EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

The last time that I wrote for the Mail Tribune I found that my letter was too long to add all that I had to write so stopped off just as I got to the place where I was to give an account of our school entertainment on the 22nd. The exercises took place in the forenoon and there was but very few of the patrons of the school attended as it was not generally known that it was to come off in the forenoon. The two lower rooms were thrown together and all of the children assembled in that room and after singing America and prayer led by Rev. L. L. Simmons we had the exercises by the primary department. It is not necessary for me to particularize but they had a song by the little folk, then the hatchet brigade, a drill exercise by five little boys and five little girls that would have reflected credit on large children. Then we had the Intermediate department and they, as a rule, did remarkably well, some reciting pieces and some reading. While listening to the rendering of the different parts that were rendered I could not help but notice the difference there was in the way the boys and girls rendered their parts. As a rule the girls went through their parts without a bobble while the boys were troubled with defective memories and I have about come to the conclusion that that is the reason that the women are forging ahead so in all branches of business and will soon be taking their places in the legislative and judicial branches of our government as they are now in the educational branch. We then had several pieces read or spoken by the pupils of the first room and that took up the time to 12 noon and we all went to dinner.

J. E. McDonald and Robert Dawson were here the first of the week after a sojourn at the McDonald and Ludd place near the mouth of Elk creek, formerly owned by Jeff and Rube Johnson. John D. Rockefeller and Major Anderson of Medford were at the Sunny Side last week for dinner. Gus Negyren of Brownboro who owns a fine farm on Salt creek came out last week with a fine lot of hens for our railroad agent P. Newport. Misses Sarah Singleton and Ruby Haley drove in from their homes west of here the first of the week to do trading with our merchants. Joe Pool and wife were in town buying an outfit for housekeeping from our hardware, drug and furniture merchants, Von der Hellen Bros. the first of the week. J. S. Quackenbush and wife were here getting supplies from our merchants Wednesday.

There were three four-horse teams with a lot of men and their outfit, passed through our town Wednesday on their way up to the intake to go to work on the Fish Lake ditch. Perry Foster and his grandson were in town Wednesday.

In a few hours time among the business men of our town I met Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Silliman at F. L. Heath's store. He is traveling for the Romana Candy Co. of San Francisco, Cal. Last Wednesday night, it being our regular prayer meeting night, some of the good people—the ladies—concluded that they would have a change in the program without consulting the pastor Rev. L. L. Simmons, so they put their heads together to get up a surprise party for him at his own house, so they let his father-in-law into the secret, and he very innocently started off to go to light up the church, build the fire, ring the bell, etc., but got no farther than one of his neighbors and about 7:15 p. m. Rev. Simmons and family started for the church and just as they had turned off the electricity they met a number of their neighbors going to the parsonage so of course they turned back, still not full realizing what was up when he happened to think that he was lacking but one day of his 37th birthday and his friends knew that he would be at the annual celebration of the organization of the I. O. O. F. the next night so they planned to catch him at that time, and so they did and we had the prayer meeting all right and in addition one of the most pleasant times in our history. There was about 25 persons present and most of them contributed something they thought would be of use to him or the family. There was $7 in money and quite a lot of little presents such as neckties, handkerchiefs, etc., and Grandma Thomas presented him and his wife with two beautiful silver napkin rings. The company remained until about 11 o'clock and dispersed wishing many returns of the happy event. Bert Higginbotham of Prospect, came out Tuesday and spent the night at the Sunny Side.

H. J. Stewart of Central Point, who owns a farm north east of here about three miles, passed through here Thursday on his way home. In making her report of the meeting of the W. C. T. U. commemorating the birth of Miss Frances E. Willard, the press reporter made a mistake and signed the name of Etta Florey to the report when it should have been the name of the reporter or left without a name. The article that was read and published was written and read by Mrs. Florey and by a unanimous vote the request was made to have it sent to the Mail Tribune for publication, but the report of the proceedings was written by some one else.

J. P. Feather, of Medford, a teacher of penmanship has organized a writing school here and is giving three lessons a week. Frank Frederick of Portland was here for dinner Wednesday. He is selling blacksmith supplies.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply to the city council of the city of Medford, Oregon, at its next regular meeting, March 2nd, 1915, for a license to sell malt, vinous and spirituous liquors at his place of business, No. 63 N. Front street, Medford, Oregon, for a period of six months.

Dated February 18th, 1915. B. S. RADCLIFF.

The Rogue River Public Service Corporation is building a power dam at Ament.

What Have You? Why? We have a customer who states 'I don't want a cheap orchard, but I do want a good orchard cheap, and close to Medford and must turn over in part payment my $8000 residence in Chicago, and some good orchard land not far from Hood River.'

This gentleman wants something really good, for permanent home, and can come across with the difference. He is familiar with the valley and knows what he wants. He would prefer modern buildings, but that is not essential.

PRESIDENT DOUBTFUL OF EXPOSITION TRIP

WASHINGTON, March 1.—President Wilson told callers today, the European situation was demanding so much of his attention that he was doubtful if he would be able to leave Washington this spring even, possibly to make his proposed visit to the San Francisco exposition. 'I am tied here by the legs,' was the way his callers said the president expressed the situation.

NEW TODAY

A few have called regarding the Richmond lots now being offered, but most people are letting a good thing pass by. Remember that these lots are high and slightly, and on a tract that has been long withheld, and are adjoining the residence and business district. They may be had on easy terms from $750.00 to $1500.00 and the tract will have a rush of building on it this year. They are low in price, and you can examine them without expense to you before buying. Call and ask about it. Remember it is a city of 22,000 with a $600,000 monthly payroll.
