News From Our Neighbors

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Mrs. T. G. Todd, wife of T. G. Todd, who, with N. T. McDonald, bought the Johnson place, near the mouth of Elk creek, was with us the last of the week on her way to Medford.

C. D. Hoffman and A. P. Davis of La Grande, Or., were with us last Saturday. They were out here to see what prospect there was to organize a grange. They were both deputy grange organizers for this state.

Mrs. L. H. Dewese, formerly of this place, who left here a year ago last November for Missouri, arrived last Friday morning. Her husband is expected by the middle of the week. His health failed him, so he thought that he would return to Jackson county and regain it.

Clarence Cox, formerly of this place, but more recently from Portland, came down to attend the funeral of Matthew Thompson last week and spent the night with us. He also visited his half-sister, Mrs. Gus Nichols, on Salt creek.

Mrs. W. J. Austin of Climax visited our town for the first time, although she has been living on Antelope creek for a number of years. She was quite favorably impressed with our town.

Mrs. A. J. Hatch of Berkeley, Cal., a sister of Mrs. Dr. W. W. P. Holt, is making her sister a visit.

Mrs. L. Hensler of Brownsboro was in town on business the last of the week.

Gus Nichols and wife of Brownsboro, who has a fine farm on Salt creek, came in on a business last Friday.

Last week B. H. Brophy sold forty head of yearling calves to Paul Anderson of Applegate.

Matthew Hawkins, who has been engaged on the Hillcrest orchard, took a layoff for a month and instead of lounging around and blowing his money foolishly, took a trip up in the hills on Rogue river, making headquarters at Joe Hannah's, and spent his time in fishing and pruning orchards and making himself useful, and so came out with as much money as he took in and had a good time generally. He returned to the Hillcrest orchard to go to work last Monday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Conover, February 14, a son.

W. E. Hummel has just had a spray tank made in the Childreth shop. Mr. Bryant doing the carpenter work. The tank is made of sugar pine lumber and the lumber cost in Medford 12 1/2 cents a foot, and that right in a timber country where we have millions of feet of sugar pine timber standing waiting for someone to saw it up ready for use.

Friday night the Ladies' Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. W. E. Buchanan. There were twenty-eight present. After the regular exercises of the meeting were over, cake and tea were served. There was an interesting program and quite a number of pieces read on the subject of mission work.

On Saturday afternoon the W. C. T. U. of this place had a special meeting to commemorate the birth of Miss Francis E. Willard, one of the moving spirits in the organization of the work for the overthrow of the liquor traffic. There was a good attendance and several pieces read touching on her life work. Among the readings was one read by little Jud Florey entitled, "Five Cents a Glass," that made quite an impression. The piece was well rendered. At the close of the business session the ladies served cake and coffee.

The Ladies' Aid society will have their semi-annual sale and served oyster soup and cake the afternoon of February 27.

Miss Frances Greb, who is attending high school in Medford, came out

TABLE ROCK TABLETS

John Bigham and family of Antioch attended church services here Sunday.

Fred Bowman was a Medford visitor Saturday.

Several farmers of the Eagle Point district have been in this vicinity lately after seed grain.

Sanford Richardson of Medford was a Table Rock visitor last Sunday.

Lawrence Fitzpatrick drove to Central Point Sunday to meet his friend, Darwin Phillips, who arrived that day from San Francisco and will spend some time in this valley.

Several of the young people enjoyed a birthday dinner last Sunday given by Mrs. O. Pendland in honor of James Pendland's 35th birthday.

Our school observed Washington's birthday with appropriate exercises. Monday afternoon a large number of visitors were present and enjoyed the excellent program.

Rev. Walnuff of Sams Valley preached a very interesting sermon to a large congregation at the schoolhouse last Sunday following the close of the Sunday school.

U. S. Collins, superintendent of the Medford schools, was in these parts last week exercising a new Ford automobile.

The Arrowhead Literary society held a business meeting Saturday night and transacted considerable accumulated business. A vote of thanks was tendered A. L. Seabrook for his generous donation of work in preparing the stage for next Saturday night's entertainment.

Inspection of tree roots in the Washburn orchard was begun last week. This is a good move and should be followed by every one in this district expecting to grow fruit.

Let's begin in time and get at it, and where we find the roots are badly infected we should take the tree out, for one healthy tree is worth more than a dozen diseased ones, to say nothing of the damage done by spreading of the disease.

Last Friday afternoon while everything was quiet and still there suddenly burst forth out of the lower end of the community many loud explosions, followed in quick succession that caused some of us to think the Germans had proclaimed this a war zone, but on investigating it was found that Harry Nealon and James Pendland were blowing out stumps with dynamite.

Mrs. Mary Fuller of Bridgeport, Wash., a cousin of S. C. Collins, is spending a few weeks at the Collins home.

The Arrowheads have everything in readiness for the big play, "What Happened to Jones," next Saturday night. This is a standard play in three acts and runs two and one-half hours, with thirteen people in the cast. There will be plenty of good music and among other attractions songs by Fitzpatrick and Phillips of the Globe quartet of Portland, in fact, more than three hours of solid entertainment, and the price will be in keeping with the times, 10 and 25 cents. Doors open at 7:30. Performance begins at 8:15.

Last Saturday to visit the old folks at home.

Will try to tell about the school exercises last Monday in my next.

Mrs. A. M. Thomas has an ad in this week's Weekly Mail Tribune offering a lot of household goods for sale.

Attention Ohioans.

The annual meeting will be held in the Moose hall in Ashland, Ore., on Tuesday, March 2. Dinner at 12 noon. All Ohioans will be on hand with well filled baskets and come for a good time.

EUGENE BANK ENJOINS

LANE COUNTY TREASURER

EUGENE, Or., Feb. 26.—S. W. Taylor, county treasurer, was yesterday afternoon enjoined from imposing a penalty on the second half of the 1915 taxes, suit having been instituted by the First National bank during the day. The case is exactly the same as the one last year when the bank, acting in behalf of all of the people, enjoined the treasurer and made it possible for the taxpayers who were unable to raise all of their tax money at one time to make two payments.

Many Recoveries

From Lung Trouble

Eckman's Alternative has restored to health many sufferers from lung trouble. Read what it did in this case:—

Wilmington, Del.

gentlemen—In January, 1908, I was taken with lung trouble, and my physician, a leading practitioner, said that it was lung trouble. I got very weak. C. A. Eckman's Alternative cured me. I have been well since. I strongly believe Eckman's Alternative saved my life." (Abbreviated.)

FOR RENT—Building 100x160 or any part of it. Formerly occupied by Korinek Veterinary Remedy Co. Big Pines Lumber Co.

WHY?

A word to those who are coming back. Land for the past six months has been hanging at rock bottom prices. A great deal of liquidation has taken place in this time. My business alone in the last half of this year has amounted to nearly $100,000 I believe the last four or five deals I have made represent absolutely the bottom. Land with rental value of $30 an acre will not long remain at $200 an acre. There will be no boom but land values will improve some.

Good roads, irrigation, saw-mill, box factory, cheap power, sugar beets, canning factory, good prices, satisfied customers, perfect days.

Hurry, see Medford first and J. C. BARNES Room 201, First National Bank Bldg.
