

NEWS FROM COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS. By A. C. Howlett.

Frank Farlow and John Miller of Lake Creek were in town last Tuesday after two loads of wire fencing. Mr. Farlow has a wife of fence to make and Mr. Miller has three-eighths of a mile to make, so that they can utilize their land, and when they want to keep their stock where they can see them whenever they desire to do so.

George and Charles F. Shaffer, cousins of Fort Pease, recently from Kansas, came up from Ashland the first of the week to meet Bert and his wife, who have just come in from their station in the hills. Mr. Pease is one of the forest rangers and came in with his wife to make a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Daley, and the same day that they came in Mrs. Daley's sister, Mrs. Sophia Robinson, and her son, Clarence, came in from Oregon City, so they had a kind of a family reunion, and all unexpected, for Mrs. Daley was not looking for them.

Scott Caspell of Butte Falls was here the first of the week having some blacksmith work done.

Clyde Plymire of Medford, who has been spending some time in the hills with his stepfather, Charles Wilkinson, at the Dead Indian soda springs, came out last Tuesday and stopped at the Sunnyside for dinner, and while here showed us some photos of some bears that he and Mr. Wilkinson had caught in traps. One of them was so large that they did not wait to play with him, as the trap did not have a very good hold on him. The bear seemed to be quite plentiful in that section.

A family by the name of Edwards came in from Fort Klamath some time ago and stopped in our town, but last week they started for Colorado, where some of his relatives live. They seemed to be nice people, and some of us would like to have had them remain with us, but such is life in the west. "We do move."

Our election passed off very quietly last Tuesday. There were but four candidates, and but little interest taken in it. Although there were some scattering votes, the result was that Frank Brown, one of our merchants, was re-elected, and the new members are Norman McQuoid and George Phillips.

During the past week there has been a petition circulated to have Thomas Gungo appointed a road supervisor of this district, with the understanding that the present incumbent, Ed Dutton, did not want the place again, but now Ed comes around and says that he never thought but that he would hold the place, as he has given such general satisfaction, so we may expect to have something doing when the county court meets. There may be another petition out for Ed, as there seems to be considerable dissatisfaction over the way the thing has been worked.

Last Thursday night the Rebekahs Lodge had a poverty party, and none but the members of the lodge were admitted, and so I have to get my information the best way I can, but from what I can learn, they had a high old time, and some of the costumes would put an ordinary street beggar to shame. Mrs. Marian Jones took the premium as being the best-dressed lady (worst, I mean), for I heard a lady remark that she had on every rag that she could get on, and her shoes and stockings corresponded with her dress, and John Foster won the prize among the men, so the reader may well know that he was dressed some.

W. M. McEane, recently from Lassen county, California, has taken a room at the Sunnyside. He gives a glowing description of a night view of the volcano that is now active in Mount Lassen, describing it as throwing the melted lava or fire 2000 feet high and the smoke settling down so thick that it made everything as black as night, but he says that it has to be seen to really appreciate the scenery.

Miss Anna Kelleher of Medford and Miss Obara Natwick came out on the P. & E. train Thursday morning and Miss Kelleher was met at the train by our postmistress, Mrs. C. W. Clements.

Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Clements and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. McIntyre gave a dance and lunch in the Eagle Point opera house, and those who attended report having had one of the times of their lives. W. E. Hammel, one of our prosperous farmers and stockmen, was one of the party, and he reports that they had a very nice company, and of course a fine lunch.

Seven Bergquist, who has a farm in the Rogue river bottoms, and two strange young men were here for dinner Thursday.

J. A. Howard, who has a homestead on the free ferry road, came out from Medford Thursday evening on the P. & E.

JACKSONVILLE ITEMS

George Carter, formerly deputy sheriff, was a Jacksonville caller the first of the week. He is now located at Talent.

Mrs. Kate Watson and Miss Ella Murphy, who conducted a millinery store here, have gone to San Jose, Cal., for the winter.

Mrs. F. J. Fick was a Medford visitor Wednesday afternoon.

Jacksonville was quite busy socially this week, Mrs. R. Hackett entertaining on Wednesday. Mrs. B. M. Collins and Miss Nellie McIntyre on Thursday and Mrs. Worden Ennis on Friday.

The bazaar held by the ladies' auxiliary last Saturday afternoon and evening was a decided success, netting the ladies about $59.

Mrs. C. Reuter left for The Dalles the first of the week, where she will spend the holidays with her children.

A large delegation from here attended the society yachting at Medford Monday evening and were well pleased with the show.

W. P. Bailey has been removed from the Sacred Heart hospital and is rapidly improving.

E. Mahoney gave another of his popular dances Friday evening, which was well attended.

Leslie Stansell and family have moved into the Kubli house, on Main street.

The school and all the churches have united and will hold a "community Christmas tree" at the school house Christmas eve, at which every child will be remembered. A cantata will be given by the children, entitled, "Santa Claus and Others," besides several musical numbers. Everybody welcome.

Herman Offenbacher and James O'Brien, two well-known Applegate farmers, were trading with our merchants Thursday.

Mrs. Mabel McClure and son left for Grants Pass this evening to spend the week end with relatives.

Thomas Fulton will leave for Montague, Cal., next week, where he has accepted a position in a newspaper office.

ROGUE RIVER ITEMS.

(From the Argus) J. B. Ellis made a business trip to Medford Tuesday.

Ed Woodcock attended the big stock sale near Tolo Tuesday.

Rev. and Mrs. Spencer spent a few hours in the city down the river on Tuesday.

Mrs. Sam Sandry and children spent Saturday at the Chisholm home in Gold Hill.

Wm. Fowler and wife took in the sight while on a shopping trip to Medford Tuesday.

W. W. Williams and wife of Evans valley made a trip to points up the river Saturday.

Mrs. John Smuch and Miss Alva Scott were visitors for several hours in the Pass Saturday.

Mrs. McQuat and son were in from Footh Creek Saturday and spent the day in Grants Pass.

E. E. Bagley shipped a car of corn last week. This is probably the first car of corn ever shipped from Rogue River.

Rev. Wm. M. Carle has moved his family from Central Point to the McCord place on Footh creek. His two daughters will attend school in this city.

Earl Whipple was home from Medford last week and after his return he was laid up for a few days with a sore heel which almost developed a case of blood poison.

L. A. Martin made a business trip to Medford last Thursday and yesterday a couple of electric linemen connected his house up for electric lights. Mr. Martin will have one of the beauty spots on Evans creek in a year or two.

Mrs. J. W. Clark was down from Gold Hill the last of the week for a few hours visit with her mother.

Grain is growing too much around here this year. E. E. Bagley had to put a mower on to some of his wheat which was about two foot high and looking badly.

Mrs. Wm. Fowler and Master Kenneth Robinson visited friends in Gold Hill Thursday.

Judge Tou Velle, Engineer Gerig and County Commissioner Joe Smith were here Tuesday and inspected the new Evans creek bridge and were well pleased.

Miss Myrtle Evans of Portland, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Grant Wertz, went to Birdseye creek yesterday to visit the Corderdale family.

Fritz Eisman went to the Pass Saturday. Mr. Eisman feels that he is like a fifth wheel on the old ranch so he will move his family to the Pass in the near future.

RUSSIA'S REFUSAL KILLS XMAS TRUCE

ROME, Dec. 12, 1:50 p. m.—The vatican authorities today made public a document setting forth the efforts made by the Pope to obtain a truce in the European war during the Christmas season. The efforts of the pontiff unfortunately failed, according to the vatican announcement "owing to the opposition of a certain power."

EUGENE LAURANT, MAGICIAN. Eugene Laurant is one of the most notable magicians of whom this country has ever boasted. At the meeting held in New York in 1912, attended by 300 magicians, he was decorated with a medal, and later at the meeting of Chicago magicians he received another gold medal.

Laurant presents many original creations in both magic and illusions. He carries two assistants and, of course, a large amount of baggage. Laurant's program is divided into three parts, and the actual entertainment runs as nearly as possible two hours. The intermissions are not long, and the planter fills these with bright music. The first feature is a flower pretude. This is not a little single flower trick such as many magicians offer, but consists of over thirty-five separate and distinct flower effects, blended into one pretty little act, and is used only as an introduction to the show proper.

Following this prelude Mr. Laurant introduces his latest features of sleight of hand, etc., occupying about thirty minutes. At this point a new novelty is offered in his new French trick, entitled "The Mystic Le Chapeau." "The Soldier, the Priest and the Devil," has been especially built to replace his great mystery, "The Witch of the Flame." It is entirely different in every way. "The Soldier, the Priest and the Devil" is a combination of effects, during which Laurant assumes three characters at almost one and the same time. An escape is made in full view, and instantly an appearance is made in the person of "the devil."

At Natatorium December 17. Medford Entertainment Course.
