One of the best examples of modern auto service was the manner in which the Nurni Bakery wagon was put into commission after the bad smash up of yesterday noon. As related in another part of the paper, their Ford delivery car smashed into a telephone pole, and to all appearances was almost completely wrecked. The car was hauled to the Gates Ford Service station at 1 o'clock and this morning is delivering bread the same as usual. This was made possible only by the fact that Gates carries a complete set of Ford parts, and is able to completely reconstruct a Ford car on short notice at a surprisingly low cost. Moral: Better be safe than sorry. Buy a Ford.

LITTLE GOOD ROADS SENTIMENT SHOWN

"There is discouragingly little good roads sentiment in the legislature," stated Representative W. I. Vawter who returned from Salem Saturday to spend Sunday at home.

"The Willamette valley is as usual, the center if the opposition, though Multnomah and eastern Oregon delegations are favorable. It is problematical whether much of the needed legislature is secured. The grange has its customary lobby opposing state highways.

"The Scheubel bill as introduced, would have killed all the experiment stations along with other continued appropriations, but we have amended it in the legislature.

"The senate committee has a hearing on the Rogue river fish bill Monday. Even if it goes through there, we hope to kill it in the house, though I see no reason why it should not be killed at the start in the senate."

ODEN PARDONED BY GOVERNOR WEST

SALEM, Or., Jan. 23.—During the last thirty days of his administration former Governor Oswald West conditionally pardoned fifty-nine convicts, eight of them convicted of murder, according to a compilation today of records on file in the capitol. Those receiving pardons included men and women convicted of highway robbery, burglary, criminal assault and horse thievery. J. A. French, former county judge of Wallowa county, who pleaded guilty to stealing $2800 from the county, was among the pardoned. Upon his arrival here he was committed to the feeble-minded institute. Others to receive executive clemency were Fannie McNulty, convicted of forgery; Richard Thomason, assault with a dangerous weapon, and Virgil Oden, criminal assault, all of whom were sentenced from Jackson county.

NEARLY 5000 BOOKS IN PUBLIC LIBRARY

The library report for 1914, copy of which has been placed on file in the city hall, shows the collection to contain 4894 volumes, of which 1243 have been added during the year.

The circulation of books and magazines for home use was 37,829, an average of 122 per day, and an increase of 27 per cent over last year. Seventy periodicals are received regularly. Some of these are donated—more are purchased and all the more important magazines are kept on file or bound for reference use. There are six daily papers on file, and the Chicago Tribune has just been added.

The library is showing a substantial gain in every department. Story hours have been conducted Saturday mornings during the year, and more work has been done with the schools and clubs than ever before. The club rooms on the lower floor are in constant demand for gatherings of various kinds and there is a growing use of the reading rooms, both on week-days and Sundays. The hours of opening are 9-12, 2-6 and 7-9.

STRIKE SHOOTING DEPUTIES ON TRIAL

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Jan. 23.—Thirty-two deputy sheriffs of Middlesex county, employed by a private detective agency to guard the fertilizer plant of the American Agricultural Chemical company at Roosevelt, N. J., spent the night in the county jail here and faced arraignment today on charges of murder. The deputies, it is alleged, all participated in the shooting at Roosevelt Tuesday in which nineteen strikers were wounded, two of them of their wounds.

Members of the grand jury were notified by Prosecutor Florance to reassemble in extraordinary session here next Tuesday to consider the charges against the deputies.

AIRSHIP WINGED IN AEROPLANE RAID UPON DUNKIRK

DOVER, via London, Jan. 23.—It was reported here tonight that a Zeppelin was seen over Ostend today.

Dispatches from Cromer, England, Friday contained reports that aircraft had passed over that place and that preparations had been made to resist an aerial attack. Preparations were made in the surrounding towns, but no attack developed, so that it appeared that the reports about the invading air craft were baseless.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Havre, in his report on the aeroplane attack on Dunkirk yesterday, says:

"Several German aeroplanes dropped bombs on Dunkirk Friday afternoon. One of them was brought down at Great Dunes, between Dunkirk and Furnes, and the two German airmen in this machine were killed. Ten unexploded bombs were still attached to the aeroplane."

LONDON, Jan. 23.—Fishermen arriving at Noordwijk today assert, according to a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Leyden, that they saw an airship founder in the North sea on Friday night. The fishermen, the message adds, were unable to assist the aircraft. The description of the vessel given by the men indicates that it was a Zeppelin. Noordwijk is a watering place of The Netherlands, seven miles northwest of Leyden.

PORTLAND ANGLERS PROTEST OPENING OF ROGUE RIVER

PORTLAND, Jan. 23.—More than 300 Multnomah county sportsmen met at the Commercial club building on Thursday and perfected plans to remonstrate against Oregon bills to be presented to the Oregon state legislature, recommending others which met with their approval. Resolutions were passed and committees appointed to meet the joint senate and house game and fish committees, which meet at Salem for the purpose next Wednesday night. The following resolution regarding the Rogue river was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, in Oregon we have a number of rivers from which a valuable harvest is reaped by both commercial fishermen and anglers; and

"Whereas, it is of vital interest to the people as a whole that our laws be strict enough to guarantee that plenty of fish are left as seed each year so that our waters may be well stocked; and

"Whereas, gill net fishing is allowed in the Rogue river above tide water to a point one mile below the steel bridge at Grants Pass for two months during the year, from June 1 to August 1, which gives abundant opportunity for commercial fishing; and

"Whereas, senate bill 26, introduced by J. W. Smith of Grants Pass, provides that the season be lengthened from two to four months, which, if passed, will so deplete this stream, which is one of the greatest in the United States from the anglers' standpoint, that not enough fish will be left for spawning purposes; now therefore be it

"Resolved, that the members of the Multnomah Anglers' club and other sportsmen here assembled, strongly recommend to the legislature that this bill do not pass. And be it further

"Resolved, that every effort be used by the sportsmen of the state of Oregon, to prevent the lengthening of seasons for commercial fishing in all those streams that are being so heavily fished for commercial purposes and are yet of great attraction to tourists who want to fish with rod and line."

Mills as Chairman

A. L. Mills, president of the First National bank, presided at the meeting. I. N. Fleischner was appointed as secretary. After H. B. Van Duzer, president of the Oregon Sportsmen's league, had explained what the meeting was called for, Lester W. Humphries gave a convincing argument in favor of the new measures to be introduced, and explained why these changes should be made and measures like the Scheubel bill, No. 101, which turns the money derived from fishing and hunting licenses into the general fund, as well as abolishing the present form of game and fish commission, and should be defeated, as well as bill 16, introduced by Senator Dimick, which does away with duck feeding. Mr. Humphries also urged that the Rogue river sportsmen be sustained by the Multnomah county delegates in their fight to prevent the opening of the Rogue river above tidewater to more than two months of commercial fishing. There is a bill before the house entered by J. W. Smith of Josephine county, to allow four months of commercial fishing.

Master Fish Warden Clanton spoke on this subject, and State Game Warden Finley also included this in the course of his remarks. Both opposed a longer netting season.
