

ODDS FAVORED ATHLETICS 2 TO 1 IN FIRST GAME

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—Baseball had the center of the stage in Philadelphia today when, weather permitting the Philadelphia Athletics present world's champions and winners of this year's American League pennant, will meet the Boston Braves, who finished first in the National League race, in the first game to decide the 1914 championship of the this afternoon. Weather conditions this morning were favorable.

The telephone battle between Connie Mack and George Stallings, the Boston manager, over the use of Shibe Park for practice, and other warlike incidents which intensified the interest of the baseball world yesterday, apparently were forgotten in the enthusiasm that held the followers of the game as the hour for staging the contest approached.

In Fine Condition

Both teams had their final practice yesterday and all the players were said to be in the best of condition. Charley Deal, who will play base for Boston in place of Smith, who has a broken ankle, was put through a long drill in batting and fielding bunts. Melonis, who had been nursing a bruised hand for more than a week, was out with his team-mates and Manager Mack said that he would be in the game today.

There was no lack of confidence on either side as to the ultimate result of the series.

Baseball enthusiasts from various sections of this country and from other lands where the national game is played are in the city eager to see the opening contest, while business of every character is practically at a standstill. Among the visitors are men of great wealth and prominence in many walks of life. Other fans beat their way here on freight cars, or tramped many miles on foot.

The heart-burnings of the thousands who were disappointed in not securing the coveted tickets of admission were forgotten in the excitement preceding details of actual play. Many of the disappointed ones joined the throngs at the grounds, hoping to buy tickets at the last moment at reasonable prices. Some secured standing room admissions in the grandstand, some were in the bleachers, some were on neighboring house-tops, and many thousands contented themselves with watching the play on electric score-boards in other parts of the city.

There was little betting, which was accounted for by the long odds asked for those willing to take the Boston end. What few wagers that were laid were placed with the Athletics favorites at 2 to 1 and 3 to 5. The largest bet heard of so far was one of $500 placed at the larger odds.

There will be more than 150 detectives in plain clothes on duty, while Superintendent of Police Robinson personally took charge of 800 uniformed policemen. Many speculators have been arrested.

The National Commission held a meeting this morning and gave final instructions to the umpires and official scorers.

ALLIES EXTEND LINES

German Howitzers and aircraft is extensive.

The aerial raid on Dusseldorf, presumably by British air men, is confirmed by the German official communication, which admits that the cover of an airship in a Hangar was demolished.

Russians Fall Back From the same source it is admitted that the Russian army invading East Prussia is again back at Lyck, the scene of one of the earlier Muscovite successes.

The report that the youthful Grand Duchess of Luxembourg is a prisoner of the Germans is reiterated today, though official confirmation is lacking. The Grand Duchess is declared to be incarcerated at Nuremberg, Bavaria.

The Montenegrins, according to their own reports, are almost at the gates of Sarajevo, the Bosnian capital.

Their latest capture is a hill named "Crog," a little way northeast of Sarajevo.

The renewal of hints from Washington that the subject of peace on the basis of a "drawn war" again is under discussion is met with an apparently inspired statement in the Westminster Gazette.

No Peace in Sight

This statement reiterates that while Great Britain has no desire to crush or humiliate the German people, there must be no mistake about the fact that she intends to take what ever political measures are necessary to crush German militarism. "To the suggestions," the Westminster Gazette says, "that we shall be content with a drawn war, which leaves the German empire under the same influences and with the same policy and methods to disturb our peace and to threaten our safety until eventually we fall prey to it, we can return but one answer. At whatever cost we mean to prevent that, and whatever means may be necessary to bring about the ultimate goal of the faithful combinations of our allies to take."

Slight threat of showers from the southwest. The infield and outer gardens were dry and hard.

Betting favored the Athletics at 2 to 1 and 9 to 4. Preliminary field play was snappy and scintillating.

TROOPS IN DARK REGARDING BATTLE

PARIS, Oct. 9, 5:50 a. m.—Most of the letters from soldiers at the front speak of the great battle that is "expected for the morrow," and will "decide the struggle along the Aisne and in the north." This shows that they, as well as the military critics, are baffled by the immense operations, of which the big battles here and there constitute mere details.

100 WITNESSES TO BE CALLED IN MURDER TRIAL

Application of the attorneys of Jim George, on trial in the federal court for the murder of his youthful friend Peter Brown, both Klamath Indians, for a continuance until October, 1915, term of court, because of the inability of Bertha George, an important witness for the defense, to attend, owing to a recent visit of the stork, was denied by Judge Wolverton this noon. The work of impanelling a jury for the second Indian murder trial was begun when court convened.

The government introduced a telegram from a Klamath Falls physician saying that Bertha George would arrive in Medford Monday to testify. Her testimony, the affidavit said, would be that the accused bore no ill will toward his alleged victim, and that he was at her home and in her presence most of the time preceding the death of Brown.

One allegation the government will try to prove will be that Jim George was jealous of Brown because of the success of his suit for the hand of an Indian maid, whom both loved. They all lived at the home of Bertha George. One point the defense will bring out is that George and Brown were the best of friends, and that the feeling between them was like father and son, owing to the difference in ages.

George, a spectacled Indian with a ministerial air, appeared in court this morning beside his attorneys and watched every move in the opening proceedings with interest.

All the evidence in this case is circumstantial, and for this reason the work of securing a jury will be difficult. The government has fifty witnesses and the defense forty, and the case will last ten days or two weeks. A large crowd of "murder fans" gathered in the court this morning to hear the evidence.

IF BACK HURTS USE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if kidneys feel like lead or bladder bothers you—Meat forms uric acid.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull aches in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid-stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.
