

GREEK TROOPS SEIZE ALBANIA TO KEEP ORDER

PARIS, Oct. 28, 1:14 p. m.—The Greek premier, M. Venizelos, questioned in the chamber of deputies concerning the situation in Albania, is quoted by the correspondent at Athens of the Havas Agency, who telegraphs under date of October 27, as having replied that the Greek government had ordered the re-occupation by Greek troops of the AETRO, CATRO and PROMET districts in Albania. The aim of the government, he said, was not that of conquest, but was dictated rather by reasons of humanity. These were simple police precautions to assure the security of the frontiers of the kingdom of Greece.

WAR ON GERMAN RIGHT A MASSACRE

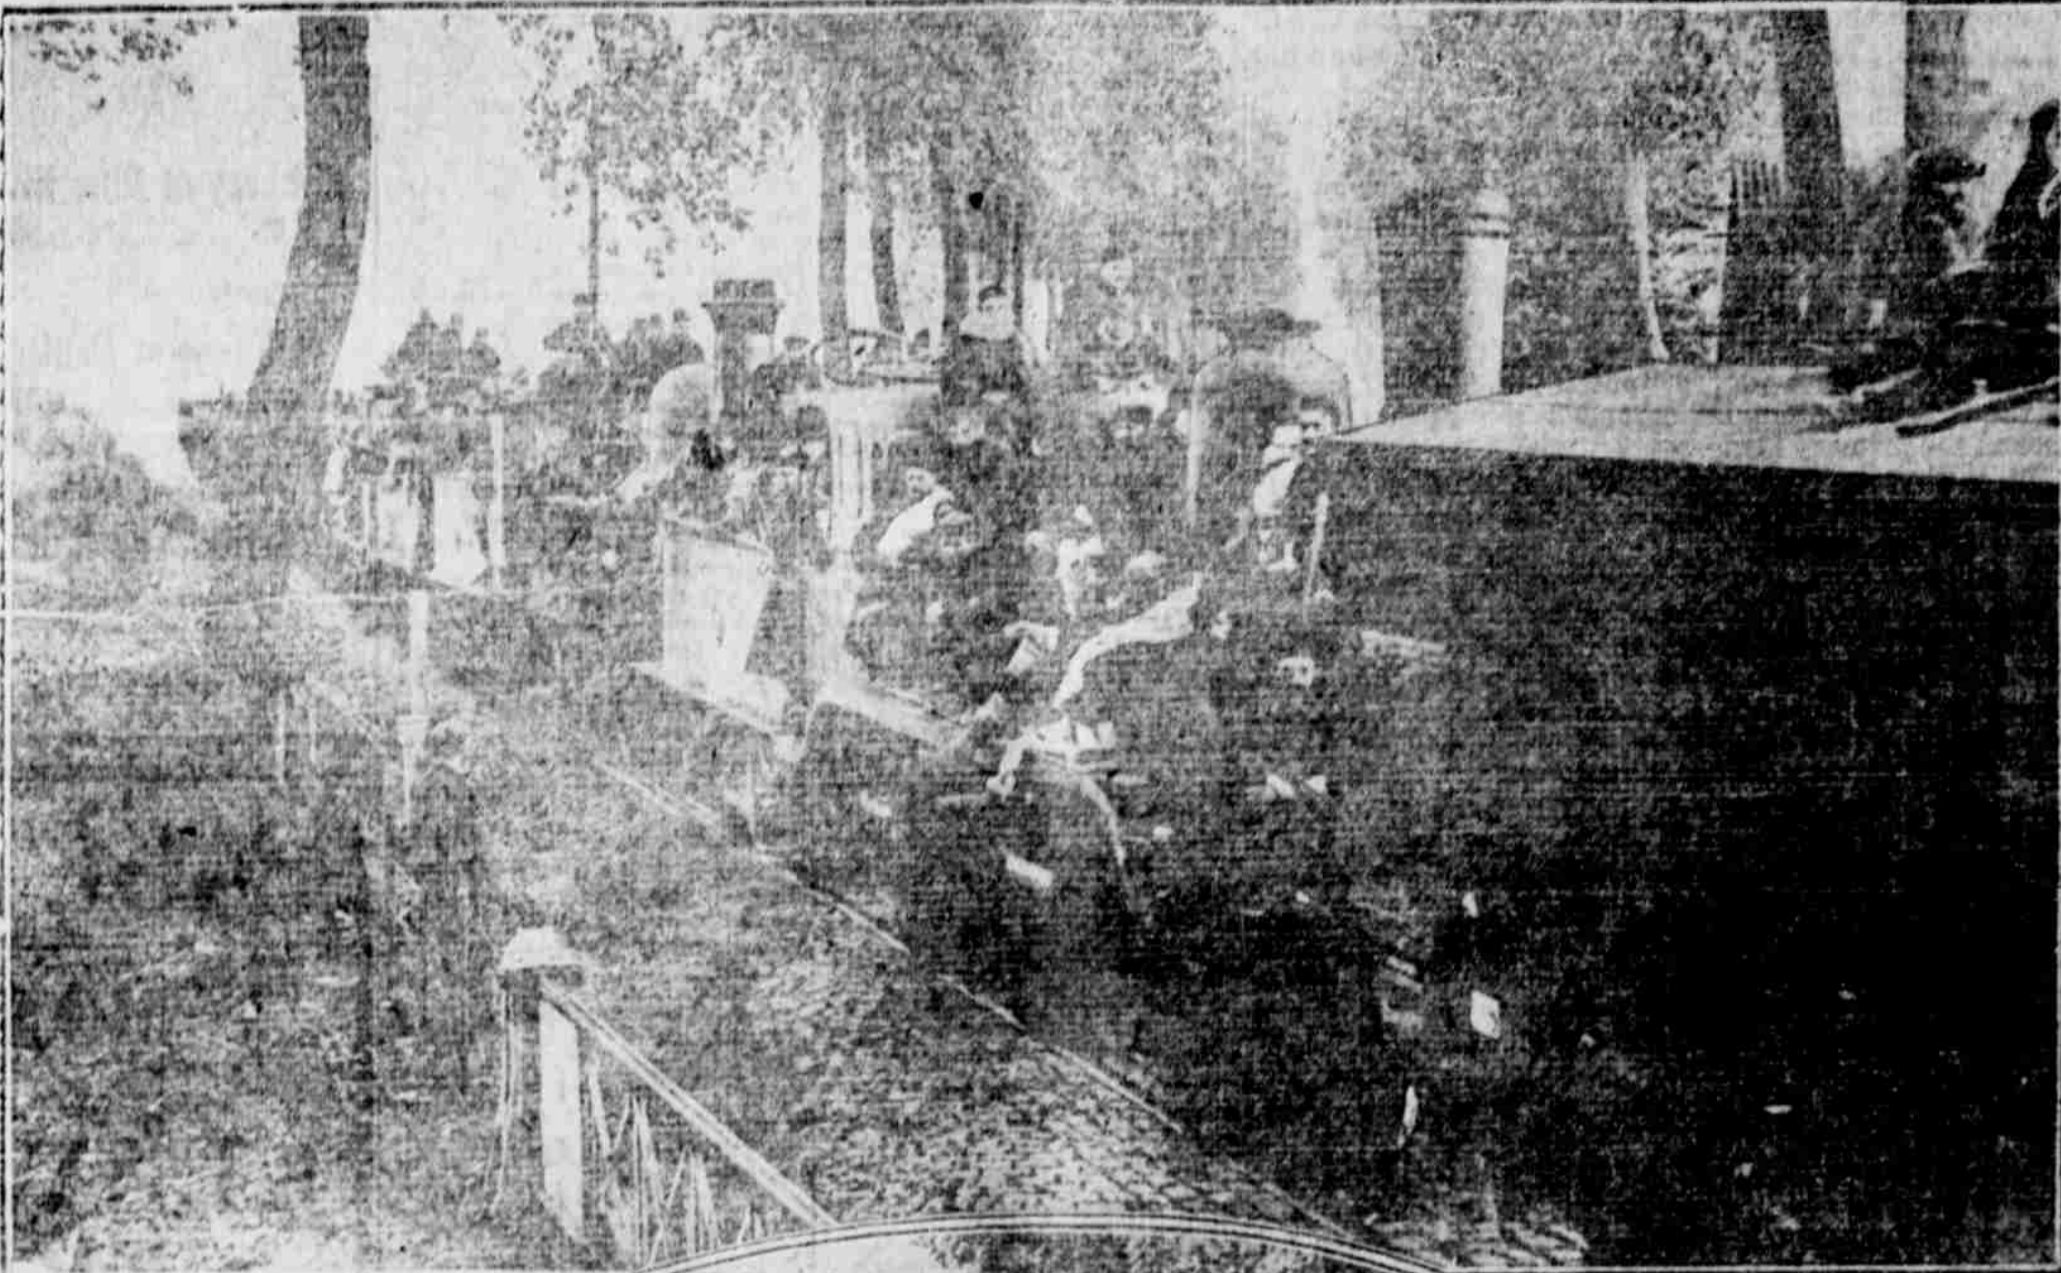

GENEVA, via Paris, Oct. 28, 12:33 p. m.—Telegrams received in Basel, Switzerland, Tuesday night, from Cologne and Coblenz declare that the war on the German right flank from Lille to the North sea has become a massacre. During the last six days it is declared, many thousands of Germans have been killed or wounded. Long trains containing wounded continue to pour into Cologne, Dusseldorf and Coblenz and the Red Cross docks and the hospitals in those places are overwhelmed, it is stated.

BELGIANS RETREATING FROM ANTWERP JUST BEFORE CITY WAS TAKEN BY THE GERMANS.

GERMAN PLAN OF ATTACK CHANGED

LONDON, Oct. 28, 4:22 a. m.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail in northern France under date of Tuesday says: "The Germans, despairing of crossing the line from Nieuport to Dixmude, are trying to make a detour to cross the line from Dixmude to Ypres. Military opinion is that this line will offer the Germans no better scope than that along the Yser canal, rather worse in fact."

BRITISH FLEET RENEWS BOMBARDMENT AT OSTEND

AMSTERDAM, via London, Oct. 28.—Midnight—A dispatch to the Telegram from Stubs says: "The guns which were silent yesterday were again firing today. The British ships have renewed the bombardment of the German trenches at Ostend.

VIENNA, Oct. 27, noon via Amsterdam and London, October 27, midnight.—An official statement issued today says:

"The situation is unchanged in central Galicia. Southwest of Ivanogorod our heroically fighting troops are opposed by superior forces. One of our corps has made ten thousand prisoners."

FORTY-SEVEN CORPSES TAKEN FROM COLLIERY

ROYALTON, Ill., Oct. 28.—Forty-seven bodies had been recovered this morning from the mine of the Franklin Coal & Coke Co., that was wrecked by a gas explosion yesterday. All but two or three of the miners who entered the workings yesterday morning have been definitely accounted for and if these perished, the death list will total fifty or fifty-one.

WINTER THAT BROUGHT RUIN TO NAPOLEON, GERMAN Foe

LONDON, Oct. 28, 2:14 a. m.—The Chronicle's Warsaw correspondent sends a dispatch which was delayed in transmission in which he says: "The Russian winter which brought ruin to Napoleon and must mean the greatest hardships for the German troops, has set in early this year. When our train crossed the Beresina river near Minsk, a few days ago, a blizzard was raging and the fields and forests thereabouts were covered with snow. All the way from Moscow to Warsaw the weather was bitterly cold."

PORTLAND RECALL ELECTION FAILS BY HEAVY VOTE

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 28.—The attempt to recall Mayor H. R. Albee and Commissions Robert G. Dieck and William L. Brewster, yesterday was defeated by a heavy vote. Between 55 and 60 per cent of the registered voters of the city went to the polls. Complete unofficial returns show that the recall generally was defeated 2 to 1, Mayor Albee being retained by a majority of 17,560; Commissioner Dieck by a majority of 8140 and Commissioner Brewster by a majority of 10,431. The water payment amendment, by which the cost of water consumed is assessed against the owner of the property instead of the tenant, carried by 1880 on complete unofficial returns. The call candidates were snowed under even in their home precincts. The recall was initiated on charges that the mayor and the two commissioners were inefficient and extravagant.
