Eureka! Oscar Gets Into the Fair

AT THEIR GAY PRANKS

News From Our Neighbors

TALENT TALK

Several of Talent's adventurous youths have been caught in their den on Bear creek where chicken suppers were the regular thing at their nighty-pow-wows. The boys have been required to pay for the fowls and have been promised more severe punishment next time such a thing occurs.

Many contributions were made to the human family at a pound social the fore part of the week. Mrs. Inman has been paralyzed for some time and is now being taken care of by her son Ben.

Mrs. Daily of Eagle Point, also Mrs. Wing and Mrs. Wolf of Medford, attended Rehearsal lodge at Talent Saturday evening. During the evening Mrs. French and her two daughters from Phoenix, also Miss Callie Vogel were initiated into the mysteries of the order. Mrs. Earnest Purvis was admitted by card. After the ceremonies light refreshments were served. Forty-nine were in attendance.

C. T. Lester who has been connected with the Wagner creek nursery for some years, left Sunday for the orange belt in California where he will make his future home.

The young people of the Epworth League gave a very successful play Friday evening at the school house. About $35 was raised by the performance. An effort is being made to have the play put on in some of the nearby towns. Miss Anna Smith as "the little wife" made a decided hit. All of the parts were good and the young people deserve considerable credit for staging such a difficult production.

The Community club met Wednesday afternoon for the first time in their new quarters in the city hall. Civic improvement seems to be the order of the day at their meetings lately. Plans are now under way to co-operate with the school officials in making the school grounds more attractive by setting out shrubbery. The road ways are being laid out so that any improvements will now be permanent. A special committee met Saturday to talk over plans and lay out the grounds.

Mrs. Jay Terrill had both hands burned recently while blackening the stove. The carpet and some clothing also caught fire, but the flames were extinguished before doing much damage. Mrs. Terrill is now able to attend to her regular work.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Holdridge are looking forward to the arrival next Tuesday of two old time local neighbors who are enroute to attend the World's Fair.

Mrs. Lillie Jeffery and Mr. Jeffery, brother of Mrs. Jeffery's former husband were united in marriage Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. Way in Ashland. They departed on the 11 o'clock train for a ten day trip to Oakland and the San Francisco fair.

The Talent girls' basket ball team were defeated by the Medford high school team Friday evening, they also went down to defeat in the hands of the Ashland girls Saturday.

Dr. Hart has opened an office in Ashland and hereafter he will spend the middle of the day in Ashland; mornings and evenings will be spent at the home office in Talent.

There will be a meeting of the Parent-Teachers' circle at the school house Tuesday evening. There are two topics up for discussion, G. A. Morse in leader in the discussion "The Future High School for Talent and the Advantages of Instituting Higher Grades." "Advantages and Disadvantages of Co-operation with Other Schools in Securing Special Teachers for Domestic Science and Art, Music and Manual Training." Mr. Wethorn Benson leader. Mrs. Stannard will have charge of the music for the program.

RIVERSIDE RIPPLES

Miss Bertha Woolverton returned Saturday from a week's visit with friends in Phoenix.

F. E. Wahl returned to his work in Medford Monday, having spent the week end at home.

Mrs. Grant Mathews and Mrs. Stannard were callers at the G. B. Alden home Sunday.

Miss Dot Berry was a week end guest of Miss Bertha Woolverton returning to her home in Medford on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Nye motored down from Medford Saturday afternoon and were over Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Alden.

The Five Hundred card club are to meet at the C. D. Woolverton Saturday evening.

The Foots creek school gave a very interesting Washington Day program on Friday. School Supervisor Peterson visited the school on that day.

Mrs. J. H. Porter entertained the Recreation club Thursday afternoon. Nearly all members were present.

The vice-president, Mrs. W. A. Elliott conducted the business meeting and Mrs. F. E. Wahl gave an interesting talk on Columbia.

After a pleasant social hour delicious refreshments were served. Next meeting in two weeks with Mrs. Schaumburg.

One of the most enjoyable parties of the season was the Valentine party at the Riverside club house Saturday evening. About 40 were present including Mr. and Mrs. Nye and Miss Berry of Medford. After a few hours of dancing the Valentine box was opened there being about 75 of them. Jokes and pet hobbies of the different ones in the neighborhood were put in verse showing much originality and poetical talent.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Wm. Myer, Ralph Billings, Marion Long, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Herrin, Mr. and Mrs. Nym, Long and Mrs. John Moreland attended the funeral of Matthew S. Thompson at Eagle Point last Friday. Interment was in Antelope cemetery. The deceased was familiarly known as "Bud" Thompson in medieval times by the residents of this locality and in those days was recognized as a young man of sterling worth. About the year 1897 he lived in the family of W. C. Myer on the ranch now occupied by Ralph Billings, dividing his time between active farm work and attending school.

The survey of the local school district was completed last week. Members of the corps were Chas. R. Frazier, superintendent of schools of E. Ayer and Don Sowers of the University of Oregon. The two former looked more particularly after the educational phase of the survey, the latter, who is a financial expert, taking into consideration physical features in connection with the application of revenue and expenditures. An exhaustive report will follow in due season. Prof. Briscoe, local superintendent, materially assisted the surveyors in their work which was thorough and painstaking.

Mrs. F. L. Zigler of Burlington, Ia., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. V. S. C. Mickelson, at the latter's home, corner of Oak and B streets. She is accompanied by her daughter, Edna, and together they have been visiting relatives in various parts of Oregon previous to going to San Francisco to see the exposition. This is not Mrs. Zigler's first trip to the coast, she having visited this vicinity about eight years ago.

Gen. David J. Palmer, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., was in this city Friday afternoon, being on his way to San Francisco on business connected with his office and where he will incidentally visit the exposition. From there he will make a wide detour of inspection throughout a big expanse of territory. His wife accompanied him. General Palmer's home is at Washington, Iowa. In the civil war he served in the 8th and 25th Iowa infantry. "Bastus Hall and Ed White, old army comrades, greeted the distinguished visitor while here and were admonished to attend the national G. A. R. encampment at Washington, D. C., next September. In physical appearance the general slightly resembles J. W. Hicks, local post commander.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply to the city council of the city of Medford, Oregon,

WHY?

A word to those who are coming back. Land for the past six months has been hanging at rock bottom prices. A great deal of liquidation has taken place in this time. My business alone in the last half of this year has amounted to nearly $100,000. I believe the last four or five deals I have made represent absolutely the bottom. Land with rental value of $20 an acre will not long remain at $200 an acre. There will be no boom but land values will improve some. Good roads, irrigation, saw-mill, box factory, cheap power, sugar beets, canning factory, good prices, satisfied customers, perfect days. Hurry, see Medford first and
