

SPECIFIC GRAVITY OF WESTERN WOODS SHOW SHIPPING TIME

The local office of the United States forest service gives out the following:

As a result of tests made by the forest service on western woods, the specific gravity based on air dry volume and the oven dry weight per cubic foot have been determined. It should be understood, however, that the figures given are average, for the climatic conditions, kind of timber and other factors enter into the question.

Table with 2 columns: Species, Specific gravity. Includes Douglas fir, Western hemlock, Amabilis fir, White fir, Grand fir, Sugar pine, Western yellow pine, Redwood, Sitka spruce.

Tests on Douglas fir show that the best time to ship the wood, if one would decrease his freight bill, is the summer. Green Douglas fir weighs 34 pounds to the cubic foot, in winter even when air dry it will weigh 34 pounds, and in summer 32 pounds.

If you wish to find the oven dry weight of 1000 board feet of any wood multiply the weight per cubic foot by 83.3.

FRENCH ATTACK REPULSED STATES BERLIN REPORT

BERLIN, Dec. 10, (by wireless).—Today's official communication issued by the German army headquarters staff asserts that a French attack resumed in the forest of Argonne was repulsed, the allied forces losing heavily.

In the district of Souain the French yesterday confined themselves to heavy artillery firing.

A renewed French attack on Rorot and Courcelles did not make any progress. The attack broke down under the fire of our artillery, the enemy suffering heavy loss.

Yesterday three of the enemy's aviators dropped about ten bombs on a town situated outside the range of operations, the town of Freiburg (Baden). No damage was done.

The incident merely shows again that an open town not situated within the range of operations has been attacked with bombs by the enemy.

To the east of Mazurian Lakes (East Prussia) only artillery encounters are taking place.

In Northern Poland our columns advancing on the right bank of the Weichsel (Vistula) took Prasanyz by storm.

Six hundred prisoners and some machine guns were captured. The attack along the river Weichsel is being continued.

In Southern Poland the Russian attacks were repulsed.

CZECH MUTINY REPORTED INSERVIA

GENEVA, via Paris, Dec. 10, 4:49 a. m.—The correspondent of the Journal de Geneve at Prague states that confirmation has been received there that Czech regiments No. 28, from Prague, No. 108 from Brusau, No. 11 from Paszika and the Eighth Landwehr of Prague, serving against Serbia, revolted on the battlefield.

RUSSIANS CLAIM NIGHT ATTACK OF GERMANS REPULSED

PETROGRAD, Dec. 10.—An official communication issued by the general staff tonight gives the progress of the fighting in the various fields. It says:

In the region of Mlava, December, the conflict assumed a less tenacious character.

On the left bank of the Vistula, on the evening of December 7, the Germans under cover of darkness suddenly began an offensive movement simultaneously along the entire front from How (west of Warsaw) to Glowno (southwest of Warsaw).

The movement was remarkable for its stubborn nature. The attack was repeated again and again, the Germans advancing in compact columns.

Aided by searchlights, however, our fire decimated the enemy, who was everywhere repulsed. With the rising of the moon the attacks of the enemy ceased.

The next day the desperate fighting on the Lowicz-How front was resumed, but without success, for the enemy.

In the Piotrkow region the situation is unchanged.

The fighting south of Cracow has continued tenaciously, presenting alternately offensive and defensive movements. The Germans twice attempted to break through our fronts, but were repulsed with serious losses.

On the Black sea on December 8 the whereabouts of the enemy's vessels was not revealed.
