Last Friday evening a pretty "autumn" musical recital was given at St. Mary's academy. Decorations of autumn leaves, chrysanthemums and other fall flowers lent the beauty of out-door autumn days to the music room where the winning charms of childhood and the graceful loveliness of modest girlhood united to merit the admiration of an appreciative audience. Though most of the players were beginners gaining in a first public appearance something of the composure essential to successful work in later years, the playing showed the effect of excellent teaching and thorough responsiveness on the part of the pupils. Three vocal numbers and two violin solos varied the piano numbers most pleasingly. Miss Ruth Campbell's playing of selections from H. Trovatore was of exceptional merit. Miss Katherine Murphy sang Berceuse from Jocelyn in her usual excellent manner and Miss Schuler rendered "Perfect Day" by Mrs. Carrie Jacobs Bond, with good effect. Of a different character but none the less pleasing to the audience was five-year-old Master Robert Clancy's "Goodnight Song." The innocent, confident air of the little singer and the childlike accuracy of gesture were irresistible. He was accompanied at the piano by Winifred Clancy. The academy orchestra played LaCapricieuse by Piarlow very effectively. Perhaps the most beautiful number was the chorus, "Song of the Mermaids," by the Senior Choral Club. Those who took part in the evening's program were: Ione Flynn, Irene Sullivan, Katherine Murphy, Jean Steele, Neva Samuels, Ruth Campbell, Winifred Clancy, Helen Reddy, Lucile Koozts, Helen Herbert, Mabel Scudder, Katherine King, Helen King, Alfredda King, Fern Wing, Gladys Felton, Mary Brown, Mildred Dugan, Helen Dugan, Hortense Thompson, Anna Holzgaug, Robert Clancy, Grace Brier Elizabeth Nichols, Florence Reddy Viola Hogan, Ruth Schuler, Agnes Brier, Lucia King and Rebecca Bacon.

The initial program of the year presented on Monday, November 2, under the efficient and discriminating leadership of Mrs. Irene Hampton Isaacs as chairman of the musical department of the Greater Medford club was a brilliant and worthy beginning for the fine work which this department will undoubtedly accomplish this coming year. The afternoon was in charge of Miss Vanta Hamilton. The program opened with duet by Mossowski with Mrs. Isaacs and Miss Hamilton at the piano. Their rendition of this favorite composition was marked by perfect finish. The second number consisting of two songs by Miss Geraldine Theiss was a most delightful one. Both selections and especially the Italian song "Les Huguenots" displayed Miss Theiss' purity of tones and careful execution. Miss Hamilton's fine production of "The Erl King" was followed by Mr. Walter's number. Too much cannot be said of Mrs. Wilson's contribution to the afternoon's enjoyment. Her reading of Enoch Arlen to the piano accompaniment of Miss Hamilton, was of rare artistic interpretation and of touchingly convincing power. Mrs. Isaacs and Miss Hamilton concluded this excellent program by a brilliant execution of Liszt Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2. With so choice an afternoon as an inspiration, the first Monday of each succeeding month promises to be a red-letter day to the music lovers of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Warner, who have spent the past month in the city, left Wednesday afternoon for their home in Appleton, Wisconsin. Miss Maud Nichols returned home this week from a month's visit in Portland and with her sister in Raymond, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jones of Central Point and Mr. James Brown of Chattanooga, Tenn., were entertained Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Brown. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Snider are enjoying a visit from Mrs. Snider's cousin, Mrs. Metz, of Cincinnati, O. Reginald H. Parsons of Hillcrest orchard has returned from a business trip to Seattle.

The Washington circle of the Parent-Teachers' association of Medford met in the school house, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Collins and all the principals and teachers of our ward school were present by special invitation. The pupils of Miss Clayville's room dressed as Gypsies, gave a beautiful character song. The subject for the afternoon "Departmental Work" was then taken up by Mrs. C. O. Power. Her paper gave the whole subject in a nut-shell and made departmental work plain to every one. Miss Ferguson followed with a most interesting talk on the subject from a teacher's standpoint, showing us how a teacher could prepare herself so much better, and provide herself with the latest books on one or two subjects when she could not on six or eight. So every teacher would become a specialist in the studies she taught and our children would reap the benefits. The discussion was taken up by Mr. Collins, Mr. Kern, Mr. Dally, Mr. Hanby, Miss Hansen, Miss Coffin and Miss Harding. These were all full of interest and helpful to every one present. Altogether it was one of our best meetings, and we wish to thank Mr. Collins and all the principals and teachers for co-operating with us.

Miss Alfredda Garretson entertained with a delightful birthday party yesterday afternoon for her little niece, Miss Thelma McCoy, at the Garretson home at 519 South Central avenue. The dainty manner in which the refreshments were served showed the forethought Miss Garretson had given to the entertainment of her niece's guests. A most enjoyable time was had by those present. The following are included in those present: Misses Eleanor Orth, Dorothy Orth, Gladys Murphy, Gertrude Haskins, Helen Clara Haskins, Margarette Launsbach, Jean Brant, Jean Orr, Nina Blakeley and Parker Bunker. Mrs. Bert Orr, Mrs. Richard Grey and Miss Florence Saver assisted. Miss Garretson.

Mrs. D. W. Driskell of 836 E. Main entertained the members of her Sunday school class, the Standard Bearers, Saturday afternoon. The room was prettily decorated with yellow chrysanthemums. The afternoon was spent in sewing, embroidering and chitchating. Miss Marie Sealey gave a delightful reading, and music also helped to make the afternoon one to remember. Dainty refreshments closed a very enjoyable afternoon. Those present were Misses Caroline Leaders, Marie Sealey, Agnes Robinson, Helen and Lillian Pierce, Mary Hansen and Alice Schleichert.

The Bible Students class of the Christian church of which B. F. Mulkey is teacher, met for a good social time Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Mulkey. The evening was spent in playing games, and a general social good time was enjoyed. A reading given by Mrs. Graham was greatly appreciated. Mr. Mulkey then gave a short talk on the work and help they should aim to give. The class colors, red and gold, were used for decorating. After delightful refreshments all left feeling that they had the most successful class party yet given.

The Rogue River Valley Pennsylvania society met Wednesday, Nov. 12, at the Presbyterian church for their annual "Pox-wow." About 40 members were present. A few short speeches were enjoyed. Every Pennsylvanian brought his basket and a social good time was enjoyed, as well as an excellent lunch. Dr. J. J. Emmons was elected president; H. D. Corlies, vice-president, and Mrs. D. W. Luke, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Emmons and Mrs. Luke were re-elected.

Mrs. W. C. Rice, 713 West Eleventh street, entertained her Sunday school class Friday evening. Games were enjoyed and a jolly good time for all. Mrs. Rice served refreshments, assisted by Miss Carrie Morris. Those present were: Misses Della Whipple, Ethel Whipple, Eunice Brandon, Hazel Kirk, Hazel Dyce, Morilla Dyer, Thelma Dyer, Bessie Allen, Georgia Swan and Fern Dewey. All parents having children in the high school are requested to meet at the high school Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Mrs. Usher will organize a Parent-Teachers' association.

The parents of the Lincoln school children are requested to meet in their school building Friday, November 20, at 3 p. m. to organize a Parent-Teachers' association.

Mrs. J. E. Stewart and Miss Helen Dahl entertained Friday afternoon for Mrs. Barbara Lash of Riddle, who is spending the week end at their home on West Tenth street. After partaking of a delicious luncheon the guests spent the afternoon in visiting and sewing. Those present were: Mesdames W. H. McGowan, A. Duff, W. T. York, B. J. Trowbridge, L. B. Brown, W. H. Stewart, E. N. Campbell, E. M. Wilson, H. B. Patterson and Mrs. Lash. The flowers used in the decorations were yellow and lavender chrysanthemums and laurel. A very delightful afternoon was spent by all who were present.

Mrs. J. E. Stewart entertained at a three-course bridge luncheon on Wednesday afternoon for Mesdames A. L. Loomis, F. G. Thayer, Jap Andrews, W. T. York, G. T. Collins, H. A. Thieroff, William Budge, M. E. Smith, M. Purdin, John Barneburg, H. P. Hargrave and Miss Gertrude Weeks. Mrs. Thayer had the highest score and Mrs. Budge won the next highest. The laurel was beautifully decorated in laurel and chrysanthemums.

The meeting of the social hygiene department of the Greater Medford club, Mrs. Hens Holmes, chairman, met at the library Monday afternoon. The subject was "Amusements." Mrs. Mears gave a talk in which among other things the subject of moving pictures was brought up. Several different ones spoke of the need of pictures, which should be of a high moral tone, as well as pleasing and instructive for the children. It was decided to ask the Parent-Teachers' circle and the Wednesday Study club to get in conjunction with the Greater Medford club, in the form of a committee of three, to see the manager of the Page and ask him to produce a picture show of the kind wanted, once a month. Mrs. Horn then gave a paper on "Play for the High School Boy." The idea was brought out that football should not be discouraged and that the parents should attend the games more often. An enjoyable discussion followed.

Monday evening, November 16, the local K. of P. lodge will entertain their members and visiting brothers. A committee has been appointed that is busy preparing a program of music and special stunts which they claim will eclipse all former efforts. A feed with unique menu is promised by one who is being held under heavy bonds for the fulfillment of his promise to furnish something "rich, rare and rare." The Knights of Talisman lodge recently renewed Medford's claim to publicity on the map by presenting five boxes of choice apples to the delegates assembled in grand lodge at Portland.

The economics department of the Greater Medford club will meet next Monday afternoon, November 16, at 3 o'clock, at the library. Subject: "The Educational Value of Pictures." Mrs. Harry Lindsay, an artist of repute, has kindly consented to display her paintings. There will also be a short musical program as follows: Piano solo, Mrs. E. V. Coffin; vocal solo, Mrs. H. A. Thieroff. Following the program, refreshments will be served. Every one is invited.

The Pythian Sisters will hold their regular monthly social next Wednesday evening at the K. of P. hall. The committee in charge are: Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McKee, Mrs. John Butler, Mrs. I. L. Hamilton, Miss Venita Hamilton, Miss Sadie Van Dyke, Mrs. W. H. McGowan and Harry Ling.

Next Tuesday the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will meet in the chapel of the church for an all-day session to work for their Christmas sale, which will be held the first week in December. Lunch will be served at noon.

Miss Dora Sullivan left Tuesday morning for the north on a visit of several weeks. She will visit at Seattle, Spokane and Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, before returning.

Mrs. B. D. Smith returned home Monday afternoon from Rogue River where she has been spending a few days visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Holmes of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Miner, who lived in Medford some three years ago, have returned and expect to locate here permanently.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church met in the chapel of the church last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Gore was hostess.

The Wednesday Study club will meet at the public library next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Last Thursday afternoon St. Mark's Guild held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Wm. Budge. At the previous meeting Mrs. Henkel had resigned her office as treasurer of the Guild and at this meeting Mrs. Roger Bennett was elected to fill the vacant office. Plans for the Merchants' Association dinner to be given by the ladies of St. Mark's on Monday night, November 16, and for the bazaar and chicken dinner later in the week were discussed and perfected. At the close of the business meeting a pleasant social hour was enjoyed and dainty refreshments served by the committee in charge. Father and son then in a few well chosen words expressed the sincere regrets of the entire Guild that Mrs. Henkel is leaving Medford, and as a token of appreciation of her active interest in the church, he presented her in the name of the Guild with a pretty souvenir.

The Women's College club held their third meeting of the year, this afternoon, at Phoenix, at the home of Mrs. Malmgren. The topic of the day "New Ideas in Education" was well presented by Mrs. O. L. Davidson. The great progress made along educational lines was well outlined by Miss Coryell and Mrs. Peebles. The departmental work, which is now being used successfully in many of the grammar schools, was only one of the many new ideas in education, that was presented and discussed by every member present.

The discussion was followed by refreshments. The following committee was in charge: Chairman, Mrs. Torney; Mesdames Bennett, Milton Jones, Neff, Arnsperger, Misses Carpenter and Heard. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Miss Ethel Guthrie, one of the 1913 graduates of the Medford high school, and is this year attending school at the Los Angeles Normal, has just been elected to the editorial staff of the school paper, which is quite an honor for a freshman. Miss Guthrie is taking the full normal course as well as the music course this year.

Mrs. Wilbur Jones left Tuesday morning for her new home in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Jones was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. E. J. Taylor who will spend the winter in Klamath Falls.

The Young Ladies' Sodality will entertain with a dance at the Parish hall, South Oakdale, Friday evening, November 20, Hazelrigg music.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Carpenter entertained at bridge Tuesday night in honor of Alfred and Leonard Carpenter.

Mrs. Streets entertained the Bridge club Friday afternoon.

Salomy Jane at the Page theatre this afternoon and tonight. Also Boyle and Ogle's old time one-ering circus, a big dog and pony show.

The horse, King Pharoah, proved to be a source of wonder to every one. This horse has been shown in Madison Square garden and many other places throughout the United States and examined by scientists from all over the country, and all who have seen him marvel at his ability to add, subtract, multiply and divide. Any one in the audience is at liberty to test the wonderful powers of this horse. This program will be repeated this afternoon and tonight.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday at 9 a. m. in all day session to work for the Christmas sale, which will be held Friday and Saturday, Dec. 4 and 5.

Mrs. George Millar and son have returned from an extended visit with friends and relatives in Canton, Ohio.

Dinner at St. Mark's. Saturday evening, November 21, St. Mark's Guild will give another of its popular chicken dinner. The dinner will be served from 5 to 8 in St. Mark's hall. The following is the menu:

- Baked Salmon
 - Smothered Chicken
 - Mashed Potatoes
 - Diced Beets
 - Hot Biscuits
 - Jelly
 - Coffee

DR. ANNA SHAW AGAIN ELECTED AS SUFFRAGISTS' CHIEF

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 14.—Delegates to the convention here of the National Woman Suffrage association began their activities today with a primary for the nomination of officers. Petitions of candidates were filed with the elections committee last night, but under the rules nominations may also be made direct in the primary. On the lists filed with the committee, Dr. Anna Howard Shaw of New York had no opposition for re-election as president.

A petition promulgated by members of the anti-administration element a few days ago and asking Dr. Shaw to accept the position of president emeritus of the association was being circulated. The result of the primary will be made known tonight. Miss Kate M. Gordon of New Orleans, in presenting to the convention greetings from the southern states woman suffrage conference today declared southern women were inclined to hold to the states' rights idea in their efforts to gain the ballot.

She asserted her belief that if the democratic party could be induced to insert a suffrage plank in its next national platform "votes for women" soon would be an accomplished fact in the south.

FINAL REVISION OF CHARTER MADE

The provisions on bonds, contracts and assessments received their final revision by the charter commission at its meeting last night. Another meeting will be held Monday next. The statement that the committee had just completed the "first draft" might be misleading. Each section of the charter was first drafted by the members to whom assigned, brought before the committee for discussion and correction, re-written and again brought before the committee for further discussion and improvement, and again re-written for the present complete draft, which is receiving a final close scrutiny.

WOMAN IN BAD CONDITION

Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Montpelier, Vt.—"We have great faith in your remedies. I was very irregular and was tired and sleepy all the time, would have cold chills, and my hands and feet would blot. My stomach bothered me, I had pain in my side and a bad headache most of the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me lots of good and I now feel fine. I am regular, my stomach is better and my pains have all left me. You can use my name if you like. I am proud of what your remedies have done for me."—Mrs. MARY GAUTHIER, 21 Ridge St., Montpelier, Vt.

An Honest Dependable Medicine. It must be admitted by every fair-minded, intelligent person, that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for nearly forty years, and to-day hold a record for thousands upon thousands of actual cures, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, without possessing great virtue and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon and termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Electric Signs

Every merchant owes it to his city and to his street and to his business to hang out an electric sign.

It stands for more and better business and up-to-date business methods.

It has no place for hard time talk.

It dodges no issues, but talks business from morning until morning.

It stands in the open, has nothing to conceal.

It is as essential as voting to put good men in office.

It is as essential as careful buying of merchandise, for if the merchandise isn't moved off the shelves it is a loss at whatever the purchase price.

It rounds out store front publicity.

Our flat rate for electric signs or window lights is the cheapest and best advertising.

One of the largest electric signs in Medford is being operated every day from sundown to 11 o'clock
