BUNCOM BREVITIES

We rave had several days of nice clear weather and the farmers have been busy with their bean crop which has been slow getting ripe this fall. Earnest Dorn has just returned iome from Alaska where he has been for the past several months. He brought back some very fine specimens with him.

Several upper Applegaters attended the hard times party at Ruch last Friday night.

C. W. Culy and Bert McKee went to the high hills to get some horses Tuesday.

The hunters are getting busy the last week or so. Two parties of hunters of eight each went up Star dulch last week and a party of five or six up Palmer creek.

The hall meetings that was held last Sunday to elect committeemen different medicines without benefit didate on the Republican ticket for and a treasurer was a success. BUTTE CREEK ITEMS

Miss Alice Nygren has entered the ninth grade, making five pupils in the class. The Butte Creek school has reecived a set of library books from the state library at Salem. N. Homalka of Medford is out visiting his friend, Carl Disek, who lives about four miles east of Brownshoro,i to improve his health. The farmers of this vicinity are very busy putting in grain, and doing their fall plowing. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Meyer were doing business with Medford merchants last week. Reed Charley, accompanied by his mother, and sister, were in Eagle Point last Saturday. Thompson brothers of Lake Creek were up to the M. F. Hanley ranch leading drug store in very town last Saturday buying some apples.
