters of Jackson county. The reunion had the largest attendance of any held and after the program the day was spent in renewing old acquaintances and recounting old experiences.

Mrs. Homer Rothermel entertained the Thursday Bridge club this week.

That "there is nothing new under the sun" is proved untrue each week at the regular meeting of St. Mark's Guild, and the ladies will convince the public of the fact at their annual sale in November. Busy fingers are working many new articles, both fancy and useful. The afternoon was enjoyed by a large number of members and guests, a number of whom joined the organization. Delicious refreshments were served by Mesdames Pardin and Mann.

A cordial invitation is extended to all music lovers to attend a meeting Monday, October 5, at 3 p. m. in the basement of the library building, when the season's work of the musical department of the Greater Medford club will be briefly outlined. Ways and means of musically educating our masses will be informally discussed and every one's co-operation is solicited. Irene H. Isaacs, chairman.

WOMAN WEAK AND NERVOUS

finds health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Creston, Iowa.—"I suffered with female troubles from the time I came into womanhood until I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I would have pains if I overworked or lifted anything heavy, and I would be so weak and nervous and in so much misery that I would be prostrated. A friend told me what your medicine had done for her and I tried it. It made me strong and healthy and our home is now happy with a baby boy. I am very glad that I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and do all I can to recommend it."—Mrs. A. B. BOSCAMPT, 504 E. Howard Street, Creston, Iowa.

Tons of Roots and Herbs are used annually in the manufacture of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is known from ocean to ocean as the standard remedy for female ills.

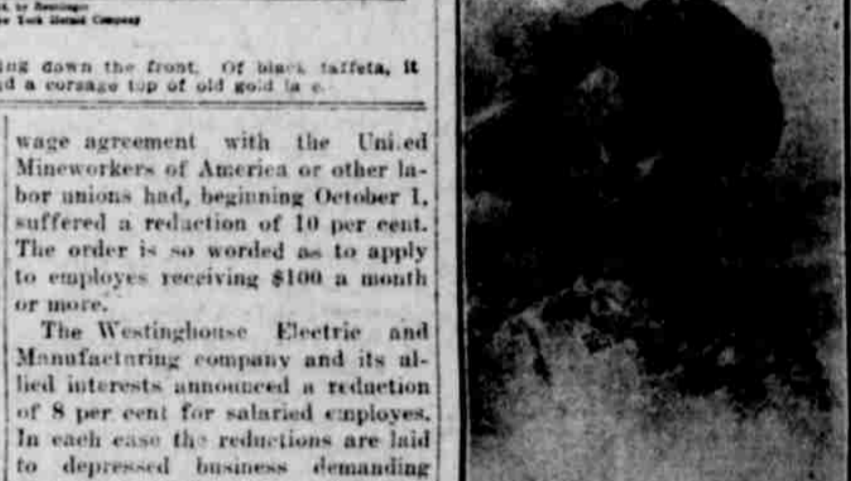

For forty years this famous root and herb medicine has been pre-eminently successful in controlling the diseases of women. Merit alone could have stood this test of time.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

FRENCH EFFORTS AT OUTFLANKING FAIL SAYS BERLIN

BERLIN, Oct. 3, via Amsterdam and London, 11:43 a. m.—The following official statement was given out at army headquarters the evening of October 2: "The right wing of the German army in France has repulsed renewed efforts on the part of the French to outflank it. To the south of Roye the French have been dislodged from their positions. "The situation in the center of the battle front remains unchanged. "German troops advancing the Artois region have won substantial advances in a southerly direction. "East of the River Meuse, French troops from Toul undertook energetic night attacks, but were repulsed. "Before Antwerp, Fort Wavre-St. Catherine and the redoubt Borpevel, with their intermediate works, were assaulted yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Fort Waelhem has been invested. "The western and important epaulement of the Termonde fortifications is in our possession. "In the western arena of the war an advance of Russian forces across the Nieman river against the Germans in the province of Sawalki seems imminent."
