

BLAMES ALL ILLS TO BLACK ART; THREATENS DOCTOR

John A. McKinney was taken into custody by the Medford police last night on a complaint by Dr. Barber, charging him with being a person of unsound mind. McKinney had written two long and rambling letters to Dr. Barber in which he propounded a number of questions and issued challenges to well known medical men and judges of California and Oregon, charging them with throttling insane patients to death and other violent crimes.

McKinney's aberration seems to be on the subject of black art, necromancy and mental telepathy. By profession he is a lather and carried in his hip pocket a small, sharp lather's hatchet, a circumstance that contributed not a little to the uneasiness of the victims of his imaginary controversy.

McKinney in a letter to the Mail Tribune declared the evil thoughts of physicians, opticians and specialists kept mankind in bondage, due to a black art taught since the days of Ancient Egypt and transmitted as a secret of the medical profession.

RIGGS ASKS $27,000 FOR LOSS OF ARM

M. M. (Twoey) Riggs has commenced action through his attorney, B. F. Jones, of Roseburg, against the Southern Pacific railroad company for damages resulting from the accident at Medford in the fall of 1912 when Riggs lost an arm while acting as brakeman for the company. The demand made upon the company is for $27,000, $2,000 of which is for loss of time from the time of the accident, and $25,000 for the permanent damage caused by the loss of the arm.

Riggs was braking on the freight train of the defendant company in the fall of 1912 and the complaint sets forth that in cutting the train at the main crossing in Medford the head brakeman caused the train to be moved while he, Riggs, was in the act of uncoupling the cars, and that the crushing of the arm was thus caused by the negligent act of the company's employe.

The accident was witnessed by a great crowd, who helped rescue the injured man by pushing the train back by hand.

ASHLAND FORGER AGAIN IN PRISON

SALM, Ore., Nov. 24.—Preferring life behind prison bars to wedded bliss, Cecil Townsend, sentenced to the penitentiary from Ashland, but recently paroled, is again in the institution, and it seems likely that he will spend 18 years behind its walls, for Governor West announced today that he would recommend to Governor-elect Withycombe that the latter extend no clemency to Townsend.

Townsend was sentenced to a term of from two to 20 years for forgery committed in Jackson county and several months ago, when his minimum sentence expired, he was paroled. Pending his parole he wronged a young woman, and discovering it Governor West and the penitentiary officials compelled him to marry her and allowed him his liberty on condition that he would live with her and provide her with a home. Married life, however, did not appeal to him, for on the night of the wedding day he deserted his bride. Recently he was captured in Portland, and returned to the penitentiary, and if the governor has his way he will remain in prison during the balance of his term.

CANNERY NEEDS INCREASED AREA IN LOGAN BERRIES

Interest in irrigation and the plans for the establishment of an irrigation district are meeting with high favor throughout the valley, though the usual squad of pessimistic souls in deathly fear of taxes have begun to yell in undertones. The loss this season through lack of water eclipses the taxes for the past quarter of a century.

R. D. Hoke, manager of the co-operative cannery, whose success this season under unfavorable conditions is a criterion of what can be accomplished, with a little assistance to nature, said this morning that the success of the irrigation plans meant an additional $100 produced on every acre in the valley. He said his cannery would handle all the by-products raised. Mr. Hoke will soon start work on securing acreage for Logan berries and is trying to induce farmers to plant this berry for canning purposes.

In the middle west there is a constant demand for loganberries, both in bulk and canned, never supplied, because small growers lack the energy to raise them in paying quantities.

Men Pay Homage to Mother's Friend

"I am not surprised to observe the number of men who come into the store to purchase 'Mother's Friend,'" remarked a leading druggist. It is a happy thought to send a "Mother's Friend" to the mother of a soldier, sailor or aviator. It is applied externally over the abdominal muscles. It is a gentle, soothing lubricant, penetrates to the finetwork of nerves beneath the skin and has a marked tendency to relieve the muscular strain to which these broad, flat abdominal muscles are subjected. The cords, tendons and ligaments are thus permitted to stretch without the corresponding surface strain so often involved during the period of expectation. This in part accounts for the entire absence, in many cases reported, of nausea, morning sickness and other distresses, such as laceration of the epidermis so often the case when the crude form of lubrication is neglected. "Mother's Friend" has been highly recommended by a host of women who know from experience and by men who know from observation. Write Bradfield Regulator Co., 308 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and we will send you a valuable little book to expectant mothers.
