

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

There are chicken thieves in Medford as L. L. Cathcart, who lives at No. 49 North Orange street, will bear witness. Tuesday morning about 6 o'clock a thief entered his chicken house and stole two of the best of his flock. The thief was evidently wise to his job as he selected two dark colored chickens in preference to white ones, notwithstanding the fact that there was a preponderance of white over dark—the motive for the dark preference being that they were less easily detected in the growing dawn of early day, when a hasty departure was imperative.

The department of justice has taken no action to date upon the petition of Mrs. Julia Jackson of Levenberry, former landlady of local rooming houses, for falsification of pension papers, for which she is now under sentence. Her petition has been signed by a number and affidavits filed setting forth that she is in ill health, and that the ends of justice will best be served by official mercy being granted. Mrs. Jackson's term is about half over, and will likely be all over, before any official cognizance is taken of her plea.

City Recorder Foss and the council will canvass the vote cast at the last city election Friday, and issue certificates of election to the victors so they can assume office at the next regular meeting of the council. The official count will make no important changes in the figures as now announced. Only one or two ballots were thrown out by the election officials on account of faulty marking.

Something of a storm raged over the city for a few hours Wednesday night, the wind attaining a velocity of thirty miles an hour, and driving the rain before it in sheets. Unattached signs, etc., on the streets were blown down, and the wind howled dismally through the telephone wires. About sun-up the storm broke, and a bright sunshiny day followed. Less than half an inch of rain fell.

Effective Friday, January 15, north bound Shasta Limited will leave Medford at 2:15 a. m. instead of 2:45 a. m. as at present. This is the announcement made by the traffic department of the Southern Pacific today.

Under the caption "Sounds Like An Invasion" the Roseburg Evening News of Monday prints the following account of Senator Von der Hellen of Wellen: "The senator from Jackson county has a name that makes one think of the war in Europe and one of its leaders. His name is von der Hellen, but he is reported as being a man of peace, wants to get down to business, do something, then quit and go home. And candidly it is not a bad idea to promulgate and follow."

The storm Wednesday caused considerable difficulty to telegraph service, commercial and news wires in this city being routed via Denver, Salt Lake, Boise, and Seattle from San Francisco. Heavy snows in the Siskiyou caused most of the trouble.

places it varied between the seventh and the tenth degrees.

Relief measures for the thousands who have succeeded in escaping from their ruined homes in safety but are in want and without shelter, are going ahead with all possible speed. Special trains have been despatched, carrying physicians and nurses, and government officials have been ordered to provide all necessities for the stricken people.

King Victor Emmanuel, despite the protests of government officials who discussed the international situation in Europe as a reason for his staying in Rome, left early today for the vicinity of Avezzano to do what ever he could, and by his presence give stimulus to the relief work.

FOR DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR OR ITCHY SCALP—25 CENT DANDERINE

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you can not have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fallish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?
