BRITISH ADMIRAL WHITE WASHED

WEYMOUTH, England, Nov. 12, via London, 12:43 p. m.—Rear Admiral P. O. Troubridge, second in command of the British Mediterranean fleet, was today acquitted by a court martial of neglect in connection with the escape of the former German cruisers Goeben and Breslau.

SHORTAGE OF FUEL IN NORTHERN FRANCE

PARIS, Nov. 12.—The approach of winter and the continued occupation of the mining districts of the north of France and south of Belgium brings up question of fuel supply. Stocks at distributing points not in the hands of Germans are considered insufficient to last more than a month.

CRUISER GOEBEN STRUCK BY SHELL

PETROGRAD, Nov. 12.—A dispatch received here from Constantinople says that the Turkish cruiser Goeben was penetrated by a shell at her water line during the recent bombardment of the Dardanelles, by the allied Anglo-French fleet.

SOCIALISTS PLANNING FOR PEACE CONGRESS

COPENHAGEN, via London, Nov. 12, 8:10 a. m.—It is announced that the socialist peace congress, which meets December 6, will discuss the possibility of making peace overtures. Representatives of all neutral countries have been invited and Copenhagen is believed to be the city where such negotiations, if initiated, will be held.

RETARDING SUFFRAGE

BY voting overwhelmingly in favor of statewide prohibition at the first election at which they were given the ballot, it is probable that the women of Washington and Oregon have done more to check the advance of equal suffrage in the nation than years of agitation against it could have accomplished.

The election demonstrated that the majority of women, of New England ancestry, will vote for statewide prohibition and other puritanical measures if given opportunity, regardless of argument.

The knowledge that the women will so vote, and the proof offered by the northwest, is an effective argument with the personal liberty loving individual against equal suffrage. It will be found the most effective of all arguments with the foreign born or their immediate descendants, who hold the balance of power in a great many eastern states, and will therefore halt the rapid progress made by suffrage in recent years.

While the women of Oregon think they have used their newly acquired power to purify the state, at the same time the result will prove that they have thereby withheld for years the privilege of the ballot from their eastern sisters.

Mail Tribune in Paris

To the Editor: The weekly edition of the Mail Tribune still reaches me, though somewhat irregularly at present. In addition to its local news, which is still and always will be of great interest to me, you may be interested in the fact that although I read every day the Paris editions of the New York Herald and the Daily Mail, as well as the London editions of the Times and one other, differing from day to day, and many copies of the New York papers, Sun or Times, yet invariably I find news of world importance and interest in your paper that I have not found elsewhere.

the Mail Tribune, which no doubt were gladly read by Oregonians—some of whom we have had the pleasure to run across here.

The enclosed clippings may interest you. Also as a touch—the fact that as I write this there is the constant hum of a big French bi-plane with a quick-firing gun mounted, circling above us, which means that word has been received that a German is trying to get above this beautiful city again. But when it is all over even the word of a Prussian king will have to be kept.

Accept my respects and pleasantest remembrances, as well as greetings to all Medford.

Most sincerely, J. R. BARBOUR, 10 Avenue Charles Floquet, Paris, 23 October, 1914.

AMERICAN CRUISERS SAFE AT BEIRUT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The armored cruiser Tennessee in the Mediterranean reported today she had been in wireless communication with the cruiser North Carolina yesterday and that the ship was safe in Beirut harbor.

The message was sent by Captain Benton C. Decker of the Tennessee and reached the United States by relays of wireless and cable. It simply announced the safety of both ships, making no mention of the reported landing of bluejackets from the North Carolina at Beirut.

The Tennessee's report dispels of persistent rumors of the last three days, untraceable to any source, and widely circulated through the country that the North Carolina had been sunk by a mine.

STOLE AMERICAN'S PASSPORT FOR SPY

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Charles A. Inglis, the Chicagoan whose American passport was found on the person of Charles Hans Lody, executed in the tower of London as a German spy, told today how he lost his passport in Berlin. His story implicates the German foreign office and is being investigated by the state department at Washington.

Inglis, who returned to his home here a few days ago after a prolonged sojourn in Europe, was caught in Berlin when the war broke out. He took his passport to the German foreign office to have it approved. He handed it to a clerk, expecting that in due course of routine it would be returned to the American embassy.

It failed to reappear, however, and after considerable delay he got a second document, by means of which he was able to leave Germany.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Logansport, Ind.—"My baby was over a year old and I bloated till I was a burden to myself.

I suffered from female trouble so I could not stand on my feet and I felt like millions of needles were pricking me all over. At last my doctor told me that all that would save me was an operation, but this I refused.

"I hope other suffering women will try your Compound. I will recommend it to all I know."—MRS. DANIEL D. B. DAVIS, 110 Franklin St., Logansport, Ind.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (Confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

ARMENIANS JOIN RUSSIA TO FIGHT AGAINST TURKEY

PETROGRAD, Nov. 12, via London, 2:50 p. m.—Reports reaching the Russian capital from the Turkish border attach increasing importance to the part the Armenians are playing in the Russian-Turkish war.

In several towns occupied by the Russians, Armenian students have shown themselves ready to join the invading army. All along the line of march, according to these dispatches, the Armenian peasants are receiving the Russian troops with enthusiasm.

An Armenian newspaper, referring to this crisis in the history of Armenia, publishes the following: "The long-anticipated day of deliverance for the Turkish Armenians is at hand and the Armenians are prepared for any sacrifice made necessary by the performance of their manifest duty."

From this border country there has come to Petrograd further reports of armed conflicts arising from the refusal of Armenians to become Turkish conscripts and surrender their arms. It is now rumored that the important city of Van is today besieged by Armenian guerilla bands in great force. In Feitun these bands are said to exceed 20,000 in number and they are reported to have defeated all the Turkish troops sent against them, causing the Turks heavy losses.

A wounded Russian cavalry officer who has returned to the capital from Lemberg, in describing the Russian march into Hungary over the Carpathian mountains, said that the Russians, after penetrating to within 100 miles of Budapest, were forced to return to avoid being cut off by Hungarian troops, which had made their way through the western mountain passes.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Queen Mary gladdened the hearts of 200 wounded "Tommys" in the American women's hospital at Paignton, Devonshire, today and a personal gift to each wounded soldier.
