

GREER OFFERS TO SELL SPRING BONDS FOR COMMISSION

ASHLAND, Jan. 15.—Financing the springs bond remains the engrossing topic. Bert Greer, chairman of the water commission, contends that if a satisfactory bid of par and accrued interest is not forthcoming by January 26 he will produce a purchaser who will take over the whole job lot of $175,000 at par and accrued interest, provided the city will pay a commission of 5 per cent, and that there will be no further strings attached to the deal.

A meeting of citizens was held in city hall Thursday morning to talk over the situation and perfect plans for forming a syndicate of forty or more to take over the bonds, regardless of commission, that matter to be settled by the council. The meeting was well attended, particularly by those who subscribed liberally to forward the original development work on the springs project.

Rose Off for East

Charley Rose left Wednesday on a long-contemplated eastern trip, which will take him to the Atlantic seaboard. First of all, he will visit his brother, Leslie, at North Yakima, Wash., then will join his wife at Louisville, Ky., after which they will tour the principal cities of the west. While in Kentucky he will make an extended visit with his "first wife's" relations, most of whom reside in the vicinity of Cave City, in the blue grass state. Previous to leaving Ashland, he fortified himself with letters of introduction to Senators Chamberlain and Lane, so that while in Washington he might avail himself of some special privileges while visiting the national capital.

Allen Davis is making preparations for a lively campaign of development in connection with the Western Star mine, a promising quartz proposition, near Siskiyou county, California, near Gazelle. A number of Ashland people are associated with him in the enterprise.

Moves to Sams Valley

Romain Farnham is packing up preparatory to removing to Sams Valley, he having traded city property for the E. E. Phipps ranch in that locality. The removal of this family will add materially to the Ashland colony in the Sams Valley section. John Cameron and Clyde Rhodes, former residents here, also have ranch holdings near Farnham's newly acquired 160 acres. These settlers all have daily mail service nowadays on the route from Gold Hill to Beagle. The postoffice at Sams Valley is kept by Mrs. Gardner, who also conducts a store of general merchandise.

Fred Wagner is not only one of five newspaper men serving in the present legislature, either in an active or ex-capacity, but also has been appointed member of committee on municipal waterworks systems, a matter which Schubert of Clackamas deems occasion for emergent action.

President Newcombe and Secretary Seager of the local commercial organization were officially delegated to deliver set speeches at the annual gathering of the Medford club on Friday evening.

BRIGGS RESIGNS AS MANAGER ASHLAND FRUIT ASSOCIATION

ASHLAND, Jan. 15.—The Fruit & Produce association is without a permanent manager, A. C. Briggs having resigned that position. The directors of the organization will meet again in a week or so to take up the matter of a definite appointment in this respect. In the meantime Mr. Briggs is still on duty.

Steps are under way looking towards the resuscitation of the local Knights of Pythias lodge. A number of the faithful followers of Damon and Pythias desire to see the order a back number in this locality, hence efforts for reorganization.

Frank Hodgson, recently convicted of the murder of Allen McLeod in Klamath county, passed through here Wednesday in charge of officers bound for the penitentiary at Salem, having received a life sentence.

Lodge Invited to Visit

Members of Alpha Chapter, Eastern Star, acknowledge with thanks the special invitation to attend the installation of officers of Reames chapter, at Medford, held on Wednesday evening. Owing to inclement weather members did not attend in a body. Mrs. Grace Turner represented the local chapter and reports an imposing ceremony and a most hospitable reception incident to the installation event.

G. L. Sams started Wednesday on the return trip to his home in Butte, Neb., after a visit with his son, C. E. Sams, which has extended over the past six months. The father is a sufferer from senile rheumatism and is partially helpless. Rev. Mr. Scott, pastor of the local Nazarene church, accompanied Mr. Sams on the journey to the central west.

The famous slogan, "Erin Go Bragh," words by Bishop Ussher, has been set to music by Mabel Tate Elliott, an Irish composer, and is being rehearsed here. The bishop, local manager of W. W. Ussher, telephone exchange.

OBITUARY.

Miss Susie A. Cope, born in Lambton county, Ontario, Canada, died in Phoenix, Oregon, January 4, 1915.

Her parents came from Ireland and were pioneer settlers of Canada.

As a child she showed great aptitude in school work, having taken all the advanced studies of the school including higher mathematics at the age of 12 years.

In 1882 she with her parents moved to Huron county, Mich., where she became a teacher in the public schools. She soon saw the need for specializing along the lines of child study and took normal courses in kindergarten work under several prominent child educators including Professor Hinsdall and Professor W. W. Ferris, (now governor of Michigan.) While in Michigan she became an active worker in the W. C. T. U. holding many prominent positions in that order.

In 1905 the family moved to Hoquiam, Washington, here she continued her teaching and was also active in temperance work.

From Hoquiam she moved to Seattle and became a partner in business with her brother, John Cope.

She moved with him and his family to Phoenix, Oregon, about four years ago. She was soon recognized as a woman of more than ordinary ability. Her influence for good was soon felt and in 1912 she became a member of the school board. Her work in promoting educational advancement in the Phoenix school will ever be a living monument to her. She was president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of this town and was also state superintendent of the very important department of Christian Citizenship. She took an active part in promoting the cause of temperance during the late political campaign. She was a member of the Civic club and was tireless in her efforts to make of it a power in the town.

Miss Cope was a faithful member of the Episcopal church. She applied her knowledge of child study to her work in the Sunday school and was most successful in inculcating Bible truths to small children. She was a woman of faith, and therefore a woman of vision. With a spirit of courage and strength she strove for lofty ideals and when confronted by trials would invariably say, "I am not afraid, I am ready," using this expression also when speaking of her possible death the night she was stricken down.

She will be missed in all circles. She was a faithful friend and a loving sister. She leaves two brothers, John Cope and Sam Cope of Phoenix to mourn her loss.

UPPER VALLEY BEGINS CAMPAIGN FOR SUGAR BEETS

ASHLAND, Jan. 15.—A meeting of the committee to look out for beet sugar interests was held at C. B. Lanekin's office Thursday and plans were perfected for making an active campaign in behalf of the big industrial enterprise. Chairman Lowe presided and he gave out the information that a thorough canvass of this portion of the valley would begin today.

Revival Is Held

The general revival movement now under way is being reinforced by a series of gospel meetings held in the city hall. The schedule calls for a daily devotion, the hour being fixed at 2 p. m. Like railway time tables, however, the hour is subject to change without notice, and on some occasions the service has had to be abandoned owing to a multiplicity of uses for which the hall is in demand just at present. As a result of these meetings, many sinners on the Plaza have been called to repentance. The song portion of the service is not being overlooked, the abundant talent at the command of the various city officials being at times requisitioned in order to reinforce the choir.

There are no further developments in local postoffice affairs. No assistant in the office has yet been appointed. It is understood that such appointment rests with the postmaster and that the choice will fall to some member of the present office force by way of promotion.

Recruiting Militia

First company, Coast Artillery Reserve, is being recruited up to a war footing. One of the inducements being held out is a trip to the Panama exposition to help defend the Golden Gate peradventure an invasion by the Japs. Quite a number of the older boys are being enrolled in order to encourage the younger element. Doc Reeder, examining surgeon, is kept busy taking the measure and temperature of those who are anxious to recruit, not to mention the temperaments of those militantly inclined.

TABLE ROCK TABLETS

A. L. Seabrook butchered some fine porkers last week.

The county court has appointed A. L. Vincent road supervisor for road district No. 12.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. S. C. Collins is on the sick list this week.

Oliver Pendland has bought several head of calves the past week.

L. E. Caton and family took Sunday dinner with D. W. Beebe and family of Agate.

Mrs. Maud Keys of Medford is staying at the Collins' home during Mrs. Collins' illness.

Harry Hayes who has been trapping on the upper Table Rock reports the capture of two large coyotes a wild cat and several skunks.

Henry Gregory of Agate was over in these parts Monday and while here bought some corn from Jim Pendland paying $25.00 a ton for the same.

Harvey Richardson and E. J. Odell of Agate are extending telephone line No. 29 to the Antioch country. Mr. Odell would like to lease some land in those parts suitable for the growing of sugar beets providing the factory is constructed.

J. H. Lydiard is working on a gopher trap that bids fair to be a puzzle to the gophers when completed.

Harry Nealson purchased a large quantity of seed wheat Wednesday, paying $1.50 a bushel for it.

Lawrence Fitzpatrick will sing at the Savoy Theater in Central Point Saturday evening.

We understand that Rev. Lippincott of Sams Valley will hold religious services at the school house next Sunday the exact hour not yet announced.

Miss Margaret Perry of the Antioch district is assisting with the house work at the Pendleton home.

The piece of road known as the Vincent lane is almost impassible since the rains of the last few days, although this road has been in use for some 50 years it has never been treated to so much as a load of gravel and the nature of the soil is such that in wet weather it gets terrific.

As we carried the U. S. mail over this road at one time ourselves we know how to sympathize with our present carrier who must make daily trips over this road.

Loren Gregory and family of Agate, Elmer Keys and family of Medford and Benjamin Collins and son Fred of Jacksonville, were Sunday guests at the S. C. Collins' home.

Vose Thompson is spending some time with his folks at Canyonville, Ore.

SCHOOL SURVEY FOR ASHLAND BY STAFF OF EXPERTS

ASHLAND, Jan. 15.—The city school district is to have a school survey at the hands of a staff of experienced educators and accountants selected from outside points. The survey will be held during the period extending from February 15 to 20. The staff includes Superintendent C. R. Frazier of Everett, Wash.; Professor F. C. Ayer of Eugene, and Hon. H. B. Miller of Portland.

The scope of this work is extensive, the survey including a wide range of facts and figures in detail. The physical evaluation of grounds, buildings and equipment will be taken into consideration; also the status of the schools in a general way, the scores including every particular regarding efficiencies and deficiencies are to be pointed out if any exist.

This action taken in regard to the city schools is the first to be inaugurated among the schools of the county. Of the staff selected to perform this work, Superintendent Frazier has held important educational positions in Minnesota, having built up one of the best systems in Winona and at one time was assistant superintendent of that state. Professor Ayer has had a large school experience and for years was connected with the normal educational institutions of the central west. Mr. Miller is head of the department of commerce at the state university, and is an expert in finance and accounting. He was at one time minister to Japan.

The Ashland school district has extensive and valuable properties and its revenues and expenditures are correspondingly large, consequently a thoroughly systematic plan is needed to administer upon an "estate" which has grown to be one of the principal assets of the town. It is with this end in view that the survey is to be made, and all the school officials are as a unit in welcoming a movement which it is expected will add to the prestige of an educational establishment already occupying an enviable position among the schools of the commonwealth.

WHY?

A word to those who are coming back. Land for the past six months has been hanging at rock bottom prices. A great deal of liquidation has taken place in this time. My business alone in the last half of this year has amounted to nearly $100,000 I believe the last four or five deals I have made represent absolutely the bottom. Land with rental value of $50 an acre will not long remain at $200 an acre. There will be no boom but land values will improve some. Good roads, irrigation, saw-mill, box factory, cheap power, sugar beets, canning factory, good prices, satisfied customers, perfect days. Hurry, see Medford first and
