

NEWS FROM COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

ASHLAND, Nov. 10.—The "Sons" League, specifically known as the Southern Oregon Natural Attraction Association, met here Tuesday night. Among delegates present were C. E. Gaten and Ben Sheldon of Medford; Will G. Steel, superintendent of the Crater Lake National park; W. P. Quinlan, secretary of the Grants Pass Commercial club. Mr. Steel is president of the association. Local citizens present were Bert Greer, C. B. Swanson, H. O. Frohach, G. W. Senger, and W. E. Newcombe, the latter being secretary. A proposed constitution and by-laws of the organization were read and adopted. There was a number of informal talks regarding the scope of the work of the association, the plan of which is to boost the scenic attractions of Jackson, Josephine and Klamath counties. This idea was first broached at a meeting held at Medford last February, and the plan was perfected at Klamath Falls in July. The chief effort at the Ashland meeting was directed at devising ways and means for financing advance projects in behalf of exploiting the work in general, details to be taken up later on. The gathering adjourned to meet next at Medford on call of the chairman. D. M. Lowe wired from Portland Tuesday, that in behalf of the Rogue river valley exhibitors, he had been awarded sweepstakes on agricultural display in general. And furthermore that he had also captured five first and four second premiums on specific horticultural and agricultural displays.

R. M. Hedges announced himself, Tuesday as a candidate for city recorder, and will at once enter upon an active campaign of the municipal field. He is well qualified for the office.

FLOUNCE ROCK FALLS

Tuesday was a beautiful day and every one who could went to the falls to exercise the right of franchise. There was a good turnout of the women, some of them coming for a long distance.

Mr. Willis of Persist brought a box of nice apples to the election board and all were very appreciative of them.

Mrs. Charles Walker and Misses Winnie and Belva Walker spent Tuesday at Nelson Nye's.

Robert Gordon went to Klamath Friday.

Margery Eskine spent Saturday night at Mr. Kincaid's.

Miss Ted Manning has been visiting friends at Prospect. She came home Monday.

Miss Clara Casler is staying with Mrs. Magsfield.

Alfred Gordon came over from Ft. Klamath last week and took his children, Tessie and Lester, home with him to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker and two ladies from the power plant went to town Saturday.

Several gentlemen from Medford came up to the power plant in a car one day last week.

James Grieve of Prospect took the ballot boxes to town Thursday and returned Friday.

The board of electors spent the night at the polls, as it took them that long to finish their work. A panther came and screamed near the schoolhouse where they were that night.

Bertha Cobley is visiting her brother, Frank Ditsworth. Mr. Cobley spent from Saturday to Monday with his wife.

Frank and Gus Ditsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Cobley and Violet Vaughn went to Prospect Sunday.

The W. C. T. U. held a jubilee meeting Saturday at the home of Mrs. R. E. Peyton. The election news was read and discussed with much pleasure. It was decided to have a praise meeting, dinner and program on Thanksgiving day to fulfill the double purpose of observing Thanksgiving and celebrating the victory of Oregon going dry. After the meeting Mrs. Dawson and Miss Peyton served dinner. It was one of those feasts where "the table groaned under the weight of good things." There were about thirty present.

R. E. Peyton took a picture of the crowd, which will be sent to Mrs. Heron, and the dinner was partly in her honor, as it was her birthday.

Mr. Kelsoe has been changing the telephone line and we now have much better service.

Kenneth Eskine spent Saturday and Sunday visiting his friend, George Henry, and wife, near McLeod bridge.

A significant fact of the recent elections was the prominence of industries.

WILLOW SPRINGS TWIGLETS

Frost played havoc with the tomato vines.

Theodore Fish spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. W. A. Thompson.

A number of our young people spent a very pleasant evening at the cozy home of Robert Wilson Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bailey, father and mother of Mrs. W. D. Clarke, who have been visiting here for several days returned to their home in Forest Grove Monday.

Packing apples is underway at the Sunset, Cracker Jack and Beulah orchards.

The Presbyterian choir and friends met at the home of Miss McNasser, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles have departed for California for the winter months.

D. W. Stone and wife, also Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thompson were dinner guests of Mrs. McNasser Wednesday.

The Parent-Teachers club met with Mrs. T. C. Law Saturday, November 7.

The principle topic for discussion was "The Training of Young Girls in Domestic Science." Plans were perfected for the annual Christmas tree and program.

Toy Davidson and family moved to their old home on Pacific highway Monday and Mr. Davis has taken up his abode on the place just opposite.

Mrs. R. W. Elden will give a ten cent social on Friday afternoon, November 13th, at which occasion all ladies interested in helping to buy a baseball outfit for the boys of Willow Springs school, are cordially invited.

William Adams has moved on the McKee ranch for the purpose of taking charge of the dairy department.

Mrs. W. D. Clarke entertained on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mr. Clark's mother, Mrs. D. D. Clarke of Portland. A very enjoyable hour was had, deciphering a contest on dressmaking, also in making exquisite Christmas gifts. Last but not least delicious refreshments were served. The ladies present were: Mesdames Will Davidson, W. Parker, Mrs. Welch, Medford; D. D. Clark, Portland; F. McKee, Wallace Elden, McNasser, Birkholz, J. W. Elden, Hatfield, Norcross, and the Misses Johnson and Pickard.

The Mesdames J. S. Norwood and P. E. Blackburn of Marzanto were hostesses to a delightful afternoon Monday, November 9th. Cards and sewing were indulged in until a late hour, when an elaborate luncheon was gracefully served to the following guests: Mesdames R. D. Hoke, P. McKee, Ralph Elden, Hugh Storey, Robert Paxton, Anna Lane, E. S. Palmer, Johnson, John Grant, Frank Upton, D. McNasser and the Misses Pickard and McNasser.

ANTIOCH ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Wyland of the Meadows passed through our burg Wednesday morning on their way to Medford.

Mr. Murdoch is hauling hay from the John Bigham ranch.

Mr. McCreight and sons of Beagle sold two wagon loads of fine turkeys to the Central Point market.

Mr. and Mrs. Snyder of Medford are moving their household goods to the Scott ranch and will make it their home this winter.

Mrs. W. C. Chapman is visiting at the home of her son, Percy, on the Huth ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Rodgers were trading in Central Point Monday.

Percy Chapman is helping Mr. Chase build a dam at the head of the Table Rock irrigating ditch.

Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch were visiting in Medford Sunday.

Most of the farmers are through with sowing their fall grain and are ready for the rains and winter weather.

Jasper Rodgers, the Beagle merchant, is building a barn and stable near the store.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Glass were trading in Central Point Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Cotterill of the Meadows passed through our burg Sunday on their way to the valley.

Rube Moore has gone to the Antelope country to look after his cattle.

BUTTE CREEK ITEMS

The members of the Butte creek school held an election last Wednesday, November 4, the following amendments carrying: The amendment requiring voters to be citizens of the United States, the amendment for the normal schools at Ashland and Weston, the amendment prohibiting the sale of liquors, the amendment abolishing death penalty, the dentistry bill and the amendment lengthening the term of the county officers. The republican officers received the largest number of votes.

The Lake creek school board, District No. 19, put a Waterbury heating system into their school house last week.

Reed and Claus Charley both members of the ninth grade, were out of school helping their parents last week.

Miss Margaret Schell was a pleasant caller at the Butte creek school last Thursday, where her father is teaching.

The ninth grade pupils of the Butte creek school had a debate on the subject of which was the greatest—the Egyptian empire or the Assyrian-Babylonian empire. There are five scholars in the ninth grade; one was judge and the others took sides. The Assyrian-Babylonian empire won.

The dance at the South Butte hall was attended by a large crowd from all over the country, Clay Barker and wife, Dean Terrill and sister, Reed Charley, Lloyd Stanley, Glenn Terrill, Audley Meyer and Otto Meyer went from Brownboro and the surrounding country. The people who went from the Antelope country were: Miss Welch and sister, Russell Winn, Joe Crane, Paul and George Rose and Arthur Tuttle.

A number of the people went to Eagle Point Friday to get their Mopoco fertilizer, among them being Henry Tonn, R. A. Peck, Henry Meyer, Eddie and Herman Meyer, Jr., Mr. Tyrrel and Charles Klinge.

EAGLE POINT EAGLES

By A. C. Howlett

Mrs. Benj. Brophy was in our town last Sunday.

Fred Pelouze, one of our progressive farmers, was in town after a load of commercial fertilizer. He tried the compound on his alfalfa last season and found that his yield was about doubled. I noticed that quite a number of our farmers are hauling it out to put on the land, and they expect fine crops next year, as the result. While the soil in these parts is generally good, the reader must remember that a great deal of the land has been in cultivation for the past thirty to fifty years, and in many instances no rotation of crops, but instead it would be planted to wheat or oats and the product cut for hay, and then perhaps left to volunteer and again cut for hay, so that about all of the substance of the soil is extracted and nothing put back. And in many instances the old-fashioned farmers would throw the manure out of the stable and let it stand there until it would rot away the side of the building instead of putting some of it back onto the land, and the result is that considerable many of the farms need rest and rebuilding up. But with new men and new ideas that antiquated method is being done away with, and soon our soil will be restored to its original value.

George M. Childreth of Medford, a brother of our blacksmith, came out and spent the day with his brother, W. L., and family.

D. J. Singleton, who is a part owner with his sister and brother in the Singleton farm, was in town Saturday and I think took out a lot of fertilizing compound.

E. R. Peterson, one of the rural school supervisors, was a guest with us last Saturday. He has been visiting the schools in the Big Butte country and was on his way to Brownboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Quackenbush were doing business with our merchants Saturday, and so was P. W. Haley, the Butte creek bean raiser.

bers of the ninth grade, were out of school helping their parents last week.

Miss Margaret Schell was a pleasant caller at the Butte creek school last Thursday, where her father is teaching.

The ninth grade pupils of the Butte creek school had a debate on the subject of which was the greatest—the Egyptian empire or the Assyrian-Babylonian empire. There are five scholars in the ninth grade; one was judge and the others took sides. The Assyrian-Babylonian empire won.

The dance at the South Butte hall was attended by a large crowd from all over the country, Clay Barker and wife, Dean Terrill and sister, Reed Charley, Lloyd Stanley, Glenn Terrill, Audley Meyer and Otto Meyer went from Brownboro and the surrounding country. The people who went from the Antelope country were: Miss Welch and sister, Russell Winn, Joe Crane, Paul and George Rose and Arthur Tuttle.

A number of the people went to Eagle Point Friday to get their Mopoco fertilizer, among them being Henry Tonn, R. A. Peck, Henry Meyer, Eddie and Herman Meyer, Jr., Mr. Tyrrel and Charles Klinge.

EAGLE POINT EAGLES

By A. C. Howlett

Mrs. Benj. Brophy was in our town last Sunday.

Fred Pelouze, one of our progressive farmers, was in town after a load of commercial fertilizer. He tried the compound on his alfalfa last season and found that his yield was about doubled. I noticed that quite a number of our farmers are hauling it out to put on the land, and they expect fine crops next year, as the result. While the soil in these parts is generally good, the reader must remember that a great deal of the land has been in cultivation for the past thirty to fifty years, and in many instances no rotation of crops, but instead it would be planted to wheat or oats and the product cut for hay, and then perhaps left to volunteer and again cut for hay, so that about all of the substance of the soil is extracted and nothing put back. And in many instances the old-fashioned farmers would throw the manure out of the stable and let it stand there until it would rot away the side of the building instead of putting some of it back onto the land, and the result is that considerable many of the farms need rest and rebuilding up. But with new men and new ideas that antiquated method is being done away with, and soon our soil will be restored to its original value.

George M. Childreth of Medford, a brother of our blacksmith, came out and spent the day with his brother, W. L., and family.

D. J. Singleton, who is a part owner with his sister and brother in the Singleton farm, was in town Saturday and I think took out a lot of fertilizing compound.

E. R. Peterson, one of the rural school supervisors, was a guest with us last Saturday. He has been visiting the schools in the Big Butte country and was on his way to Brownboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Quackenbush were doing business with our merchants Saturday, and so was P. W. Haley, the Butte creek bean raiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Cotterill of the Meadows passed through our burg Sunday on their way to the valley.

Rube Moore has gone to the Antelope country to look after his cattle.

BUTTE CREEK ITEMS

The members of the Butte creek school held an election last Wednesday, November 4, the following amendments carrying: The amendment requiring voters to be citizens of the United States, the amendment for the normal schools at Ashland and Weston, the amendment prohibiting the sale of liquors, the amendment abolishing death penalty, the dentistry bill and the amendment lengthening the term of the county officers. The republican officers received the largest number of votes.

The Lake creek school board, District No. 19, put a Waterbury heating system into their school house last week.

Reed and Claus Charley both members of the ninth grade, were out of school helping their parents last week.

Miss Margaret Schell was a pleasant caller at the Butte creek school last Thursday, where her father is teaching.

The ninth grade pupils of the Butte creek school had a debate on the subject of which was the greatest—the Egyptian empire or the Assyrian-Babylonian empire. There are five scholars in the ninth grade; one was judge and the others took sides. The Assyrian-Babylonian empire won.

The dance at the South Butte hall was attended by a large crowd from all over the country, Clay Barker and wife, Dean Terrill and sister, Reed Charley, Lloyd Stanley, Glenn Terrill, Audley Meyer and Otto Meyer went from Brownboro and the surrounding country. The people who went from the Antelope country were: Miss Welch and sister, Russell Winn, Joe Crane, Paul and George Rose and Arthur Tuttle.

A number of the people went to Eagle Point Friday to get their Mopoco fertilizer, among them being Henry Tonn, R. A. Peck, Henry Meyer, Eddie and Herman Meyer, Jr., Mr. Tyrrel and Charles Klinge.

EAGLE POINT EAGLES

By A. C. Howlett

Mrs. Benj. Brophy was in our town last Sunday.

Fred Pelouze, one of our progressive farmers, was in town after a load of commercial fertilizer. He tried the compound on his alfalfa last season and found that his yield was about doubled. I noticed that quite a number of our farmers are hauling it out to put on the land, and they expect fine crops next year, as the result. While the soil in these parts is generally good, the reader must remember that a great deal of the land has been in cultivation for the past thirty to fifty years, and in many instances no rotation of crops, but instead it would be planted to wheat or oats and the product cut for hay, and then perhaps left to volunteer and again cut for hay, so that about all of the substance of the soil is extracted and nothing put back. And in many instances the old-fashioned farmers would throw the manure out of the stable and let it stand there until it would rot away the side of the building instead of putting some of it back onto the land, and the result is that considerable many of the farms need rest and rebuilding up. But with new men and new ideas that antiquated method is being done away with, and soon our soil will be restored to its original value.

George M. Childreth of Medford, a brother of our blacksmith, came out and spent the day with his brother, W. L., and family.

D. J. Singleton, who is a part owner with his sister and brother in the Singleton farm, was in town Saturday and I think took out a lot of fertilizing compound.

E. R. Peterson, one of the rural school supervisors, was a guest with us last Saturday. He has been visiting the schools in the Big Butte country and was on his way to Brownboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Quackenbush were doing business with our merchants Saturday, and so was P. W. Haley, the Butte creek bean raiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Cotterill of the Meadows passed through our burg Sunday on their way to the valley.

Rube Moore has gone to the Antelope country to look after his cattle.

BUTTE CREEK ITEMS

The members of the Butte creek school held an election last Wednesday, November 4, the following amendments carrying: The amendment requiring voters to be citizens of the United States, the amendment for the normal schools at Ashland and Weston, the amendment prohibiting the sale of liquors, the amendment abolishing death penalty, the dentistry bill and the amendment lengthening the term of the county officers. The republican officers received the largest number of votes.

The Lake creek school board, District No. 19, put a Waterbury heating system into their school house last week.

Reed and Claus Charley both members of the ninth grade, were out of school helping their parents last week.

Miss Margaret Schell was a pleasant caller at the Butte creek school last Thursday, where her father is teaching.

The ninth grade pupils of the Butte creek school had a debate on the subject of which was the greatest—the Egyptian empire or the Assyrian-Babylonian empire. There are five scholars in the ninth grade; one was judge and the others took sides. The Assyrian-Babylonian empire won.

The dance at the South Butte hall was attended by a large crowd from all over the country, Clay Barker and wife, Dean Terrill and sister, Reed Charley, Lloyd Stanley, Glenn Terrill, Audley Meyer and Otto Meyer went from Brownboro and the surrounding country. The people who went from the Antelope country were: Miss Welch and sister, Russell Winn, Joe Crane, Paul and George Rose and Arthur Tuttle.

A number of the people went to Eagle Point Friday to get their Mopoco fertilizer, among them being Henry Tonn, R. A. Peck, Henry Meyer, Eddie and Herman Meyer, Jr., Mr. Tyrrel and Charles Klinge.

EAGLE POINT EAGLES

By A. C. Howlett

Mrs. Benj. Brophy was in our town last Sunday.

Fred Pelouze, one of our progressive farmers, was in town after a load of commercial fertilizer. He tried the compound on his alfalfa last season and found that his yield was about doubled. I noticed that quite a number of our farmers are hauling it out to put on the land, and they expect fine crops next year, as the result. While the soil in these parts is generally good, the reader must remember that a great deal of the land has been in cultivation for the past thirty to fifty years, and in many instances no rotation of crops, but instead it would be planted to wheat or oats and the product cut for hay, and then perhaps left to volunteer and again cut for hay, so that about all of the substance of the soil is extracted and nothing put back. And in many instances the old-fashioned farmers would throw the manure out of the stable and let it stand there until it would rot away the side of the building instead of putting some of it back onto the land, and the result is that considerable many of the farms need rest and rebuilding up. But with new men and new ideas that antiquated method is being done away with, and soon our soil will be restored to its original value.

George M. Childreth of Medford, a brother of our blacksmith, came out and spent the day with his brother, W. L., and family.

D. J. Singleton, who is a part owner with his sister and brother in the Singleton farm, was in town Saturday and I think took out a lot of fertilizing compound.

gers of the ninth grade, were out of school helping their parents last week.

Miss Margaret Schell was a pleasant caller at the Butte creek school last Thursday, where her father is teaching.

The ninth grade pupils of the Butte creek school had a debate on the subject of which was the greatest—the Egyptian empire or the Assyrian-Babylonian empire. There are five scholars in the ninth grade; one was judge and the others took sides. The Assyrian-Babylonian empire won.

The dance at the South Butte hall was attended by a large crowd from all over the country, Clay Barker and wife, Dean Terrill and sister, Reed Charley, Lloyd Stanley, Glenn Terrill, Audley Meyer and Otto Meyer went from Brownboro and the surrounding country. The people who went from the Antelope country were: Miss Welch and sister, Russell Winn, Joe Crane, Paul and George Rose and Arthur Tuttle.

A number of the people went to Eagle Point Friday to get their Mopoco fertilizer, among them being Henry Tonn, R. A. Peck, Henry Meyer, Eddie and Herman Meyer, Jr., Mr. Tyrrel and Charles Klinge.

EAGLE POINT EAGLES

By A. C. Howlett

Mrs. Benj. Brophy was in our town last Sunday.

Fred Pelouze, one of our progressive farmers, was in town after a load of commercial fertilizer. He tried the compound on his alfalfa last season and found that his yield was about doubled. I noticed that quite a number of our farmers are hauling it out to put on the land, and they expect fine crops next year, as the result. While the soil in these parts is generally good, the reader must remember that a great deal of the land has been in cultivation for the past thirty to fifty years, and in many instances no rotation of crops, but instead it would be planted to wheat or oats and the product cut for hay, and then perhaps left to volunteer and again cut for hay, so that about all of the substance of the soil is extracted and nothing put back. And in many instances the old-fashioned farmers would throw the manure out of the stable and let it stand there until it would rot away the side of the building instead of putting some of it back onto the land, and the result is that considerable many of the farms need rest and rebuilding up. But with new men and new ideas that antiquated method is being done away with, and soon our soil will be restored to its original value.

George M. Childreth of Medford, a brother of our blacksmith, came out and spent the day with his brother, W. L., and family.

D. J. Singleton, who is a part owner with his sister and brother in the Singleton farm, was in town Saturday and I think took out a lot of fertilizing compound.

E. R. Peterson, one of the rural school supervisors, was a guest with us last Saturday. He has been visiting the schools in the Big Butte country and was on his way to Brownboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Quackenbush were doing business with our merchants Saturday, and so was P. W. Haley, the Butte creek bean raiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Cotterill of the Meadows passed through our burg Sunday on their way to the valley.

Rube Moore has gone to the Antelope country to look after his cattle.

BUTTE CREEK ITEMS

The members of the Butte creek school held an election last Wednesday, November 4, the following amendments carrying: The amendment requiring voters to be citizens of the United States, the amendment for the normal schools at Ashland and Weston, the amendment prohibiting the sale of liquors, the amendment abolishing death penalty, the dentistry bill and the amendment lengthening the term of the county officers. The republican officers received the largest number of votes.

The Lake creek school board, District No. 19, put a Waterbury heating system into their school house last week.

Reed and Claus Charley both members of the ninth grade, were out of school helping their parents last week.

Miss Margaret Schell was a pleasant caller at the Butte creek school last Thursday, where her father is teaching.

The ninth grade pupils of the Butte creek school had a debate on the subject of which was the greatest—the Egyptian empire or the Assyrian-Babylonian empire. There are five scholars in the ninth grade; one was judge and the others took sides. The Assyrian-Babylonian empire won.

The dance at the South Butte hall was attended by a large crowd from all over the country, Clay Barker and wife, Dean Terrill and sister, Reed Charley, Lloyd Stanley, Glenn Terrill, Audley Meyer and Otto Meyer went from Brownboro and the surrounding country. The people who went from the Antelope country were: Miss Welch and sister, Russell Winn, Joe Crane, Paul and George Rose and Arthur Tuttle.

A number of the people went to Eagle Point Friday to get their Mopoco fertilizer, among them being Henry Tonn, R. A. Peck, Henry Meyer, Eddie and Herman Meyer, Jr., Mr. Tyrrel and Charles Klinge.

EAGLE POINT EAGLES

By A. C. Howlett

Mrs. Benj. Brophy was in our town last Sunday.

Fred Pelouze, one of our progressive farmers, was in town after a load of commercial fertilizer. He tried the compound on his alfalfa last season and found that his yield was about doubled. I noticed that quite a number of our farmers are hauling it out to put on the land, and they expect fine crops next year, as the result. While the soil in these parts is generally good, the reader must remember that a great deal of the land has been in cultivation for the past thirty to fifty years, and in many instances no rotation of crops, but instead it would be planted to wheat or oats and the product cut for hay, and then perhaps left to volunteer and again cut for hay, so that about all of the substance of the soil is extracted and nothing put back. And in many instances the old-fashioned farmers would throw the manure out of the stable and let it stand there until it would rot away the side of the building instead of putting some of it back onto the land, and the result is that considerable many of the farms need rest and rebuilding up. But with new men and new ideas that antiquated method is being done away with, and soon our soil will be restored to its original value.

George M. Childreth of Medford, a brother of our blacksmith, came out and spent the day with his brother, W. L., and family.

D. J. Singleton, who is a part owner with his sister and brother in the Singleton farm, was in town Saturday and I think took out a lot of fertilizing compound.

E. R. Peterson, one of the rural school supervisors, was a guest with us last Saturday. He has been visiting the schools in the Big Butte country and was on his way to Brownboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Quackenbush were doing business with our merchants Saturday, and so was P. W. Haley, the Butte creek bean raiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Cotterill of the Meadows passed through our burg Sunday on their way to the valley.

Rube Moore has gone to the Antelope country to look after his cattle.

BUTTE CREEK ITEMS

The members of the Butte creek school held an election last Wednesday, November 4, the following amendments carrying: The amendment requiring voters to be citizens of the United States, the amendment for the normal schools at Ashland and Weston, the amendment prohibiting the sale of liquors, the amendment abolishing death penalty, the dentistry bill and the amendment lengthening the term of the county officers. The republican officers received the largest number of votes.

The Lake creek school board, District No. 19, put a Waterbury heating system into their school house last week.

Reed and Claus Charley both members of the ninth grade, were out of school helping their parents last week.

Miss Margaret Schell was a pleasant caller at the Butte creek school last Thursday, where her father is teaching.

The ninth grade pupils of the Butte creek school had a debate on the subject of which was the greatest—the Egyptian empire or the Assyrian-Babylonian empire. There are five scholars in the ninth grade; one was judge and the others took sides. The Assyrian-Babylonian empire won.

The dance at the South Butte hall was attended by a large crowd from all over the country, Clay Barker and wife, Dean Terrill and sister, Reed Charley, Lloyd Stanley, Glenn Terrill, Audley Meyer and Otto Meyer went from Brownboro and the surrounding country. The people who went from the Antelope country were: Miss Welch and sister, Russell Winn, Joe Crane, Paul and George Rose and Arthur Tuttle.

A number of the people went to Eagle Point Friday to get their Mopoco fertilizer, among them being Henry Tonn, R. A. Peck, Henry Meyer, Eddie and Herman Meyer, Jr., Mr. Tyrrel and Charles Klinge.

EAGLE POINT EAGLES