

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Medford Camp of the Woodmen will hold a special session at their lodge rooms, Wednesday night, Dec. 23. Special business will be transacted followed by a social session.

A complete line of Christmas cards, booklets at the West Side Pharmacy. 125*

Bon Collins of Jacksonville is a business visitor in the city today. Will move our office to 23 Fir street, North, next to Mall Tribune, on or about Jan. 1st. Pantorium Dye Works. 234*

Coroner A. E. Kellogg of Gold Hill is in the city today conducting the inquest into the shooting of Game Warden A. S. Hubbard near Trail last Thursday. 235*

Your things are wonderfully well selected" said a customer. Handicraft Shop. 235*

Joe H. Wilson of Talent was a business visitor in the city Saturday returning to his home Sunday. Whitman & Liggett's candy for Christmas presents at West Side Pharmacy. 125*

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pelouze of Eagle Point spent the end of the week in the city visiting friends and attending to business matters. Rom and board at 145 South Ivy. Mrs. C. L. Grant. 243

Vernon Garret of this city, a student at the U. of O. at Eugene, is confined to his frat house at Eugene with the mumps and will be unable to spend Christmas at home. He was right end on the football team last fall, being the first Medfordite to make the Oregon eleven. Mr. Garret is a junior of the university. Baby things a specialty. Handicraft Shop. 235*

Miss Irene Sullivan, a student at the U. of O. returned home Saturday to spend the Christmas vacation. Upper Crust, best hard wheat flour made. At Brownlee & Lindley, phone 927. 236*

Mrs. Raymond and her daughter Martha and Mrs. Whitman will leave Tuesday for Seattle to spend Christmas. Christmas perfumes and toilet articles at the West Side Pharmacy. 125*

S. A. Glidden of the Medford Concrete Construction company left Sunday for Chicago to spend the holidays with his father. Why walk when you can ride for 15c to any part of the city. Ford Taxi. Call Alco 882R.

An old soldier by the name of J. King, was ordered to the poor farm last week, by County Judge Tou Velle. The Civil war hero was ill and had no place to go. King draws a quarterly pension of $25, and was sent to the county hospital to rest up and recuperate. He is suffering from a severe cold brought on by exposure.

Hand embroidered handkerchiefs, 25c. Handicraft Shop. 235*

Eric Anderson returned to his home in the Blue Ledge district Saturday. He reports that ten feet of snow covers the ground at the mine. The weather in that district has been unusually severe.

Kodak finishing the best, at Weston's Camera Shop, Over Isis Theater. 235*

James Douglas of Albany is among the out of town visitors in the city this week. We have not studied salesmanship and know nothing about it. We simply assist you to buy. Handicraft Shop. 235*

Alex Budge of San Francisco will arrive this week to spend the Christmas vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Budge of this city. Get it at De Voe's. M. M. Baker of Klamath Falls is a business visitor in the city this week.

"Insurance" means "Holmes" and "Holmes" means "Insurance." See Holmes "The Insurance Man." The Alumni of the Medford high school will hold a meeting at the Medford Hotel this evening to perfect plans for the dance to be given in honor of returning students from colleges in this state and California. Cape Cod bay berry candles. Handicraft Shop. 235*

Arthur Alder of Griffin creek spent Saturday and Sunday visiting in this city. The finest equipment in Oregon for printing fruit labels. Medford Printing Co. Mrs. D. H. Semon and daughter, Miss Kate Semon, of Seattle, arrived in Medford a few days ago for a visit to C. J. Semon and family. They may decide to make their home in Medford.

Sweet cider at De Voe's. Mrs. Arthur Jackson of Grants Pass spent Sunday with Medford friends. We invite men to shop here. Handicraft Shop. 235*

F. M. Mings of Boise, Idaho, who was formerly a resident of Jackson county, was in Medford over Sunday visiting old time friends. The man who eats apples has little time to drink. Bagley's apple juice should be more widely known. 236*

Mrs. J. E. McCain of Agate and her baby son have returned to their home from the Dow hospital. Mrs. McCain has made a rapid recovery from the Caesarian operation performed upon her by Dr. M. M. Dow two weeks ago.

J. O. Gerking, the best all around photographer in southern Oregon. Always reliable. Negatives made anywhere, time or place. Studio 225 Main St. Phone 226-J.

Mrs. Henry Anning, Louis N. Firestone, John Carney and Mrs. Florence Lonsdale who have been operated upon at the Dow hospital are convalescing. Carefully selected Xmas cards and booklets. Handicraft Shop. 235*

Mrs. Horace Pelton and Mrs. O. C. Letter, her house guest, motored from the Pelton ranch early in the week to take part in the Society vaudeville which was shown in Ashland Tuesday evening. Mrs. Letter will be remembered as having played the role of the widow. She also originated the Spaghetti Sisters, which was danced by Miss Root and Mrs. Letter.

The Page, The Master Key. The new charter will be explained by one of the members of the charter committee, at an open meeting of the Methodist Episcopal church Monday (tonight) at 7:30. Its friends and opponents are invited to ask questions and to enter the discussion. All citizens interested are urged to be present.

The Page, The Master Key. Court Hall has sold Joshua Patterson, former county commissioner, the first eight cylinder 1915 Cadillac in Jackson county. Mr. Patterson will make it a Christmas gift to his son. Get McBride's prices before buying holiday candles. 235*

Court Hall has returned from a business trip to Portland and reports the new 1915 8-cylinder Cadillac the automobile sensation of the hour. Try a quart of our guaranteed pure sanitary milk. Phone 582-W. 250

While Dr. J. Lawrence Hill of the Associated Charities was distributing Christmas dinners to the poor Saturday someone stole a turkey and a chicken from his auto. Both were intended for deserving families. F. S. Bramwell of the Amalgamated Sugar company, will arrive Tuesday to hold a conference with local committees concerning the proposed beet sugar factory. Call at McBride's and get prices on fresh made candies for the holidays. 235*

F. G. McWilliams, the Ashland realty broker and miner, was a Medford visitor Monday. The Page, The Master Key. Attorney F. D. Newman has returned from Ocean Park, Wash., where he attended the funeral of his father, Dr. D. B. Newman. McBride has a fine line of fancy boxes for your Christmas candles. 235*

The Elks' temple will be christened New Year's eve with a watch party. Fifteen men are working on the structure putting on the finishing touches. Kodak finishing and supplies at Weston's Camera Shop, Over Isis Theater. Saturday was a lively day, the biggest crowd in months being on the streets doing Christmas shopping, including many from the country. Today another big crowd is in the city, and the stores are handling good crowds of buyers. The mail this morning and Sunday contained many Christmas packages from the East. The auto delivery service will probably be put on by the post office tomorrow.

Don't wait until Christmas to buy your Christmas candies and then take what's left, buy the best today at McBride's. 235*

Mrs. Louis Ulrich of Jacksonville spent Saturday afternoon in Medford visiting friends. DeVoe is going to sell 500 pounds of chocolate creams at thirty cents per pound. Get a pound today. If

Harry Porter and wife of Gold Hill spent Sunday in Medford visiting friends and relatives. Deputy District Game Warden Sam Sandry of Rogue River is a business visitor in the city today. Residents of the western part of the city report that the last week their chicken coops have been entered, and the thefts are blamed on tramps.

Order your Christmas wreaths now from Pierce, the florist, real English holly used in wreaths, also cut flowers. Order early and avoid disappointment. Pierce, the florist, phone 374. Sprague Reigel of Gold Hill spent Sunday in Medford visiting friends. Half a hundred people filed their application for help with the Associated Charity last week and before assistance was given an investigation was made. Some of the cases were highly worthy, and some were not. In some instances, alms were sought through the ruling passion, "get something for nothing." Still in others, it was found the wife assiduously washing other people's clothes, while the husband absorbed heat and discussed the European war in pool halls and cigar stores.

A "silver freeze" was experienced in the valley Sunday night after the light snowfall of Saturday afternoon, frost covering telephone wires, windows and other objects. The mercury dropped to 15° above Sunday night, the coldest of the season, the previous low record being 17 degrees above. The sun is shining brightly today, and the snow is melting slowly, in a cold nippy air. It is possible this year will be a white Christmas. The pavements were a glare of ice, and horses wore chains. Glenn Noe and wife of Portland are spending the holiday season visiting friends and relatives in this section.

The Medford high school basketball team defeated Central Point Saturday night at the Nat. 28 to 19, in one of the poorest games ever presented to the fans of this city. Pelouze starred for the home guard, and Ross for the visitors. Keney dressed turkeys, booth 4, Public Market. 233

J. S. Howard, father of Medford and wife are celebrating their golden wedding anniversary today in a quiet manner. They have been married 50 years. There will be a family observance of the day, and many telephoned their congratulations to the happy couple. Mr. Howard attended to his usual duties down town, and was as merry and gay as a new broom.

Irene Boardman, age six years, was run down by F. I. Vincent on a motorcycle at the Nash Hotel corner this afternoon, escaping with no injuries. She was able to walk to her home. The little girl became confused in making the crossing, and stepped into the motorcycle as it was being driven behind her. During the day many horses fell on the pavements in the business district owing to the coating of ice.

Judge Weatherford, Senator Vander Hellen, and A. L. Spence, members of the board of regents of O. A. C., are meeting with the county court this afternoon in Attorney A. E. Roames' office, considering the transfer back to the county of the land used by the experiment station, and the securing of a new site for the station. The county needs the land for the garden purposes.

THAW ORDERED TO NEW YORK (Continued from page 1.) court, carrying out its decision, is not issued until thirty days from today, unless the attorneys for both sides join in requesting an earlier issue of the order. Legal authorities who have followed the case point out today that New York, with its custody of Thaw secure, might now direct his immediate trial for conspiracy or might annul the indictment and return the prisoner to Matteawan, or it might return him to the asylum in disregard of the indictment.

Portland Commercial club and chamber of commerce want to consolidate.

HAS JACKSONVILLE FOUND THE SAME?

The Answer is Found in the Straight-forward Statement of a Jacksonville Resident.

We have been reading week after week in the local press of Medford citizens who have been rid of distressing kidney and bladder troubles by Doan's Kidney Pills, and we have often wondered whether the same high opinion of this medicine is to be found in our neighboring towns. This frank and earnest statement by a well-known and respected resident of Jacksonville will set this doubt at rest.

Andrew Cantrall, California St., Jacksonville, Oregon, says: "When I was suffering from backache and other kidney ailments, Doan's Kidney Pills came to my aid and stopped the troubles. The public endorsement I gave them several years ago still holds good."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Cantrall had. Foster-McBarn Co., Props. Buffalo, N. Y. Adv.

Advertisement for Martin J. Reddy Jeweler. Features a central illustration of Santa Claus surrounded by various jewelry items like rings, watches, and brooches. Text includes 'Christmas Suggestions', 'Visit This Store When Shopping', and 'The Largest Stock of Loose and Mounted Diamonds in Medford'. Contact information: New Location, 212 E. Main street. Store Open Evenings.

Advertisement for Santa Claus' Headquarters. Includes an illustration of a man in a Santa suit driving a car. Text: 'Santa Claus' Headquarters Are at this store and he has loads of presents for everyone. RED FRONT 5, 10 and 25c Store'.

Advertisement for Sanford Silver Collars. Includes an illustration of a white collar. Text: 'The best presentation of the immensely popular cut-a-way shape. Ide Silver Collars. The leading men's wear stores have Ide Silver Collars or can get them for you—but if you have the slightest bother, write us for a list of our dealers nearest you. REG. P. IDE & CO., 1100 N. TROY, N. Y.'

Attractive Gifts at Attractive Prices

Product list for Medford Pharmacy. Categories include Fountain Pens (Waterman Ideal $2.50 to $10.00), Safety Razors (Autostrip $5, Gillette $5, Keen Kutter $1, Enders $1, Ever Ready $1, Gem $1, Shaving Mugs, Shaving Brushes), Brushes (Hair, Cloth, Hat), Leather Goods (Bill Books, Book Marks, Portfolios, Cigar Cases, Coin Purses, Manicure Sets, Traveling Sets, Hand Bags, Postcard Albums, Calendars, Pillow Tops), and Perfumes (U.S.A. and Imported, nice line in bulk and fancy boxes). Also includes Kodaks (The Amateur Camera of Professional Quality) and Stamps (Only Drug Store Giving S. & H. Green Trading Stamps).

MAIN STREET PHONE 10 MEDFORD PHARMACY Open Evenings Until Christmas