APPELLATE POSTERS

The pupils of the school surprised Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Wheeler last Friday morning by presenting them with a beautiful water set and sherry set, in all twenty pieces.

The idea originated in the school and was so carried out as not to arouse suspicion. On Friday, which was the last day of school before vacation...

When the teachers arrived their surprise was so complete that they were unable to find words to express their appreciation.

The basket ball school teams of Euch and Applegate played a match game in the Socialist hall on the night of Dec. 15th.

Rev. Mr. Ostler of Ashland preached at the school house Sunday night. There was also Sunday school in the afternoon.

Elmo Thorp Martin was a business visitor in Medford one day last week. Mrs. S. C. O'Brien and daughter Annie, Edd O'Brien and his son Vernon, all of Medford, expect to spend the holidays with relatives living here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler who are in charge of the school here left Saturday to spend their vacation with Mrs. Wheeler's parents near Talent.

Chester Kubie purchased a fine bunch of steers in the McKee district the first of the week. He returned Tuesday.

Corlie Topping and wife of Murphy spent Thursday and Friday at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Tom Herriott.

There is going to be an annual dance at Rose's hall Xmas night. Everybody come and have a good time. Mrs. Wright will serve the midnight supper.

Beatrice McKee, a pupil of this school, expects to spend the Xmas and New Year vacation, which is two weeks, with her folks at Rogue River.

Ray Brown of this community took the teachers examinations in Jacksonville last week.

Everyone will be favored with good waits and two step time. The coldest night of the season was last week when the thermometer dropped to 10 above. The river was frozen over for nearly half a mile above the dam at the Herriott Bros. saw mill the ice being thick enough to hold up skaters.

BUTTE FALLS BUBBLES

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Boughton made a business trip to Medford Tuesday. Mr. Kneeland, who has been at Rogue River for some time, came back Thursday.
