

BOOTH DEFENDS TIMBER RECORD; TALKS CALAMITY

R. A. Booth, republican nominee for the U. S. senate talked at the Nat last night to 1000 people, some of whom were republicans, some democrats, but most of whom were curious folks, who came only to see. The features of the evening were the musical numbers, and the introductory remarks by Col. R. C. Washburn of Table Rock.

Colonel Washburn announced that the republican party were tired of being beaten every election, and had decided to reverse things, by electing Booth Senator, so he would be in congress, when a republican president was elected two years from now. Mr. Booth was described as a "man who was born in Oregon, who has lived all his life in Oregon, and who made his record in Oregon."

Colonel Washburn took a swat at democracy in general, and then Mr. Booth arose to speak.

After eulogizing the flowers, decorations and audience, Mr. Booth took up a defense "at the request of local friends" of his own record.

The remainder of the hour Mr. Booth spoke was devoted to a tariff argument, similar to thousands made during the McKinley campaign.

Seated upon the stage with Mr. Booth were a score of leading republicans of the county and city, prominent among them being Dr. J. M. Keane, Bert Anderson, George Merriam, Wm. Angle, W. H. Gore and J. A. Westerlund.

Seated upon the stage with Mr. Booth were a score of leading republicans of the county and city, prominent among them being Dr. J. M. Keane, Bert Anderson, George Merriam, Wm. Angle, W. H. Gore and J. A. Westerlund.

Seated upon the stage with Mr. Booth were a score of leading republicans of the county and city, prominent among them being Dr. J. M. Keane, Bert Anderson, George Merriam, Wm. Angle, W. H. Gore and J. A. Westerlund.

Seated upon the stage with Mr. Booth were a score of leading republicans of the county and city, prominent among them being Dr. J. M. Keane, Bert Anderson, George Merriam, Wm. Angle, W. H. Gore and J. A. Westerlund.

Seated upon the stage with Mr. Booth were a score of leading republicans of the county and city, prominent among them being Dr. J. M. Keane, Bert Anderson, George Merriam, Wm. Angle, W. H. Gore and J. A. Westerlund.

Seated upon the stage with Mr. Booth were a score of leading republicans of the county and city, prominent among them being Dr. J. M. Keane, Bert Anderson, George Merriam, Wm. Angle, W. H. Gore and J. A. Westerlund.

Seated upon the stage with Mr. Booth were a score of leading republicans of the county and city, prominent among them being Dr. J. M. Keane, Bert Anderson, George Merriam, Wm. Angle, W. H. Gore and J. A. Westerlund.

Seated upon the stage with Mr. Booth were a score of leading republicans of the county and city, prominent among them being Dr. J. M. Keane, Bert Anderson, George Merriam, Wm. Angle, W. H. Gore and J. A. Westerlund.

Seated upon the stage with Mr. Booth were a score of leading republicans of the county and city, prominent among them being Dr. J. M. Keane, Bert Anderson, George Merriam, Wm. Angle, W. H. Gore and J. A. Westerlund.

Seated upon the stage with Mr. Booth were a score of leading republicans of the county and city, prominent among them being Dr. J. M. Keane, Bert Anderson, George Merriam, Wm. Angle, W. H. Gore and J. A. Westerlund.

PORTLAND GAME CALLED OFF FOR MEDFORD GAME

The All Star baseball team composed of National and American League stars, will arrive in Medford Monday morning at 11 o'clock, traveling in a special Pullman, with a baggage car to carry their paraphernalia. The game to have been played in Portland Monday with an all star Portland team, has been called off. Interest in the baseball game in this city is vying in interest with the election, and a good crowd is assured. The only disturbing element is the weatherman.

It has not been decided yet who will pitch in this city, but it is probable that Bill James of Boston and Jeff Tesereau of New York will do the work, the line up remaining the same as posted and printed.

There will be a large delegation of fans from Ashland, Jacksonville, Phoenix, Talent and Gold Hill to see the game. Tickets are going fast.

QUELL MONARCHIST UPRISING IN PORTUGAL

LONDON, Oct. 30, 4:30 a. m.—A Lisbon dispatch to the Exchange Telegram company reports that Azavedo Castello Branco, the last foreign minister under the monarchy, has been arrested. It is reported that several officers have been imprisoned in the Cafaria fortress.

Recent dispatches from Lisbon which have reached Madrid and London by round about routes have contained reports of monarchistic attempts at uprisings in the Portuguese capital on October 20 and 21. It is probable that the arrests referred to in the above dispatch were in connection with the attempts to start a revolt.

Baldy Breezer's Calendar

When Senator Chamberlain was in Medford he pretended to be very much insulted because some questions were distributed here for him to answer, and even though those questions pertain strictly to his public record he said he "refused to pay any attention to this form of attack, merely stating that if either of his opponents desired to ask him any questions he would share his time with them at the meetings."

Judge Webster of Portland, hearing of the senator's extreme courage, offered through Clarence Reames, in fact urged that Chamberlain meet him here or share his time with him. Mr. Reames declined to consider the matter. Senator Chamberlain nevertheless repeated his generous offer in other places in the southern part of the state only, to share his time with his opponents.

The following challenge which Col. C. E. S. Wood has issued to Senator Chamberlain which appears in all of the Portland papers October 23rd, proves that the people's candidate, William Hanley, is anxious to avail himself of the opportunity to meet the senator "face to face."

To the editor of the Journal.—The Journal Thursday, October 22, reports Senator Chamberlain as saying at Ashland that he intended to disregard all lists of questions submitted by those opposed to him, through paid circulators and quotes him as follows:

"I refuse to deal with third hand representatives. Let their chief meet me face to face."

Of course it may be said if a question to a public man on his public record interests the people, it makes little difference who asks it. But to accommodate Senator Chamberlain and to allow him full opportunity to explain himself, I am authorized by William Hanley to say that either he or I or both, at Senator Chamberlain's selection, will meet Senator Chamberlain "face to face" at any public place any time he may name and the sooner the better.

WM. HANLEY CLUB.
(Paid Adv.)

WM. HANLEY CLUB.
(Paid Adv.)

WM. HANLEY CLUB.
(Paid Adv.)

Lawson Gives Reasons

(Paid Adv. in Oregonian.)
No greater calamity could come to the nation, at just this time, than the tying of President Wilson's hands during the last half of his administration, by the turning over of the senate to the party whose misuse of their was the cause of President Wilson's work before it is finished.

The election of a straight-out republican could mean nothing more, nothing less, to the country, to the world than the great state of Oregon decides President Wilson's administration a failure. On this point there can be no difference of opinion. Mr. Booth's campaign is bottomed, topped and sided with this argument.

I believe I know the country's condition as well as any man or woman in Oregon, and knowing it, I unqualifiedly say: No greater calamity could befall the country than the discrediting of President Wilson's work now, before it is finished and tried out under his supervision.

So grave a calamity do I consider the discrediting of President Wilson and his work, that I would, if it could not be avoided in any other way than by the election of a democrat, not only vote for Senator Chamberlain, but for his democratic office boy.

The people of Oregon and elsewhere should make no mistake about this—the discrediting of President Wilson and his work, now, will be a calamity, an awful national calamity.

This disposes of Mr. Booth, as it would dispose of the greatest statesman of the country, if he occupied Mr. Booth's position.

That there may be no misunderstanding I will repeat: The election of standpat Republican Booth will tend to discredit President Wilson and his work, and the discrediting of President Wilson and his work would be a national calamity, the effects of which would add to the present hellish conditions which are boiling beneath the surface of American affairs.

If the above does not completely dispose of Mr. Booth, his own reason for asking to be sent to the senate, that he may change the present tariff laws, should certainly do so. Can anyone imagine an emptier argument than: as the present tariff hurts Oregon, send me, a republican, to the senate to change President Wilson's just enacted tariff law. The veriest school boy knows that the present tariff will remain as it is until the end of President Wilson's administration, and at least as long after that—two or three years—as would be required for the changing of it by another administration, and in all probability until the country has tried it out. And this regardless of any number of standpat republican Booths who may be sent to the senate by Oregon or other states.

THOMAS W. LAWSON,
Is a Powerful Influence in Blood
Works With a Definite Purpose and Is a Known Antidote.

There are some things in medicine that are certain and definite. They do the work. S. S. S. is one of these reliable and is a known antidote for all blood troubles. More than that, it is harmless, for it does not hurt the stomach, does not affect the bones and joints, nor does it alter the integrity of the nerves and spine. But it does sweep through the blood, a powerful, searching, cleansing influence, remarkable for results and a tremendous relief to those who suffer the humiliation of skin eruptions.

Nearly all sickness is due to sluggish blood. And if you let S. S. S. bathe your system with its wonderful influence your nervous troubles, your man, weary, faded, listless, lifeless body will revive and become so renewed with the sense of enjoyable health you will scarcely know yourself. Try S. S. S. today. Get a bottle at any drug store. It will put you on your feet; keep you going all day and enable you to sleep sound and restful. S. S. S. is not a "drop," not a physic, but a fine, bracing, purifying medicine that is sure to do you a world of good.

It is just what you need. S. S. S. is prepared by The Swift Specific Co., 60 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and if you are troubled with any stubborn blood disease their medical department will guide you safely to health. Write them.

WOOD CHALLENGES CHAMBERLAIN
When Senator Chamberlain was in Medford he pretended to be very much insulted because some questions were distributed here for him to answer, and even though those questions pertain strictly to his public record he said he "refused to pay any attention to this form of attack, merely stating that if either of his opponents desired to ask him any questions he would share his time with them at the meetings."

Judge Webster of Portland, hearing of the senator's extreme courage, offered through Clarence Reames, in fact urged that Chamberlain meet him here or share his time with him. Mr. Reames declined to consider the matter. Senator Chamberlain nevertheless repeated his generous offer in other places in the southern part of the state only, to share his time with his opponents.

The following challenge which Col. C. E. S. Wood has issued to Senator Chamberlain which appears in all of the Portland papers October 23rd, proves that the people's candidate, William Hanley, is anxious to avail himself of the opportunity to meet the senator "face to face."

To the editor of the Journal.—The Journal Thursday, October 22, reports Senator Chamberlain as saying at Ashland that he intended to disregard all lists of questions submitted by those opposed to him, through paid circulators and quotes him as follows:

"I refuse to deal with third hand representatives. Let their chief meet me face to face."

Of course it may be said if a question to a public man on his public record interests the people, it makes little difference who asks it. But to accommodate Senator Chamberlain and to allow him full opportunity to explain himself, I am authorized by William Hanley to say that either he or I or both, at Senator Chamberlain's selection, will meet Senator Chamberlain "face to face" at any public place any time he may name and the sooner the better.

AN APPEAL TO WOMEN

By Abigail Scott Duniway

Abigail Scott Duniway

Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway, PIONEER MOTHER AND PATH-BREAKER OF THE EQUAL SUFFRAGE MOVEMENT IN OREGON, WASHINGTON AND IDAHO, takes this method to extend her greetings to such HONEST CHRISTIAN WOMEN as she devoutly believes are being LED ASTRAY in the present Prohibition crisis BY THE CRAFTINESS OF AMBITIOUS MEN.

Have you forgotten, my inexperienced daughters, who are listening to HIRED AND IMPORTED AGITATORS, to consult your Bibles? Do you recall the fate of One, who, upon entering the enemy's country "to seek and to save that which was lost," was ostracized, derided and finally crucified by SELF-STYLED "BEST PEOPLE," who still "love to pray, STANDING IN THE SYNAGOGUES AND ON THE STREET CORNERS, TO BE SEEN OF MEN."

Are you obeying the Divine command of Him who said: "Woe unto you, Scribes, Pharisees, HYPOCRITES?" Do you forget that he urged his followers to "RESIST NOT EVIL," but to "OVERCOME EVIL WITH GOOD"? Can't you remember that He warned the people to AVOID DRUNKENNESS, and, while graphically depicting the woes of the drunkard, HE AT NO TIME ADVOCATED THE MAKING, OR ENFORCEMENT OF ANY LAW EXCEPT THE LAW OF SELF GOVERNMENT, as applied to the abuse of intoxicants in individual cases?

When he said, "Woe unto him that putteth the bottle to his neighbor's lips," can't you see that it was not the "TRAFFIC," but the MEN WHO MISUSED IT, that were accused? When he admonished the people against "tarrying long at the wine," using such vigorous language against intemperance as no man can equal, can't you see that his warning was NOT AGAINST THE USE OF THE WINE, BUT AGAINST THE ABUSE OF IT?

As my space is limited and advertising rates come high, I must confine this letter to such quotations of Scripture as can be paid for, so I must be brief, and I must cite you to Matt. 11-19, as follows:

"The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, BEHOLD A MAN GLUTTONOUS AND A WINE-BIBBER, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children."

Again, to quote the sayings of Paul: "For why is my LIBERTY judged of another man's CONSCIENCE?" (Cor. 10:29).

"But the fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith and meekness. Temperance: AGAINST SUCH THERE IS NO LAW." (Gal., parts of verses 19-21, 22 and 23.)

Now, my enfranchised daughters of the modern day churches, for whose PERSONAL LIBERTY and that of other people I HAVE GIVEN MY LIFE, if there is enough of the spirit of ingratitude in your hearts to wean you from the above teachings of the Christ and his followers and to cause you to approve the FALSEHOOD, VULGARITY, HATE and INTOLERANCE which is displayed by the Anti-Saloon League in an open letter in the Evening Telegram of October 3, you will cast your votes with the spirit of Anti-Christ as displayed by the authority of the SELF-ORGANIZED CONSPIRACY that gave it birth. But, by so doing, you will crucify the Savior of sinners afresh "and put him to open shame."

After the INTEMPERATE CRAZE OF PROHIBITION now going through the newly enfranchised states like a holocaust of fire, shall have exhausted itself, the advocates of GENUINE TEMPERANCE REFORM, including the Mother Sex, can go before the incoming legislative assemblies of such states, guided by the spirit of Christ, "who came to break every yoke and let the oppressed go free," where they can offer a solution of the evils we all complain of, WHICH MEN ALONE HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO MEET AND CONQUOR SINCE THE DAWN OF HISTORY.

Dry towns will stay dry if the proposed prohibition amendment is defeated, and the present local option and home rule statutes will continue in force.

VOTE 333 X NO AGAINST PROHIBITION

(Paid Advertisement, Taxpayers & Wage Earners' League of Oregon, Portland, Ore.)

RUB RHEUMATISM FROM STIFF, ACHING JOINTS

Rub soreness from joints and muscles with a small trial bottle of old St. Jacobs Oil.
Stop "dosing" Rheumatism. It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia. Lumber up! Get a 25 cent bottle of old time, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

The Wardrobe
F. S. Brandon, Mgr.

THE JACKSON COUNTY BANK
MEDFORD, OREGON
PROMPT COLLECTIONS
You will find our Banking Service very satisfactory and advantageous to your business.
We make prompt collections.
Your account and banking business is invited.
OVER 22 YEARS UNDER ONE MANAGEMENT