MILESTONES TO BE SEEN AT PAGE MONDAY EVENING

"Milestones," the Anglo-American consedy, equally well liked in both prayer meeting Thursday at 7:30 p countries, is to be the attraction at the Page Monday, November 2.

The story is about two English families and its three acts cover a period of thore than fifly years.

John Rhand is opposed by his een ior partner, Rose Subley's father, and his proposed brother-in-law, Samuel in his belief that iron ships were betper than those of wood. They, the Sibleys, father and son, deny him the hand of Rose, regarding him us a traine to their interests, though they are the largest manufacturers of iron in the largest city to the world-London-and in the very heart of the iron district on the Thames side, John marries Rose, however, be comes an independent and finally a wealthy builder of iron ships, a ment her of parliament and a haronet.

Arthur Procee is a workman in Sir John's foundry a young man of genius, who realizes that steel putst take the place of iron in sustaining the power of the British navy; and so he is in turn thwarted in his desire to marry Sir John's daughter, Emily. She yields to her stern old sire and, marrying Lord Monkhurst, lives to find her only daughter, Lady Muriel, insisting against her wishes in uniting herself to her comin, a promising young engineer in the Rhead establishment.

Proceed advice and the pleadings of Sir John's maiden sister, Gertrade. overcome his pride and hard-headednes, and ther is a happy curtain, the victory of cupid. A contest won, however, as one must believe, only to be Tought over again in the newly arise ing generation.

STAND PATTERS PRODUCE CLASSIC

of Jackson county has took its pen in matters will be taken up, hand again and given to the world another classic, to be a sister to that other geni, that blames the Medford police for the hard times because they zere democrats.

Across the top of a full-page ag "Republicane! Wake Up!" Underheath are the pictures of R. A. Booth, Dr. Withvenube and Congressman Hawky. The inference is these candolates have been sleeping,

In the reading matter there para the usual columity howl, the appeal to party pride, and the prediction in conclusion "that the demoeratic party will set a training next yeast." There also appears in the ad these words: "We will all be a Iwo more years."

The appeal, by and large, is a "dinger."
