The Pantorium is moving into its new quarters at 23 North Fir street. The Krebs grocery company will occupy the building on West Main vacated by the cleaning concern.

Sporting comment in the Portland and Northwest papers Sunday is unanimous in the verdict that Bud Anderson is through as a fighter and hole with regret that the "Medford Made" lightweight champion still entertains the notion that he is a pugilist. Bud is seeking a return match with his last conqueror, Frank Barrieau. Bud's meteoric rise is given, with flattery, and kind words for his swift fall.

Get it at De Voe's.

Dr. Goudy, one of the best known men in Medford, and a southern gentleman of the old school, celebrated his 73rd birthday Sunday, with greetings and cognog to his host of friends. Though nearly three quarters of a century old, Doc has not lost faith in the democratic party, North Dakota, or the future of the Rogue River valley, and is as chipper as school boy. This is the first winter in years he has spent in the Rogue River valley, generally going to southern California for the climate. Scores of friends in many parts of the land sent greetings to Dr. Goudy.

J. T. Sullivan of the Roguelands company spent Saturday afternoon inspecting conditions in the Evans creek district.

Edison Marshall, Harold Cochran, Ned and George Vilas, the Misses Vera Olmstead, Irene Smith, Mildred Gerig, and other students at the University of Oregon and state college returned to their classes Sunday. Students at the California schools will return the middle of the week.

The motor service on the Southern Pacific motor will be discontinued tomorrow, Tuesday, Jan. 5. To make up for this abandonment train No. 13 will stop at Tolo, Rogue River, Phoenix, Talent on flag, and train No. 16 at Ray Gold on flag. The other service is unchanged.

Rex Lammann, formerly editor of the Gold Hill News, now employed on the Portland Oregonian, had a poem entitled "Beauty is Everywhere" in a recent issue of the New York Sun. It was in this paper that most of the noted poets of the land received their first recognition, and the fact that this journal published the musings is a testimonial of merit.

The first meeting of the city council for the New Year will be held at the city hall tomorrow night, when the business for the old year will be closed, and the matter of the lighting proposition of the Rogue River Public Service corporation comes up for consideration.

James Easton of the Applegate district spent Monday in Medford attending to business matters.

DIED

Miss Susie Cope of Phoenix passed away Monday morning, January 4, 1915, after a lingering illness. She was a native of Canada, for many years a resident of the valley, teacher in the Phoenix schools and correspondent of the Mail Tribune. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Smoke Home-Made Cigars. Governor Johnson, Mt. Pitt and La Vista are the best.

No magicians in the past quarter of a century have received more praise from the foreign press than that bestowed upon LeRoy, Talma and Bosco with their company of mystery people, numbering fifty. Their present round the world tour has consumed twelve years. LeRoy, Thelma, Bosco and their company will come to the Page Theater, Monday night, January 4.

NEW COUNTY OFFICIALS IN OFFICE

Changes were made this morning in county offices, Channey Florey assuming the duties of the recorder's office and Fred L. Colvig assuming control of the treasurer's office. Jas. M. Cronmiller retiring. John A. Perl will take charge of the coroner's office. Wednesday, Frank H. Madden will be sworn in as county commissioner. Joe Smith retiring. The switch was unaccompanied by any ceremony. Some of the new officials are badly worried over the bill the Multnomah delegation is to introduce at the coming session, providing for a 20 per cent cut in wages of all county officials.

EXPLOSION OF GASOLINE TANK WRECKS SHOP

An explosion of a gasoline tank he was soldering in the shop of the Medford Sheet & Iron works Saturday afternoon more or less wrecked the shop and endangered the lives of B. G. Worthington, proprietor of the shop, and Mose Barkdull, a friend, standing by. Worthington was scalded about the hands, hair and face, and Barkdull stunned by the concussion. Worthington was hurled across the room.

The explosion was caused by the ignition of the gasoline fumes in the tank, which had been drained. The top was blown off with sufficient force to send a jagged hole in the ceiling. Had the direction of the explosion been outward, both men would have been killed.

The force of the explosion wrecked the windows fore and aft in the shop. Not a piece of glass as big as a hand remained in the front, but the front door, which was open, was unbroken. The fire department was called out and extinguished the blazing tank. A large crowd gathered after the explosion.

Mr. Worthington showed great presence of mind. Though painfully burned, bruised and nearly blind from the flames, he insisted on returning to roll out a second large tank brought in for repair, which would undoubtedly have exploded had the building caught fire. The building is owned by Charles Palm.

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without gripping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs;" these see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Adv.
