

WALSH SPEAKS TO LABORITES UPON LABOR CONDITIONS

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—Frank P. Walsh of Kansas City, chairman of the federal commission on industrial relations, addressed the delegates of the American Federation of Labor today on the work of the commission which has been investigating industrial conditions throughout the country during the last year.

Mr. Walsh said the first report would be made to congress next month. He stated that the commission has examined 300 employers representing the great industries of the country. Of these, he said only five employers have disagreed with the underlying principle of collective bargaining. Collective bargaining, he said, according to his understanding, was a system devised to prevent the well fed from driving a hard bargain with the hungry men.

The convention was swept by applause when Mr. Walsh exclaimed that no man should be satisfied until he had received the full product of his own toil.

The commission in its travels, he continued, had heard many criticisms of labor unions, and it had also heard of the exploitation of men and women and had made articulate the "stified sob of the exploited child in the maelstrom of modern industry."

In its investigation on the Pacific coast, Mr. Walsh said, the commission heard the cry: "Get back to the land," and it also heard the counter cry, "Get back the land."

The report of the commission, Mr. Walsh said, would hold nothing sacred but the truth.

FEDERATION URGES FEDERAL OPERATION

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—A resolution was presented at today's convention of the American Federation of Labor urging President Wilson to insist that the Colorado mine-owners accept the federal plan for peace and if they fail to comply, that the president take steps to have the coal mines operated under government supervision.

BRITISH ROUND UP ALL GERMANS IN DETENTION CAMPS

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Great Britain's now rigorous round-up of Germans and Austrians within her dominions caused a rush to the home office of those who, by virtue of advanced age, sex or other disqualification for military service, are allowed to go to the fatherland through reciprocal arrangements for a transfer of a like number of British men and women. It is stated that within the last few weeks 2000 German and Austrian women and 1200 men left this country.

At the outbreak of the war many Germans and Austrians deluged the authorities with applications for naturalization papers. The number seeking British citizenship has been placed at 10,000; yet fewer than twenty applications have been granted.

Between 8000 and 10,000 Germans and Austrians are under arrest and in detention camps—all taken from Greater London. Hundreds of others are yet to be arrested. Only this week there was a brief respite in the round up, due to the fact that there were not enough adequate detention camps. The agitation is not over, however; daily the newspapers are urging the authorities to more action.

The exclusive German clubs are under surveillance; buildings built by or known to have been recently occupied by Germans are being watched, and great precautions are being taken to guard the vaults of the stock exchange. There are so many German firms using the strong boxes of the exchange that every member entering the rooms is searched for bombs or other explosives.

A good comedy by George Ade, America's most popular humorist, completes the bill.

SERVIANS CLAIM SWEEPING VICTORY OVER AUSTRIANS

NISH, Servia, Nov. 12, via London 11:57 a. m.—Six battalions of Austrians infantry with quickfiring guns, which crossed the Danube near Szderevo under cover of artillery fire on November 9, have been annihilated by a Servian counter attack, according to official information given out in Nish today.

"All the men were not killed, wounded or drowned in the Danube, fell into our hands," the Servian announcement continued. "We made 2000 prisoners and captured two quickfiring guns."

PARIS, Nov. 12, 5:45 a. m.—A dispatch from Nish, Servia, to the Havas Agency recounts the fighting on the Servian frontier. An Austrian battalion comprising about 6000, crossed the Danube, 30 miles south-east of Belgrade, under cover of the fire of monitors and artillery. The combat that ensued lasted until dark and resulted in a check to the enemy. A thousand Austrians were killed, 2000 were taken prisoners and the others fled on the monitors or scattered among the vines around Semenedria and surrendered in groups. GERMAN SHELL HIT AMERICAN CONSULATE

RHEIMS, France, Nov. 12, via Paris, 11:05 a. m.—A German shell exploded yesterday in the street opposite the American consulate. The front of the building was cut up by the shrapnel bullets, but neither the American shield nor the flag on the consulate was damaged. For six weeks German shells by the thousands have been falling into this quarter of the city, but this is the first time the consulate has been struck.

William Bardell, the consul, left here by direction of Ambassador Herrick three weeks ago and the consulate is empty. So far as is known, there is not a single American in Rheims.

LONDON, Nov. 12, 12:10 p. m.—
