RURAL CREDIT

Senator Chamberlain has written as follows acknowledging receipt of local petitions for rural credits: C. A. Chapman, Esq.,

375 South C St., Medford, Ore.

My dear Sir: I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 10th instant. For it and for the suggestions therein contained, as well as for the petition enclosed, I thank you very much. Some of us are very much in favor of remaining here until a rural credits bill of the proper kind has been put through congress. In the consideration of such a measure your suggestions will have my earnest considera-

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor: I had a conversation with some parties over on the Applegate today, inventions: and the question was asked me if I thought it were possible to hand sugar beets from that locality at a profit. And I said to them that I thought that it could be done by engaging auto tracks to do the hauling, and then the question arose as to the cost of such transportation. Now, would it not be asivisable to ascertain the probable these, our neighbors over on the Applegate, could figure on the same and for beet culture?
