

FAIR WEATHER FOR ELECTION AND RECORD VOTE POLLED IN NEARLY ALL STATES OF UNION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—President Wilson left here at 8 a. m. today for Princeton to vote. He will arrive there shortly after noon and will leave again at 2 o'clock for Washington in order to receive the election returns at the white house tonight.

The president was particularly anxious to vote today because Representative Allen Walsh of his district is understood to have had a hard fight for re-election. The president also was interested in democratic candidates for the state legislature.

In the president's party were several white house employees who vote in New Jersey, including C. L. Swen, 21 years old, the youngest confidential stenographer the president ever had.

Heavy Vote, New York

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—National and state issues conspired to bring the electors of New York state to the polls today in numbers that promised a vote like that of a presidential year.

Fair weather prevailed. The first opportunity to choose a United States senator by popular vote and the congressional contests aroused as much interest as the struggle for the governorship. Delegates were chosen also to a state constitutional convention which meets next year.

Strenuous in Michigan

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 3.—The strenuous campaign for the governorship made by Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris, democrat, and former Governor Chase S. Osborn, republican, caused all party leaders to predict a heavy vote in Michigan today. Should the democrats win, Governor Ferris will be the first democratic governor re-elected in Michigan.

Gore Contest Interesting

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 3.—Fair weather in Oklahoma aided in bringing out a heavy vote today. An extraordinary feature of the election was the heavy socialist vote reported in cotton growing counties.

Because of a suite a few months ago that Thomas Pryor Gore, United States senator, said was intended to injure him politically, much interest was manifested in his contest for re-election on the democratic ticket. Opposed to him were John H. Buford, republican and W. O. Cromwell, progressive.

The gubernatorial contest is four-cornered with R. L. Williams, democrat; John Fields, republican; J. P. Hickman, progressive, and Fred W. Holt, socialist, as candidates.

Light in Maryland

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 3.—Although weather conditions were ideal a light vote was anticipated at today's congressional election, as there was little interest shown in the campaign. The democratic leaders expressed confidence in the return of John Walter Smith to the senate by a large majority.

Three Cornered Fight

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—The three-cornered fight for the United States senatorship between A. Mitchell Palmer, democrat, Gifford Pinchot, progressive and Boies Penrose, republican and the struggle between Vance C. McCormick, democrat-progressive and Martin G. Brumbaugh, republican, for governor, serves to bring out a heavy vote in the early hours of the election today throughout Pennsylvania.

Heavy Vote Minnesota

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 3.—Despite unsettled weather, early indications favored a heavy vote in Minnesota, where chief interest in today's election centered in the gubernatorial contest with both W. S. Hammond, democrat, and W. E. Lee, republican, confident of victory.

Rain in Washington

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 3.—Rainy weather and an enormous vote, brought out by interest in the proposed prohibition law, are forecasted for today in Washington. In the cities the polls will be open from 8 to 8. In the country precincts they will close at 7. In Seattle, where it is alleged thousands of men are fraudulently registered, to vote against prohibition, there will be many watchers and challengers at the polls.

In North Dakota

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Nov. 3.—The contest for United States senator between the incumbent, Asie J. Gronna, republican, and W. E. Purcell, democrat, attracted a large number of early voters to the polls in North Dakota today and with a continuation of fair weather, a record ments to the state constitution as being voted on, one increasing the term of state officers from two to four years and the other increasing the number of judges of the supreme court from three to five.

Missouri Vote Slow

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 3.—Fair and warm weather prevailed throughout Missouri today and scenes at the polls at the opening hours indicated that a heavy vote would be cast.

The voting was slow on account of the long referendum ballot, and apparently there was much scratching of party tickets.

Heavy Voting in Iowa

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 3.—Heavy voting throughout the state was reported early today. The contest between Senator Albert B. Cummins and Congressman Maurice Connolly for the United States senate, attracted most attention. Eleven congressmen, a governor and entire state ticket, including supreme court justices and a new legislature are to be chosen.

Big Ballot in California

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 3.—California, besides choosing a governor and complete state ticket, representatives in congress and one United States senator voted today on initiative measures proposing a rigid prohibition, a compulsory eight hour working day for all classes, and 46 other measures or amendments to the state constitution. The ballot measured 32 inches by 25.

Fair Weather in Ohio

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 3.—Fair weather today gave promise of the largest vote ever cast in the state. Intense interest centered in the election of both a governor and United States senator, and this was augmented by the bitter fight that has been waged between "wet" and "dry" forces over two liquor constitutional amendments, one of which asked for state-wide prohibition.

Heavy Vote in Chicago

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—The early vote in Chicago was unusually heavy today and the few reports from down state indicated some similar activity. Although women cannot vote for United States senator apparently there was one woman vote cast early to every three by the men.

Rain in Wyoming

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 3.—Threatening weather in many parts of the state made the early vote light. All three party managers today asserted confidence in the outcome of the election. Interest centered in the contest for governor, in which J. B. Kendrick, democrat and progressive, is opposed to H. S. Ridgely, republican. Full state and congressional tickets are to be elected.

Clear Day in Nevada

RENO, Nev., Nov. 3.—With a fair day throughout the state, predictions are for a 95 per cent vote. Interest is intense in the equal suffrage amendment and in the senatorial fight between Senator Francis G. Newlands, democrat, and Sam Platt, republican. Governor Odell, republican, is opposed by Emmett D. Boyle for re-election.

Sunshine in Kentucky

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 3.—Fair weather today brought out a somewhat heavier early vote than usual in Kentucky. Interest centered largely in the senatorial race between J. C. W. Beckham and Augustus E. Wilson, both former governors of Kentucky.

FEDERAL TROOPS TO ARKANSAS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Secretary Garrison today ordered four companies of the Fifth United States Cavalry from Fort Sheridan, Ill., to Fort Smith, Ark., to maintain order in the Hartford valley coal strike district. Major Nathaniel F. McClure, who has been with the troops in the Colorado mining fields, will command the force.

SPIRITUAL HEAD OF MOSLEMS PUTS BLAME ON KAISER

LONDON, Nov. 3, 2:06 p. m.—Aga Khan, who is known as the spiritual head of the Mohammedans in India, East Africa and Central Asia, has sent a cablegram from London addressed to the moslems in India and other dominions, in which he expresses his deep sorrow that Turkey has joined hands with Germany in the war.

In this message Aga Khan says: "This is not the free will of the sultan, but the will of the German officers and other non-Moslems who have forced him to do their bidding." He declares further that Turkey has now lost her position as the trustee of Islam. She has drawn her sword in an unholy cause and the duty of the Moslems today is to remain loyal and faithful to their temporal and secular allegiance.

PRESIDENT VOTES AT PRINCETON

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 3.—President Wilson came back to Princeton today to vote.

At the railroad station he was greeted by a large crowd of students who gave him a noisy welcome. The president walked directly to the polling place, in a fire engine house. On the way he shook hands with many old friends.

It took the president only two minutes to vote for the democratic candidates for congress, legislature and sheriff.

"Number eighty-nine," announced the election judge as the president emerged from the voting booth, indicating Mr. Wilson's order in the list of voters.

"No, '79," replied the president, meaning his Princeton class. A general laugh followed.

After voting, Mr. Wilson visited several friends, walking through the Princeton campus.

WHITE NAMED MAYOR SALEM 2-1 VOTE

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 3.—By a vote of two to one, Harley O. White, was elected mayor of this city over J. F. Jones at the city primary election here yesterday. They were the only contestants for this office and as the city charter provides that where a candidate receives a majority at the primary election he shall be deemed elected, yesterday's primary settled the contest between them. Charles F. Elgin, present city recorder, was re-elected by a small majority.

PAYNE WHITNEY'S WIFE AIDS BATTLE VICTIMS

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney who was Miss Gertrude Vanderbilt, will sail tomorrow for Europe on the Lusitania, with a staff of four surgeons and 15 trained nurses, to establish, at her own expense, a large field hospital behind the firing line in northern France. Ten motor ambulances, a large quantity of medical supplies and clothing sufficient for 3000 men, women and children, all purchased by Mrs. Whitney, were shipped Saturday.

RUSSIA REPLIES TURKEY'S APOLOGY COMES TOO LATE

LONDON, Nov. 3, 10:55 a. m.—Russia has replied to Turkey's apology for the raids of her navy in the Black Sea with the fateful words, "Too Late," and in London it is thought hardly likely that diplomatic pressure will prevent the war party among the Young Turks from dragging their country into the European imbroglio.

The events of the last twelve hours show that the grand vizier of Turkey has made every effort to conciliate the entente powers, but the influence of his partisans in the Turkish cabinet is not believed to be great enough to force the Porte to meet the demands for reparation formulated in the Franco-British notes.

So far as Russia is concerned, a state of war with Turkey actually exists and the reply from the Russian foreign minister to the explanation of the grand vizier does not hold out, in the opinion of London, any hope for a peaceful outcome of the dispute.

ALLEGED DICKER IN VOTES MERELY A JOKE

Investigation of the alleged attempt at a dicker in votes between the republican stand-patters and the Hanleyites shows that the entire affair was due to a misunderstanding resulting from a joke. A humorous offer was jestingly made and as jestingly spurned. The offer was overheard by others and magnified for campaign purposes.

How To Get Rid of a Bad Cough

A Home-Made Remedy that Will Do It Quickly, Cheap and Easily Made

If you have a bad cough or chest cold which refuses to yield to ordinary remedies, get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start taking a teaspoonful every hour or two. In 24 hours your cough will be conquered or very nearly so. Even whooping cough is greatly relieved in this way.

The above mixture makes a full pint—a family supply—of the finest cough syrup that money could buy—at a cost of only 54 cents. Easily prepared in 5 minutes. Full directions with Pinex.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup preparation takes right hold of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough in a way that is really remarkable. Also quickly heals the inflamed membranes which accompany a painful cough, and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. Excellent for bronchitis, spasmodic croup and winter coughs. Keeps perfectly and tastes good.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in quaiaccol, which is so healing to the membranes. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex"—do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation.
